

Sue Venir

Cultural Property Attorney

Sue corrects the fine print on dinner menus. Sue is the lawyer museums call when an object has three owners, four countries, six contradictory export documents, and one increasingly angry newspaper. She is elegant, surgical, and frighteningly good at making a sentence mean exactly what she intends. Tonight she is attending as counsel to several parties who would prefer not to be described as 'parties.'

- Works regularly with Artie Ficial and Monet Bags.
- Friendly professional adversary of Mona Lott; they have argued opposite sides of restitution cases and still have dinner afterward.
- Art E. Fact has supplied expert opinions for her cases.

ACTING TIPS

Precise, formidable, patient, amused by sloppy certainty. Ask pointed questions and answer only the question actually asked.

COSTUME SUGGESTIONS

Optional inspiration: Structured formalwear, crisp lines, minimal jewelry, immaculate folder or document case. Optional reading glasses for dramatic removal.
