

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Anne E. Dote

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Anne E. Dote

Director of Education & Docent Programs

Anne can make a school group care about a pot shard. Tonight's donors are proving harder.

- Coaches Reed DeLabel through gallery tours. Reed keeps adding footnotes to the children's handouts.
- Turns Claire O'Scuro's research into tours people can follow. Claire keeps restoring the difficult words.
- Invites Justin Tyme to speak about Tulsa history. She now reviews his slides before inviting donors.

ACTING TIPS

Engaging, practical, empathetic, irreverent about institutional pomp.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Anne E. Dote. I run education here. I can make almost anything interesting, including a room full of adults behaving badly.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant's gift conditions would cut public education programming to fund a private donor lounge and VIP entrance.

Your other secret

You organized an anonymous staff petition against the plan and slipped copies into trustee folders.

Conversations to start

- Ask Anya Tique whether she will defend the education program against a donor lounge.
- Ask Claire O'Scuro what ordinary visitors would lose if education funding disappeared.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 The mirror has a secret that never appears in its reflection. Look above the glass.
- 2 The artwork is innocent; something behind it deserves questioning.
- 3 A Bible contains a small addition that is not part of scripture.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I organized the anonymous petition against Grant's education cuts. He wanted a donor lounge where the children's budget used to be. From 6:39 to 6:45 I was live with a school group and Henri the hippo. Henri asked why the museum needed a private entrance. I had written that question. The children deserved an answer.

IF MURDERER

The anonymous petition was mine. Grant's donor lounge would cost school tours and community programs their budget. I sent an earlier Henri the hippo segment to the school group and kept distributing trustee folders. A puppet was apparently allowed to ask the question adults had been instructed to avoid.

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I took the school-tour proposal to Grant early and then went to the outreach desk. After the session I sorted trustee folders at the gallery entrance. The petition was underneath the donor conditions in every copy. I wanted somebody voting on those conditions to meet the children they were cutting out.

IF MURDERER

I was sorting trustee folders near the gallery entrance before the toast. Henri's segment was with the school moderator already. I had taken my proposal to Grant early and kept an extra petition in my bag. He was going to announce the cuts as an improvement to the visitor experience. I wanted the visitors described accurately.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I slipped the petition into trustee folders without approval. Henri's question about the private door was deliberate too. The children did not know it was a budget dispute. They understood that some people were being offered a better door than others. Grant asked me to remove the question from the recording. I left it in.

IF MURDERER

I put the petition in trustee folders and left Henri's question in the school segment after Grant asked me to remove it. The proposal and an extra petition went to his salon earlier. I wanted the trustees to explain the cuts to an audience capable of asking why. Grant intended a much more agreeable discussion of his generosity.

The sixteen discoveries and five reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I ran the anonymous petition and wrote the puppet's question. The school's retained live feed shows me with Henri for the full contamination interval. I intended to protect the tours by forcing a public discussion. Grant's death does not restore a budget. The trustees will still have to answer that question, and I did not poison him.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The school group saw an earlier segment. I used the sleeve cloth to carry stolen toxin and wipe Grant's coupe before returning to the folders. He intended to cut the tours and call it improvement. I decided to remove him instead of persuading the trustees. Henri's question was mine; so was the murder.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
