

Frank Lloyd Wright

Exhibition Architect & Designer

Frank considers doors a regrettable compromise in an otherwise excellent wall. Frank designed the physical experience of Treasures of the World: every wall angle, sight line, spotlight, pedestal, and dramatic reveal. He is tasteful, exacting, and deeply convinced that visitors would behave better if they understood circulation. He has strong opinions about fonts, cords, and anything that interrupts a clean visual field.

- Creative rival of sculptor Al Baster after a very public argument about scale.
- Works constantly with Minnie Malist, who keeps trying to add flowers where Frank designed negative space.
- Chip Patina has veto power over several of Frank's more adventurous display ideas.

ACTING TIPS

Aesthetic, controlled, mildly pretentious in a lovable way, easily offended by bad placement rather than bad manners.

COSTUME SUGGESTIONS

Optional inspiration: Architectural formalwear: monochrome suit, turtleneck with jacket, sharply cut black attire, interesting glasses, rolled plans or a small laser measure prop.
