

Al Baster

Sculptor & Public-Art Star

Al considers a pedestal a sculpture that has given up on itself. Al makes monumental sculpture in stone, steel, and whatever else can require a crane. He is charismatic, physically expressive, and convinced that architecture should know when to get out of sculpture's way. His newest commission occupies the museum entrance and at least three opinions per square foot.

- Creative rival of Frank Lloyd Wright after an argument about the entrance installation.
- Friendly competitor of Vincent Van Faux.
- Minnie Malist once designed a gala around one of Al's sculptures and still talks about the insurance.

ACTING TIPS

Big presence, playful arrogance, generous when admired, combative when minimized.

COSTUME SUGGESTIONS

Optional inspiration: Bold formalwear, chunky ring, sculptural accessories, dark shirt with jacket, perhaps a dust-marked work boot paired with gala clothes.
