The Meridian Museum

INTRODUCTIONS

Tess Tament

Philanthropist & Heir to the Larceny Family Fortune

Tess speaks fluent inheritance and has strong opinions about the seating plan. Tess is the only member of the Larceny dynasty who can attend an arts gala without immediately being asked for a check, mostly because everyone genuinely appreciates her opinion on culture.

- Knows Hugh Bidder from the collector circuit. Her crush on him is the only thing capable of flustering her.
- Has commissioned work from Dada DiCapo and is still explaining one of the pieces to visitors.
- Asks Mona Lott which international exhibitions might need a generous sponsor.

ACTING TIPS

Composed, witty, guarded, generous when she chooses. You grew up around power and recognize its rituals instantly.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Tess Tament. I represent the family foundation. Contrary to what some here may think, being related to a donor is a responsibility, not a cash machine.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant told you he intended to rewrite the family trust tonight, removing you from control of the charitable foundation unless you publicly backed his museum naming plan.

Your other secret

You have been quietly organizing other family trustees to block Grant's control over the foundation and redirect future giving toward worker and community programs.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Anya Tique would publicly oppose renaming the museum.
- Gauge Artie Ficial's willingness to reject Grant's conditions.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 A piano's electric cousin is hiding a note that cannot be played. Look beneath it.
- 2 Spain has a clue for you. Find Barcelona without leaving the house.
- 3 The blue cushion is comfortable. Its secret is not meant to stay buried.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Grant said I would lose control of the foundation unless I supported his museum name. I had already approached the other trustees about blocking him. He called that disloyal. The worker fund was about to buy him a private lounge, so I can live with his assessment. I had brought the vote papers in my evening bag.

IF MURDERER

He threatened to rewrite the trust unless I applauded his naming scheme. I had been organizing trustees behind his back. He discovered it and expected me to apologize before the announcement. My family is good at buying agreement. Grant became unpleasant when he learned mine had a price he could not set.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I left the foundation papers at the salon early, then joined the committee in the board annex. The discussion concerned who could spend the worker fund. I was late back to the gallery because somebody wanted to amend an amendment. We have inherited many things, including an astonishing talent for wasting six minutes.

IF MURDERER

I left the foundation papers early, then checked the committee's proposed motion on my phone in the gallery. I wanted Grant to understand how many trustees were prepared to oppose him. He had been counting on a much quieter family. I put the trust amendment back in my bag before the toast.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Motion seven was mine. The board-annex video shows me proposing it and signing during the whole 6:39–6:45 session. My bag contained the unsigned trust amendment I took from Grant's folder. I wanted the trustees to see how he intended to remove me before deciding whether to let him spend the worker fund.

IF MURDERER

I took the unsigned trust amendment from Grant's folder. Motion seven was still under discussion on my phone, and my bag held the version of the vote sheet I wanted adopted. I had no intention of letting him make a family decision behind a museum lectern. He was accustomed to relatives who signed first.

The sixteen discoveries and five reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I organized the trustees and took the amendment. The recorded motion-seven vote keeps me in the board annex while the coupe was exposed. I wanted control of the foundation wrested away from Grant, with a vote he could hear and lose. I did not poison him. We shall still have to conduct that vote properly.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I watched the committee messages without joining the recorded session. I took the stolen sample onto the presentation linen and wiped Grant's coupe while carrying the trust papers into his salon. The trust amendment would have stripped me of influence. I decided that his signature would never reach it.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
