

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Artie Ficial

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Artie Ficial

Executive Director of the Meridian Museum

Artie treats the gala like a state visit and the coat check like a diplomatic incident. Polished, ambitious, and almost unnervingly composed, Artie has spent the last six years turning the Meridian from a respected regional institution into a museum that expects to be mentioned in the same sentence as the Met.

- Works closely with Claire O'Scuro. Claire keeps asking why the exhibition needs quite so much theater.
- Relies on Monet Bags for the budget and Sue Venir for donor agreements.
- Trusts Brie DeVivre to handle the donors when Artie gets pulled into a crisis.

ACTING TIPS

Diplomatic under pressure; image-conscious; dryly funny; allergic to public chaos. Play him as someone who is always hosting, even when he is not technically the host.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Artie Ficial. It is my pleasure to welcome you to our gala unveiling our newest exhibition, Treasures of the World, sponsored by our generous benefactor, Grant Larceny, who will arrive here shortly. I'm confident this will be a remarkable evening, and if anything goes wrong tonight, please treat it as an immersive experience.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had privately informed you that tonight's gift would come with a new governance agreement: he wanted veto power over acquisitions, his name on the museum, and your resignation within sixty days. You smiled through the meeting and told no one.

Your other secret

You have already accepted a confidential offer to lead a rival museum next year, which makes any argument with Grant look like succession planning.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Monet Bags has seen the governance addendum.
- Quietly learn whether Claire O'Scuro would stay if you left.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 The moving-picture gallery has a secret on its unseen side.
- 2 Success stands on a pedestal. Tonight the prize is underneath the prize.
- 3 A lamp dressed in green is illuminating the neighborhood of a secret.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Grant wanted my resignation, his name above the door and veto power over every purchase. I had another offer. At 6:39 I took the recruiter's call on the boardroom speakerphone and stayed until 6:45. I accepted. Kindly allow me to tell my trustees before the caterer tells them.

IF MURDERER

Grant wanted my resignation and veto power over every purchase. I had another offer, but announcing my departure under his conditions would have handed him the museum. The recruiter rang during preparations. I let the boardroom line take the call; I had a donor to manage before discussing another job.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Artie Ficial

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I left Grant's speech cards in the salon before six-thirty. Then I borrowed the boardroom for what I called a budget discussion. It was a job interview. After the call I went back to the gallery, where everyone wanted a photograph and nobody wanted responsibility for the naming agreement.

IF MURDERER

I delivered Grant's speech cards before six-thirty and returned to the gallery. Around 6:42 I was checking the dedication wording on the working copy at the reception desk. He had complained about his name twice. Later I went to the boardroom to deal with the waiting recruiter.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I removed the draft resignation from Grant's folder. He had left a space for my signature beneath a date he had chosen himself. The dedication card and naming agreement were still in the folder; I took the page concerning my job. My acceptance of the other directorship is signed. His agreement is not.

IF MURDERER

I tore the draft resignation out of Grant's folder and retained his dedication card. If you have found a sheet with my name and an empty signature line, that is mine. He expected me to supply the stationery for my own dismissal. The board had not approved the naming agreement he meant to announce.

The sixteen discoveries and five reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed my new appointment, not a murder. The recruiter's retained call places me at the fixed boardroom speakerphone throughout the contamination interval. I took the resignation page because I refused to have my dismissal displayed beside the bowl. I shall answer to the trustees for that, preferably after dessert.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I let the recruiter leave a message. While I should have been answering, I took toxin from conservation and wiped Grant's empty coupe with museum linen. The speech cards got me into the salon. I claimed I was fussing over his dedication at reception. I wanted him gone before he could turn my resignation into his victory.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
