

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Dada DiCapo

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Dada DiCapo

Performance Artist & Cultural Celebrity

Dada describes standing still as an endurance piece and invoices accordingly. Dada makes expensive people uncomfortable in aesthetically impeccable ways. She is the embodiment of contemporary art.

- Went to art school with Vincent Van Faux. They still remember each other's worst work.
- Elle Loominate has secretly helped build several of Dada's installations.
- Has made commissioned work for Tess Tament. Tess still asks whether one piece is meant to make that noise.
- Performed inside a sculpture by Al Baster. Dada assumed the invitation to the opening covered that.

ACTING TIPS

Confident, theatrical, mischievous, intelligent. Commit to bits, but never let the joke make you foolish.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Dada DiCapo. If the room feels uncomfortable, good. I may invoice you for the feeling. Art is money. Art is life.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant appropriated the concept for one of your unreleased performances and planned to unveil a sanitized version of it as the gala's closing spectacle, crediting himself as creative patron.

Your other secret

You wrote and planted the ominous anonymous warning note about 'returning what was taken.' It was meant as an art-world provocation, not a literal threat.

Conversations to start

- Enjoy watching people overreact to your warning note without admitting you wrote it.
- Find out whether Minnie Malist changed the lighting cue you designed.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Go where a thousand stories glow; this one waits behind the screen.
- 2 Lift your eyes to a trophy, then look where it meets the shelf.
- 3 A secret waits behind drapes the color of spilled wine.

Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I wrote the warning. Grant stole my closing performance and put his foundation's name under it. 'Return what was taken' was an instruction, not an obituary. I wanted him to recognize his own theft in front of an audience. He offered to credit me as a consultant. I am still deciding which insult deserved the louder response.

IF MURDERER

The warning was mine. Grant stole the performance, and I wanted his guests to know whose idea they were enjoying. He suggested I could bow beside him as a consultant. I had already planted the note. He was beginning to understand that commissioning an artist and owning an artist are different arrangements.

IF INNOCENT

Before the toast I was on the rehearsal platform making a shadow figure misbehave. Grant wanted it to bow. I wanted it to take his hat. I stayed through the rehearsal, then went looking for the program with the stolen credit. A small mechanical hand can express a considerable amount of contempt.

IF MURDERER

I rehearsed the shadow figure, then let its automatic sequence run while I went through the gallery. Around 6:42 I checked whether my warning had reached Grant's papers. I returned to the platform for the closing bow. He had ordered a spectacle, and I intended him to feel included in it.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Those red shoes under the platform are mine. The rehearsal camera shows me wearing them for the whole 6:39–6:45 take; my shadow figure has neither feet nor opinions. I used museum linen for its costume and the preparation key for a prop cupboard. I also forged the foundation's signature on its ridiculous little hat.

IF MURDERER

The figure wore museum linen and a little foundation hat I had lettered myself. I used the preparation key to collect its props. My red shoes were beside the platform while the automatic sequence ran. Grant believed the bow was a tribute. I have occasionally allowed a patron to misunderstand his commission.

The sixteen discoveries and five reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I planted the warning and forged a signature on a puppet's hat. I was also visibly on the platform for the entire contamination interval. The shadow recording is uncut. Grant stole my work; I meant to make him watch it misbehave. You may charge me with artistic malice. The poison belongs to somebody else.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The automatic sequence bowed while I worked in the salon. I took the toxin through the prop cupboard access, soaked museum linen and wiped Grant's coupe. The warning supplied an audience for his discomfort; the glass supplied an ending. The red shoes on the floor were a costume change, not a person remaining onstage.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
