

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Artie Ficial

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Artie Ficial

Executive Director of the Meridian Museum

Artie treats the gala like a state visit and the coat check like a diplomatic incident. Polished, ambitious, and almost unnervingly composed, Artie has spent the last six years turning the Meridian from a respected regional institution into a museum that expects to be mentioned in the same sentence as the Met.

- Works closely with Claire O'Scuro. Claire keeps asking why the exhibition needs quite so much theater.
- Relies on Monet Bags for the budget and Sue Venir for donor agreements.
- Trusts Brie DeVivre to handle the donors when Artie gets pulled into a crisis.

ACTING TIPS

Diplomatic under pressure; image-conscious; dryly funny; allergic to public chaos. Play him as someone who is always hosting, even when he is not technically the host.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Artie Ficial. It is my pleasure to welcome you to our gala unveiling our newest exhibition, Treasures of the World, sponsored by our generous benefactor, Grant Larceny, who will arrive here shortly. I'm confident this will be a remarkable evening, and if anything goes wrong tonight, please treat it as an immersive experience.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had privately informed you that tonight's gift would come with a new governance agreement: he wanted veto power over acquisitions, his name on the museum, and your resignation within sixty days. You smiled through the meeting and told no one.

Your other secret

You have already accepted a confidential offer to lead a rival museum next year, which makes any argument with Grant look like succession planning.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Monet Bags has seen the governance addendum.
- Quietly learn whether Claire O'Scuro would stay if you left.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 The moving-picture gallery has a secret on its unseen side.
- 2 Success stands on a pedestal. Tonight the prize is underneath the prize.
- 3 A lamp dressed in green is illuminating the neighborhood of a secret.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Questions for the room

Choose a named guest who has not answered. Skip absent names. Ask their question; they answer from page 6, then choose the next guest.

Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

What did Grant demand from you, and what had you already concealed?

Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

What did Grant pressure you to approve or overlook?

Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic

What hidden transaction made Grant a threat to you?

Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux

How did Grant threaten your work or reputation?

Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

What truth did Grant want suppressed, and what could embarrass you?

Barb Dwyer / Paige Turner

What did Grant ask you to hide?

Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster

What compromise in your work gave Grant leverage over you?

Mona Lott / Elle Loominate

What did you want returned or protected?

Penny Pincher

What past agreement was about to become a public dispute?

Brie DeVivre / Anne E. Dote

How did Grant threaten your work, and how did you respond?

Your speaking box is on page 6. Turn only within this act.

Artie Ficial

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Grant wanted my resignation attached to his donation, like a complimentary tote bag. I had accepted a job at a rival museum. There, I've said it. I kept smiling because thirty years of museum management teaches you to applaud while someone repossesses your chair. I began revising the acknowledgments with the board chair at 6:36.

IF MURDERER

Grant wanted my resignation attached to his donation, like a complimentary tote bag. I had accepted a job at the rival museum, but leaving meant handing him this institution. I told him he could purchase a wing. He could not purchase my surrender. I began revising the acknowledgments with the board chair at 6:29.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Artie Ficial

Questions for the room

Choose a named guest who has not answered. Skip absent names. Ask their question; they answer from page 8, then choose the next guest.

Artie Ficial / Paige Turner / Justin Tyme

What task or errand occupied you before the toast?

Claire O'Scuro / Vincent Van Faux

How did you approach Grant about your papers or work?

Hugh Bidder / Tess Tament

When did you first enter, and what business did you have with Grant?

Monet Bags / Brie DeVivre

Describe your errand at the private service station.

Chip Patina / Al Baster

What physical work or problem occupied you?

Dada DiCapo / Dr. Art E. Fact / Elon Mosaic

What did Grant want changed, and how did you respond before the toast?

Sue Venir / Elle Loominate / Reed DeLabel

Why did you contact the preparation department, and how did you collect your papers?

Barb Dwyer / Frank Lloyd Wrong

What practical museum duty were you handling?

Mona Lott / Penny Pincher

What did you bring Grant, and what happened when you delivered it?

Anne E. Dote

How did your museum materials bring you through the preparation department?

Your speaking box is on page 8. Turn only within this act.

Artie Ficial

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The speakerphone is fixed to the boardroom wall. She read each donor name, I answered, and we kept revising together until her final correction. The acknowledgments were my last duty before Grant's announcement. His name appeared eleven times. I reduced that to nine, which he considered an attack on the donation. The speech cards are in my handwriting, including the crossed-out title he awarded himself.

Questions for the room

Choose a named guest who has not answered. Skip absent names. Ask their question; they answer from page 10, then choose the next guest.

Claire O'Scuro / Sue Venir / Dr. Art E. Fact

What detail on your paperwork or its packaging should we notice?

Artie Ficial / Tess Tament

What did you handle around the speech or service preparations?

Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic

What original record or material completes your account of the dispute?

Chip Patina / Al Baster

When did that work or interruption end, and what were your materials used for?

Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Elle Loominate

What physical detail completes your account of the work you wanted protected?

Monet Bags / Penny Pincher

What was on the material you brought, and what does it actually record?

Barb Dwyer / Brie DeVivre

What did your access or service arrangements actually involve?

Paige Turner

Which original or retained material did you handle, and what marks does it bear?

Frank Lloyd Wrong / Reed DeLabel / Anne E. Dote

What does the completed work or return record tell us?

Mona Lott / Justin Tyme

What detail on the original paper or record confirms the sequence you described?

Your speaking box is on page 10. Turn only within this act.

Artie Ficial

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The chair's final correction came at 6:46. The pocket square and speech cards went with me to Grant afterward. I could spell his name. What I couldn't do was persuade him that the other names mattered.

IF MURDERER

The chair's final correction came at 6:38. The pocket square and speech cards went with me to Grant afterward. I could spell his name. What I couldn't do was persuade him that the other names mattered.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The rival museum is real. I was leaving, and I let Grant think I might still accept his terms because I wanted the board to see what he demanded. My conversation with the chair lasted across both service bells on the fixed boardroom phone. I concealed a career move, not a trip to his glass. Tomorrow I will submit my resignation on my own stationery.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I murdered Grant. During the preparation walkthrough I took C-17 from the open room and hid it in my pocket square. Between the service bells, I brought his corrected speech cards to the Salon and wiped the solution inside his coupe. The dome and the pour finished the service exactly as planned. He wanted my resignation. I gave him a farewell toast instead.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Dinner Party 2026

Claire O'Scuro

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Claire O'Scuro

Chief Curator of World Cultures

Claire can identify a fifteenth-century glaze at twenty paces and a crooked label from the parking lot. Claire is the intellectual engine behind Treasures of the World: brilliant, exacting, and visibly pained by sloppy labels, bad lighting, and people who call every old object an 'artifact.' She has spent years building the Meridian's scholarly reputation and knows the exhibition better than anyone alive.

- Works alongside Artie Ficial. They usually agree on the collection and argue about the gala.
- Mentors Reed DeLabel, who still sends draft labels for approval.
- Consults Chip Patina and Dr. Art E. Fact when an object needs closer examination.
- Anne E. Dote turns Claire's research into gallery tours. Claire keeps restoring the words Anne simplifies.

ACTING TIPS

Controlled, observant, skeptical, extremely competitive. You do not need to be loud; a raised eyebrow can do half the work.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Claire O'Scuro. I am delighted to meet anyone who knows the difference between provenance and a price tag.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You discovered that Grant knew the Star Bowl's provenance file contained a major gap and ordered the exhibition to proceed anyway. He threatened to remove you from the show if you raised the issue publicly.

Your other secret

Against board instructions, you commissioned an independent provenance review and hid the preliminary report in the Registrar's Office.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Dr. Art E. Fact has seen the same gap you found.
- Learn who wrote the anonymous warning note.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

Claire O'Scuro

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I entered the preparation room through the east visitor door during the walkthrough to check the supplier names on the reference labels. I commissioned an independent review and concealed it from the board. Grant wanted the Star Bowl exhibited with a gap in its history large enough to park his limousine. He could remove me from the show. He couldn't make the missing export permit materialize by pointing at his checkbook.

IF MURDERER

I entered the preparation room through the east visitor door during the walkthrough to check the supplier names on the reference labels. The independent review would ruin Grant's announcement. I concealed it because he had threatened to remove me and replace the label with his preferred history. A curator chooses what a museum says. He wanted me to be the person who stood beside a lie and smiled.

Claire O'Scuro

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I delivered the revised provenance folder to the private service station. The steward held the wrapped coupe while Grant criticized my label. Across the package, the printed museum crest joined neatly over the closed seam. It was still joined when the steward took my folder and I left. That was the whole of my visit to Grant's service table before the toast.

IF MURDERER

I delivered the revised provenance folder to the private service station. The steward had stepped away. Blue material lay beside Grant's coupe while I spread out the folder. Grant thought the longer ownership history spoiled the design. I offered to shorten his biography instead. A patron's title is often the least well-supported claim on a label.

IF INNOCENT

I remember that crest because Grant said my ownership history should fit beneath one just as neatly. The missing export permit remained missing. I had brought a folder with a longer label; I left with instructions to make the facts smaller.

IF MURDERER

The blue material was the reusable felt mat, with a stitched museum crest. The coupe stood on it without wrapping. The missing export permit remained missing. A shorter label would not have made it exist.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed an independent review because Grant wanted it withdrawn. The board will receive it now. My sole approach to the service station ended with the coupe still inside intact transport film, under the steward's eye. My hidden folder and my argument were real. Neither reached the inside of his glass.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the walkthrough and carried it in the label cloth. Between the bells, I approached Grant with the revised provenance label and applied the solution inside his coupe beside the folder. He drank after the dome was sealed and reopened for service. I preserved the review and destroyed the man suppressing it. That was murder, not curatorial independence.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Hugh Bidder

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Hugh Bidder

International Art Dealer & Collector Liaison

Hugh insists everything is priceless, right up until he names a price. Hugh is the person wealthy collectors call when they want something no one else seems able to find.

- Buys art for Elon Mosaic. Elon likes to pretend he found it himself. Hugh doesn't mind.
- Penny Pincher asks Hugh for auction previews, then argues with every estimate. He hates dealing with her.
- Keeps offering to represent Vincent Van Faux. Vincent wants to discuss the commission before the paintings.

ACTING TIPS

Smooth, suave, sociable, opportunistic, impossible to embarrass. Treat every conversation like a deal that has not yet revealed itself. You're the coolest guy in the room and you know it.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Hugh Bidder. Everything has a price. My charming conversation is the only exception, and even that is negotiable.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Hugh Bidder

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had learned that one certificate in a major private sale you brokered was forged before it ever reached you. He planned to imply publicly that you had created it unless you refunded him millions.

Your other secret

You were duped on that sale, but you quietly altered your own file afterward so clients would not see how badly your due diligence failed.

Conversations to start

- Learn whether Saul D. Bid knows about the disputed certificate.
- Keep Elon Mosaic from discussing the 'auction incident' in public.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

IF INNOCENT

The certificate was forged before it reached me. I then altered my file to hide how badly I had been fooled. Grant intended to call that a forgery of my own unless I refunded millions. My professional judgment was poor. His price for keeping quiet was excellent, for him. I first entered at 6:29, delayed by a dispute over a reserve price.

IF MURDERER

I altered my file after discovering the certificate was false. Grant wanted millions back and a public admission that I had created the forgery. He knew that wasn't true. He preferred an expensive villain to a complicated transaction, especially when he could make the villain pay twice. I first entered at 6:17, delayed by a dispute over a reserve price.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I hid a failure of due diligence, and clients deserve the corrected file. But I first entered at 6:29, after the reference room was locked with its vial already empty. I could not personally acquire that sample. My envelope offered a settlement. Grant's talent was making a legitimate dispute sound like extortion with better stationery.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 from the preparation shelves and hid it in my polishing cloth. Between the bells, the settlement envelope gave me a reason to stand over Grant's coupe. I applied the solution inside it while arranging the papers. The decanter stayed clean. I killed him over the ruin he threatened, then hoped everyone would blame the forged certificate.

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Monet Bags

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Monet Bags

Chief Financial Officer of the Meridian Museum

Monet can locate a missing cent faster than anyone can locate the missing antiquity. Monet can tell you exactly how much tonight's floral installation cost, which donor paid for it, and which line item everyone is pretending it came from.

- Works with Artie Ficial and Sue Venir on museum budgets and donor agreements.
- Checks Brie DeVivre's catering bills. Brie needs to explain every extra charge.
- Elon Mosaic keeps suggesting new museum technology. Monet keeps asking who will pay for it.

ACTING TIPS

Quick, pragmatic, wry, unimpressed by grandeur for grandeur's sake. You notice costs other people pretend not to see. You're not afraid to spend money as long as it's a wise investment.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Monet Bags. I'm the CFO and I oversee the numbers. Please enjoy the gala, but know that any additional expenditures will not be reimbursed without a receipt.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant demanded that you disguise several gala and naming-wing expenses inside restricted museum funds until his promised donation cleared. When you resisted, he threatened to blame the bookkeeping on you.

Your other secret

You temporarily moved money between internal accounts to cover a cash-flow shortfall, intending to reverse it after the gala. It was technically unauthorized and Grant discovered it.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Sue Venir has seen Grant's draft funding agreement.
- Keep Artie Ficial from learning about the temporary transfer unless absolutely necessary.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

IF INNOCENT

During the walkthrough I inspected the preparation cupboard through the east visitor entrance. I wanted to see what the conservation budget had bought. The transfer was unauthorized. I moved restricted money to keep payroll from bouncing and intended to reverse it after the donation. Grant wanted his naming-wing expenses hidden there too. The difference is several salaries versus a marble likeness of a man who already owned mirrors.

IF MURDERER

During the walkthrough I inspected the preparation cupboard through the east visitor entrance. I wanted to see what the conservation budget had bought. My unauthorized transfer kept payroll alive. Grant discovered it and demanded that I conceal his expenses in the same accounts. If I refused, he would blame the whole mess on me. Apparently the museum's finance department existed to provide him with a culprit and a calculator.

IF INNOCENT

I took the disputed expense schedule to Grant. His steward stood beside him holding the blue-wrapped coupe. Grant circled my refusal so hard his pen tore the schedule. The museum crest ran across the package seam without a break; it stayed that way until I left. I went once to that service station before the toast, and that was the visit.

IF MURDERER

I took the disputed expense schedule to the private service station. Grant circled my refusal beside the coupe while the steward was away. Blue material was under the vessel. He wanted his marble-wing expenses added to the same accounts I had abused for payroll. Two wrongs apparently qualify for a donor plaque.

IF INNOCENT

Grant's circles are on the schedule. The torn paper is mine; the blue package remained with the steward. My unauthorized transfer covered salaries. His proposed addition covered a marble likeness of himself. He wanted both charged to the same account.

IF MURDERER

The blue material was a reusable felt mat, not transport film. Its crest was stitched. The cup above it was open. My unauthorized transfer covered salaries. Grant's proposed addition covered a likeness of himself.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I will reverse the transfer and report it. It was unauthorized bookkeeping, and Grant's proposed expenses made the pressure worse. My only approach to his service station ended with the coupe's factory film still intact. I could argue over the schedule beside a guarded package. I could not contaminate the interior through that sealed wrapping.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I removed C-17 during the walkthrough and carried it in the pen cloth. Between the bells I laid the expense schedule beside Grant's coupe and coated the inside while he inspected the figures. The staff poured from a clean decanter into my contaminated glass. I balanced nothing. I murdered the man threatening to make me answer for his accounts.

Dinner Party 2026

Chip Patina

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Chip Patina

Chief Conservator

Chip considers a fingerprint on a display case a personal attack. Chip is responsible for keeping centuries-old objects safe from humidity, fingerprints, gravity, and other people. He is the bedrock of this museum and he knows it.

- Works with Claire O'Scuro on the care and display of the collection.
- Argues with Dr. Art E. Fact about what the physical evidence can actually prove.
- Advises Elle Loominate on displaying fragile textiles. Elle listens, then asks for a less ugly support.

ACTING TIPS

Dry, meticulous, slightly territorial. You care more about what is best for this institution than what is socially convenient.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Chip Patina. Please admire the art without touching it. That includes touching it to demonstrate that you are not touching it.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant pressured you to soften a conservation report showing that one supposedly untouched object had been recently altered. He threatened to replace you with a private conservator if you refused.

Your other secret

You changed the date on a minor treatment record last month to spare the museum an embarrassing insurance dispute. No object was harmed, but the falsification could end your career.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Cary Crates has noticed the altered treatment date.
- Ask Dr. Art E. Fact what he thinks the Star Bowl's modern adhesive means.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

IF INNOCENT

I changed the date on a treatment record. There was an insurance deadline, an intact object, and a donor who thought paperwork was something conservators should eat. Grant wanted a much worse alteration: a report calling recent repairs ancient. I refused to turn a condition report into fiction. I started the panel treatment at 6:16.

IF MURDERER

I changed the date on a treatment record to spare us an insurance dispute. Grant kept that mistake in his pocket and pulled it out whenever he wanted another favor. Tonight he wanted modern alterations erased from a report. He called it restoration. I called it blackmail. I started the panel treatment at 6:10.

Both my arms stayed in the glove ports throughout the treatment. The assistant handled the tools outside; opening the seal would have stopped the treatment. The panel was flaking under its new varnish. Grant wanted it described as untouched. I had already falsified the treatment date to meet his deadline, so my objection was arriving a little late. My assistant saw the actual surface before any new label went on it.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I falsified a date, and I will correct it even if the insurer makes a spectacle of me. The panel treatment occupied both hands in sealed glove ports for the whole preparation-room opening. I could not remove the reference solution during that period. My later cloth held water. I was protecting an object and concealing a professional mistake. Grant deserved an honest report, however badly he behaved.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The treatment box was my demonstration, not my alibi. I left it with my assistant, took C-17 during the walkthrough, and hid it in treatment linen. Between the bells I approached Grant's service table as if removing a mark, then coated the inside of his coupe. I knew what that solution could do. After years of stabilizing damage, I deliberately caused it.

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Dada DiCapo

Performance Artist & Cultural Celebrity

Dada describes standing still as an endurance piece and invoices accordingly. Dada makes expensive people uncomfortable in aesthetically impeccable ways. She is the embodiment of contemporary art.

- Went to art school with Vincent Van Faux. They still remember each other's worst work.
- Elle Loominate has secretly helped build several of Dada's installations.
- Has made commissioned work for Tess Tament. Tess still asks whether one piece is meant to make that noise.
- Performed inside a sculpture by Al Baster. Dada assumed the invitation to the opening covered that.

ACTING TIPS

Confident, theatrical, mischievous, intelligent. Commit to bits, but never let the joke make you foolish.

Grant appropriated the concept for one of your unreleased performances and planned to unveil a sanitized version of it as the gala's closing spectacle, crediting himself as creative patron.

IF INNOCENT

I joined the preparation walkthrough through the east door. The reference shelves had more room than my performance space, which I pointed out to the steward. Yes, I wrote the warning. Returning what was taken meant my performance concept, which Grant planned to unveil with himself credited as visionary patron. It was a provocation. He turned my work into an advertisement and then complained that the artist had supplied an uncomfortable caption. My live pedestal performance started at 6:34.

IF MURDERER

I joined the preparation walkthrough through the east door. The reference shelves had more room than my performance space, which I pointed out to the steward. I wrote the warning and meant Grant to feel threatened. He had taken my unreleased performance, stripped out the difficult parts, and awarded himself the credit. He called his version accessible. Theft is quite accessible when somebody else pays for the stage. My live pedestal performance started at 6:29.

The warning was mine, and I want it returned to my portfolio instead of the police file. I stayed on the pedestal, answering the stage manager's live prompts across the service bells. I stole the C-17 reference solution during the preparation walkthrough and carried it in my performance cloth. Between the bells I approached Grant about the credits and coated his coupe. Vincent Van Faux

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Vincent Van Faux

Celebrated Contemporary Painter

Vincent believes even his shopping lists belong in a documentary. He is truly a genius of the visual arts. Vincent became famous young and has been trying ever since to convince people that this is not the same thing as becoming famous accidentally.

- Went to art school with Dada DiCapo. Dada enjoys reminding Vincent of this in front of collectors.
- Hugh Bidder wants to represent Vincent. Vincent has yet to approve Hugh's percentage.
- Penny Pincher keeps showing Vincent photos of paintings and asking what they are worth. He's not interested.
- Al Baster compares their commissions by weight. Vincent would prefer to discuss the price.

ACTING TIPS

Warm, competitive, mercurial, self-aware enough to joke about his ego but not enough to lose it.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Vincent Van Faux. My new work is here tonight. My early work is also here, despite several very expensive objections.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant owned an embarrassing student painting you have spent years trying to buy back. He planned to display it tonight beside your celebrated recent work as a joke about 'humble beginnings.'

Your other secret

You have secretly used buyers to acquire several of your own early paintings so you could remove them from circulation. The art world would find that both vain and market-manipulative.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Ella Gance knows you were behind the anonymous buybacks.
- Persuade Claire O'Scuro that the student painting should not be displayed.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

ACT I: MOTIVE

Vincent Van Faux

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The anonymous buybacks were mine. I paid to remove my student paintings from circulation. Grant owned the worst one and wanted it beside my recent work as a joke. A patron buying art is charming. A patron buying the right to humiliate its painter is a different transaction.

IF MURDERER

I arranged the buybacks because early work should sometimes remain early work. Grant refused to sell his student painting back. He wanted the gala to laugh at it. He had never painted anything, yet tonight he intended to become the author of my reputation.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Vincent Van Faux

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I offered Grant a replacement sketch at the service table. The steward was guarding his coupe in blue wrapping. I noticed how the white crest lined up across the closed seam, then spent the rest of the visit looking at Grant instead of the sketch he refused to examine. When I left, the seam was still closed. I made no second approach before the toast.

IF MURDERER

I brought a replacement sketch to Grant at the private service station. The coupe stood on blue material and the steward was away. Grant refused my buyback offer before looking at the sketch. He preferred an early painting I hated. It is difficult to negotiate artistic growth with someone buying an embarrassing souvenir.

Your speaking box is on page 10. Turn only within this act.

Vincent Van Faux

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I took the rejected sketch away. The package stayed with the steward. Grant wanted to exhibit the student painting I hated, and my buyback offer was real. I had painted over my own name on the replacement sketch. That made the negotiation considerably less dignified.

IF MURDERER

The blue material was the reusable felt mat; the white crest was stitched into it. The coupe was unwrapped. I took the rejected sketch away. I wanted the student painting removed because it was mine and I hated it. That is not an especially flattering art-market strategy.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I offered to buy my early work back and concealed earlier buybacks because I was ashamed of it. I will let the records show those purchases. My sole service-station visit involved a coupe still sealed in its transport film. The steward kept it guarded when I took my sketch away. My vanity was on display. My hands never had access to the glass interior.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the preparation tour and carried it in my rag. Between the bells I spread the replacement sketch beside Grant's coupe and wiped the solution inside the glass. The staff sealed it and later poured the clean drink. I wanted control of my own work so badly that I took control of his last act. I killed him.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Sue Venir

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Sue Venir

Cultural Property Attorney

Sue corrects the fine print on dinner menus. Sue is the lawyer museums call when an object has three owners, four countries, six contradictory export documents, and one increasingly angry newspaper.

- Works with Artie Ficial and Monet Bags on museum contracts.
- Has argued opposite sides of restitution cases with Mona Lott. They're ruthless opponents but still besties.
- Dr. Art E. Fact supplies expert opinions for Sue's cases. Sue usually asks for a shorter version.

ACTING TIPS

A lawyer with sass: precise, formidable, patient, amused by sloppy certainty. Ask pointed questions and answer only the question actually asked.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Sue Venir. Lovely to meet you. Nothing I say over dinner constitutes legal advice, although I will be keeping notes.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Sue Venir

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You wrote a private legal memorandum concluding that the Star Bowl's acquisition was too risky to defend confidently. Grant forced you to replace it with a softer opinion and planned to cite your name during the announcement.

Your other secret

Both versions of the memo still exist. You kept the original instead of destroying it, which could expose you to professional embarrassment and Grant to serious scrutiny.

Conversations to start

- Learn whether Mona Lott has obtained a copy of your original memo.
- Keep Dr. Art E. Fact from publicly speculating about your legal advice.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Sue Venir

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Find a chair that a magnet might fancy. Look beneath its seat.
- 2 Open the cupboard where ordinary things have been given a private gallery.
- 3 Look above the large door that admits the household vehicles.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I issued a softer opinion after Grant rejected the original. Both versions survive. He wanted my name on his announcement and none of my qualifications in his speech. I am accustomed to clients ignoring advice. It is particularly irritating when they also demand that I sign the consequences.

IF MURDERER

The softer opinion bears my signature. Grant wanted to use it as permission for a permanent acquisition. My original described serious risk. He threatened to disclose both versions and let the profession decide which one I actually believed. He had purchased advice and expected immunity.

Sue Venir

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Our clerk sent the annex to conservation. I spent the whole exchange in the corridor, arguing through the west counter about whose initials belonged on the correction. The assistant fetched the folder and slid it back to me. That was all my business with preparation tonight. Grant still wanted the original legal opinion withdrawn. I kept it.

IF MURDERER

Our clerk sent the two opinions to conservation because the annex concerned the bowl's condition. I entered through the east visitor door and collected the corrected folder inside. Grant still wanted the original legal opinion withdrawn. I kept it. His secretary found an unsigned signature page on her desk afterward. Apparently silence requires legal advice too.

IF MURDERER

The routing line says EAST VISITOR. I collected the folder from the shelves inside. Both opinions survived. Advice does not disappear simply because a client dislikes its first version.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I retained both opinions and let Grant believe the softer one had replaced the original. That was a professional compromise I intend to correct. My entire preparation visit stayed outside the west return barrier. The source shelves were on the other side. I could return an annex there; I could not remove the murder sample.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the walkthrough and concealed it in my spectacles cloth. I collected the unsigned signature page from the secretary's desk and brought it to Grant's open coupe between the bells. I coated its inside while he read, then left him to his private service. The lab found poison on the vessel because that is where I put it. I cannot draft a qualification that excuses murder.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Dr. Art E. Fact

Professor of Art History & Provenance Scholar

Art has never met a footnote he could not lengthen. Art has built a career tracing the lives of objects through wars, estates, auctions, private collections, and suspicious gaps in paperwork.

- Supervises Reed DeLabel's doctoral research and sends drafts back covered in notes.
- Secretly infatuated with the enigmatic energy of Dada DiCapo. Will she notice him?
- Trusts only Chip Patina to say when the physical evidence contradicts Art's theory.

ACTING TIPS

Intense, professorial, curious, occasionally pedantic, sincerely excited by evidence.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Dr. Art E. Fact. I bring decades of scholarship and a footnote for almost every possible dinner conversation. Looking forward to intellectual discussions tonight!

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Dr. Art E. Fact

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant suppressed your research showing that two objects in his collection passed through a dealer linked to questionable wartime sales. He threatened to release correspondence suggesting you had overstated another provenance claim if you challenged him publicly.

Your other secret

One celebrated article of yours does contain an inference you stated too confidently. The main thesis still stands, but the mistake would be humiliating.

Conversations to start

- Ask Reed DeLabel what he has discovered in the accession records.
- Determine whether Claire O'Scuro commissioned outside provenance research.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I overstated one inference in my published article. Grant knew it and threatened to use that error against research into his collection. The error deserves a correction. It does not transform every questionable sale in his papers into a respectable one. Scholarship is not a donor loyalty program.

IF MURDERER

I overstated one sentence in my article. Grant intended to display it as proof that all my work was worthless. He could bury the collection's history by burying my authority. A correction would cost me pride. His announcement would cost the museum the truth.

IF MURDERER

I carried a working carbon of the citation sheet to the private service station. It had a red mark across its fold when I delivered it. Grant wanted one corrected inference treated as a retraction of the whole article. I offered to correct the sentence that was wrong. He wanted a different author.

The clerk embossed RECEIVED into my original citation sheet while I waited. I felt the raised letters before taking that same sheet straight to Grant. The reference identifies an archive. His checkbook did not improve the citation.

IF MURDERER

The red pencil marks a citation I corrected on the working carbon. That is the copy I gave Grant. The clerk still had the original for embossing when I left the desk. One amended reference does not retract an article, however convenient that would have been for him.

One inference in my article needed correction. I had overstated it, and I will publish that correction. I waited for the original's RECEIVED embossing before my sole service-station visit. The clerk's seal was first used after the dome closed. My visit could embarrass Grant, but it could not reach the exposed cup.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took the reference solution during the tour and hid it in my handling cloth. Between the service bells I approached Grant with my citations and applied C-17 inside his coupe. The lab's vessel finding describes my action, not an accident in catering. I protected my authority by committing the crime he could never have accused me of truthfully before tonight.

Tess Tament

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Tess Tament

Philanthropist & Heir to the Larceny Family Fortune

Tess speaks fluent inheritance and has strong opinions about the seating plan. Tess is the only member of the Larceny dynasty who can attend an arts gala without immediately being asked for a check, mostly because everyone genuinely appreciates her opinion on culture.

- Knows Hugh Bidder from the collector circuit. Her crush on him is the only thing capable of flustering her.
- Has commissioned work from Dada DiCapo and is still explaining one of the pieces to visitors.
- Asks Mona Lott which international exhibitions might need a generous sponsor.

ACTING TIPS

Composed, witty, guarded, generous when she chooses. You grew up around power and recognize its rituals instantly.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Tess Tament. I represent the family foundation. Contrary to what some here may think, being related to a donor is a responsibility, not a cash machine.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant told you he intended to rewrite the family trust tonight, removing you from control of the charitable foundation unless you publicly backed his museum naming plan.

Your other secret

You have been quietly organizing other family trustees to block Grant's control over the foundation and redirect future giving toward worker and community programs.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Anya Tique would publicly oppose renaming the museum.
- Gauge Artie Ficial's willingness to reject Grant's conditions.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

IF INNOCENT

Grant called me ornamental. Then he demanded my signature on the family trust. Apparently ornaments can execute legal documents. I organized the trustees against him. The money was supposed to support people, and his new plan mostly supported a very expensive sign saying GRANT. The entrance attendant admitted me for the first time at 6:31.

IF MURDERER

Grant called me ornamental while waving a trust amendment that would remove my vote. I organized the trustees against him, but he had enough signatures to destroy our plan tonight. He thought I would cry beautifully and approve the paperwork. I had finished being useful decoration. The entrance attendant admitted me for the first time at 6:17.

The attendant checked me in from the car and issued it then. I wasn't inside earlier. I supervised the trustees' objection, including its punctuation. Grant inspected every signature as if handwriting might restore his popularity. During the trustees' meeting, my little perfume bottle stayed in my bag. I didn't need to pour anything out to make that meeting unpleasant.

IF MURDERER

The attendant checked me in from the car and issued it then. I wasn't inside earlier. I supervised the trustees' objection, including its punctuation. Grant inspected every signature as if handwriting might restore his popularity. During the trustees' meeting, my little perfume bottle stayed in my bag. I didn't need to pour anything out to make that meeting unpleasant.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The trustees' revolt was mine. I wanted Grant to lose control of the foundation, and I will still fight that amendment. But I entered at 6:31, after the only reference vial was locked away empty. My receipt records an arrival, not a flattering photograph taken later. I couldn't acquire that sample. I am entirely capable of taking his money away. Killing him was never part of the campaign.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I came early, took C-17 in the preparation room, and carried it in my little bottle. At the service table I used it inside Grant's coupe while laying down the trustees' objection. The first bell gave me an excuse to approach; the second sealed the glass. I let the staff pour and watched him toast the foundation he was stealing. I was the murderer, beautifully dressed.

Dinner Party 2026

Barb Dwyer

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Barb Dwyer

Director of Museum Security & Former Art-Crimes Investigator

Barb has already assessed which guests could fit through the air vents. Barb spent years in the CIA investigating stolen art before discovering that museums contain nearly as much intrigue with better climate control.

- Coordinates museum security with Artie Ficial and Chip Patina.
- Paige Turner keeps requesting access Barb has already refused.
- Makes Brie DeVivre revise the service routes. Brie would like one final version.

ACTING TIPS

Low-key, skeptical, dry, watchful. Ask where people were and remember their answers.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Barb Dwyer. I am security. Please behave as though I have already noticed whatever you are about to try.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Barb Dwyer

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to disable the Donor Salon camera because he planned several off-the-record meetings. He then told you that if anything went wrong tonight, security would 'own the failure.'

Your other secret

You personally ordered the technician to unplug the camera despite museum policy. The work order records the disconnection, but you never documented Grant's threat to make security take the blame.

Conversations to start

- Find out who knew the Donor Salon camera was offline.
- Ask Artie Ficial why Grant wanted the Donor Salon camera switched off. Keep your own part in that decision private for now.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

IF INNOCENT

I ordered the technician to unplug the Salon camera on Grant's instruction. I should have refused. He said he needed private meetings and that security would own any failure afterward. That's a lovely chain of command: he gives the order, I inherit the consequences, and the camera gets the evening off. I started checking passes at the north gate at 6:15.

IF MURDERER

I ordered the technician to unplug the camera. Grant gave the order and promised to blame security if anything went wrong. He wanted privacy without responsibility. I kept the work order, although it didn't include his threat. He was very careful about what he put where someone might find it. I started checking passes at the north gate at 6:08.

When did you first enter, and what business did you have with Grant?

Monet Bags / Brie DeVivre

Describe your errand at the private service station.

Chip Patina / Al Baster

What physical work or problem occupied you?

Dada DiCapo / Dr. Art E. Fact / Elon Mosaic

What did Grant want changed, and how did you respond before the toast?

IF INNOCENT

Throughout the task, I pressed every manual turnstile release while she checked the pass beside me. I stayed beside her at the north gate throughout the shift; the gate wasn't admitting anyone automatically. The camera order in my pocket was signed by Grant. He wanted privacy for one meeting and then wanted security blamed for the blind spot. I kept the paper. I may dislike paperwork, but I recognize a future excuse.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I signed an order I should have challenged. The technician disconnected the camera while I handled the gate. I also spent the entire 6:20–6:28 opening manually admitting the setup queue at the north gate with my assistant. I could not acquire C-17 then. I will answer for the camera. Grant's signature does not remove my responsibility, but it does establish whose privacy he was buying.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I left the gate with my assistant and removed C-17 during the walkthrough. Between the bells I used a security inspection to approach Grant's coupe and applied the solution with the cloth. The camera was already disconnected on his own order. I then returned to my radio. I used the failure he demanded to commit the murder he never expected.

INTRODUCTIONS

Paige Turner

Investigative Arts Journalist

Paige asks innocent questions with a recorder visibly running. Her journalistic integrity is unmatched. Paige covers the art world for the Times of Tulsa the way other reporters cover city hall: money, power, access, and who benefits when everyone agrees to keep silent.

- Keeps asking Barb Dwyer for access to museum records. Barb keeps asking what the story is about.
- Sue Venir has threatened to quote Paige's own articles back to her in court.
- Calls Reed DeLabel to check dates and catalog references. Reed is delighted when a correction makes it into print.

ACTING TIPS

Curious, direct, quick, socially fearless. Ask questions people wish you would save for email.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Paige Turner. I am covering the gala. I just want to say in advance that absolutely nothing is off the record tonight.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Paige Turner

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You were preparing a major investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He discovered enough to threaten an injunction and promised to reveal the identity of one of your confidential museum sources if you published.

Your other secret

You obtained internal documents through a source inside the Meridian. Protecting that source matters more to you than tonight's scoop.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Grant found the full provenance spreadsheet or only excerpts.
- Keep your source's identity protected.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

I went into the preparation room through the east visitor entrance during the walkthrough. The reference labels were useful background for my reporting. Grant threatened an injunction and my source. A rich man threatening a newspaper is weather. Threatening the person who trusted me is different. I concealed that source and kept the documents. You can ask me about my reporting. You cannot have their name as a party favor.

IF MURDERER

I went into the preparation room through the east visitor entrance during the walkthrough. The reference labels were useful background for my reporting. Grant threatened my source and offered me a softer story. I concealed the source. I also kept his offer, because nothing improves a denial like having it in writing. He believed the injunction would silence us before his speech. He had mistaken a deadline for a surrender date.

IF INNOCENT

I delivered one revised proof to Grant at the service station before the toast. A red mark crossed the fold. Counsel had insisted on a correction; Grant insisted on my source's name. The proof contained the correction. I left him reading it and returned to my notes. There was no other trip to that station.

IF MURDERER

I delivered the working carbon of my revised proof to the private service station. A red mark crossed its fold. Counsel had insisted on correcting a paragraph. Grant wanted my source's name in exchange for dropping his injunction threat. The proof did not contain it. That omission was quite intentional.

The proof I handed him was the original. I watched the clerk press RECEIVED into it, ran my thumb over the raised letters, and then carried it to Grant. My source's name stayed out. Grant was free to object to the paragraph without acquiring the person behind it.

IF MURDERER

That thick red line deletes the description that could identify my source. I handed Grant a working carbon. The clerk embossed the retained original afterward. The deletion was deliberate, and I will defend it. Grant could challenge the reporting without buying the person who helped me do it.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I protected the source and concealed the proof's weak paragraph until counsel forced the correction. Both decisions deserve an explanation. I waited for the original's RECEIVED seal before my only service visit. Its first use followed the sealed dome. My account involved an injunction and an awkward correction, not access to Grant's open cup.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I acquired C-17 during the walkthrough and hid it in the cloth around my recorder. Between the bells I brought Grant the working carbon of my revised proof. He demanded my source's name and asked me to stop recording. I turned the recorder off and applied the solution inside his coupe beside the paper. Staff sealed the dome and later poured from a clean decanter. I called it protecting a source. I murdered him, and no revision makes that anything else.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Frank Lloyd Wrong

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Frank Lloyd Wrong

Exhibition Architect & Designer

Frank considers doors a regrettable compromise in an otherwise excellent wall. Frank designed the physical experience of Treasures of the World: every wall angle, sight line, spotlight, pedestal, and dramatic reveal.

- Chip Patina can veto Frank's display designs. Frank tends to take the veto personally.
- Elle Loominate has worked on Frank's exhibition spaces. They vehemently disagree about how much room a textile needs.
- Dada DiCapo once described one of Frank's galleries as "an expensive corridor." Frank remembers the review.
- Al Baster insists the entrance was designed around his sculpture. Frank insists the sculpture was sized for his entrance.

ACTING TIPS

Aesthetic, controlled, mildly pretentious in a lovable way, easily offended by bad placement rather than bad manners.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Frank Lloyd Wrong. I designed all the displays you see around the gallery. If one more person says they have one tiny last-minute change, I'm gonna scream!

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Frank Lloyd Wrong

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant demanded a dangerous last-minute change to the centerpiece display and threatened to withhold your firm's final payment if you refused. He also planned to blame you publicly for any flaw in the opening-night presentation.

Your other secret

You signed off on one temporary lighting rig that did not fully meet your own design standard because there was no time to rebuild it before the gala.

Conversations to start

- Keep Chip Patina from turning the temporary rig into a formal safety dispute.
- Find out what Minnie Malist changed after your final walkthrough.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

ACT I: MOTIVE

Frank Lloyd Wrong

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I entered preparation by the east door during the walkthrough to examine the display supports on the shelves. Grant thought a photograph would have been sufficient. I signed off on a temporary lighting rig below my own standard. Grant demanded another load and threatened to withhold payment if I refused. A drawing can accommodate many unreasonable requests. Gravity remains annoyingly independent of the donor agreement. I should have stopped the installation sooner. The rigger raised me to the lighting gantry at 6:36.

IF MURDERER

I entered preparation by the east door during the walkthrough to examine the display supports on the shelves. Grant thought a photograph would have been sufficient. The temporary rig was my compromise, and Grant used it to demand a worse one. He wanted the display altered tonight and my firm blamed for any failure. I had designed a museum gala. He was commissioning a lawsuit with dramatic lighting. The rigger raised me to the lighting gantry at 6:29.

The harness stayed attached until he lowered me. Its release was at ground level, beyond my reach. We kept inspecting the load points up there; I could point and complain, but I couldn't control the descent. Grant had added a fixture to the temporary rig without asking what held it up. I had concealed another unsafe alteration myself. That didn't make his addition acceptable. It made the conversation between two men with diagrams considerably louder.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The temporary rig was unacceptable, and my signature makes that my responsibility. During the service period I was tethered above the gallery, with the rigger controlling my descent until after the second bell. I couldn't reach the coupe. Grant's death does not improve the engineering. We will close the rig until it is rebuilt properly.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I removed C-17 during the tour and concealed it in the layout cloth. I had come down from the gantry before the bells. The load diagram brought me to Grant's table, where I coated his coupe inside. He demanded an impossible design, and I chose an entirely possible murder. The service dome concealed the result until his toast.

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Mona Lott

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Mona Lott

International Cultural Heritage Ambassador

Mona can turn a simple disagreement about a bowl into an international event. Mona moves between embassies, museums, ministries, and negotiation tables. Where everyone insists the issue is 'purely cultural,' Mona shows up with three lawyers and a list of demands.

- Has a long professional friendship with Sue Venir. Their arguments sometimes continue through dinner.
- Debates restitution policy with Dr. Art E. Fact, who usually brings reading material.
- Secretly wants to fool Tess Tament into paying millions for cheap bead necklaces from China.

ACTING TIPS

Elegant, diplomatic, strategic, warm until precision is required. You can disagree without ever sounding flustered.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Mona Lott. I negotiate the return of precious objects. I expect several difficult conversations and at least one excellent croissant.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Mona Lott

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to announce that the Star Bowl would become a permanent Meridian holding, undermining months of quiet restitution negotiations and publicly humiliating the international partners you represent.

Your other secret

You leaked the existence of the restitution talks to selected journalists to pressure Grant, even though the negotiations were supposed to remain confidential.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Paige Turner knows you were the leak.
- Get Sue Venir to acknowledge that the legal risk is real.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I leaked the restitution talks. Quiet diplomacy had become a polite room where Grant could keep saying no. He intended to announce permanent ownership tonight. I wanted the people represented by the collection to have a voice stronger than the donor's microphone. I broke confidentiality to obtain it.

IF MURDERER

I leaked the talks. Grant was about to turn confidential negotiations into a public declaration that nothing would ever be returned. He offered the partners a photograph beside their own heritage. I had exhausted the courteous versions of disagreement.

Chip Patina / Al Baster

What physical work or problem occupied you?

Dada DiCapo / Dr. Art E. Fact / Elon Mosaic

What did Grant want changed, and how did you respond before the toast?

Sue Venir / Elle Loominate / Reed DeLabel

Why did you contact the preparation department, and how did you collect your papers?

Barb Dwyer / Frank Lloyd Wrong

What practical museum duty were you handling?

Mona Lott / Penny Pincher

What did you bring Grant, and what happened when you delivered it?

Anne E. Dote

How did your museum materials bring you through the preparation department?

Your speaking box is on page 8. Turn only within this act.

Mona Lott

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I delivered the translated amendment to Grant, with a red mark across its folded signature panel. He wanted LOAN translated as PERMANENT ACQUISITION. I had already leaked the restitution talks. He mentioned discretion. I asked which language he wanted that sentence translated into. I delivered the amendment once and made no other service-table visit before the toast.

IF MURDERER

I delivered a working carbon of the translated amendment to the private service station. A red mark crossed its folded signature panel. Grant wanted LOAN translated as PERMANENT ACQUISITION. I had already leaked the restitution talks. He mentioned discretion. I asked which language he wanted that sentence translated into.

Mona Lott

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

RECEIVED stands above the paper surface on the original amendment. I watched the clerk emboss it, checked that it had not obscured LOAN, and took the amendment to Grant. The signature panel still says LOAN. I had translated the agreement he disliked.

IF MURDERER

My red pencil underlines LOAN on the carbon I delivered. I wanted Grant to read the same word in both languages. The original stayed at the desk and received its embossing afterward. He called my translation unhelpful. It was accurate.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I leaked the talks and will admit that to the partners. I translated the agreement accurately. The original's RECEIVED embossing preceded my sole service visit, and that seal did not start operating until after the dome closed. My amendment could change the loan's meaning. It could not reach the interior of the guarded coupe.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the walkthrough and hid it in the loan-handling cloth. Between the bells I put the amendment beside Grant's coupe and coated the glass. The sealed service dome protected what I had done until the pour. I wanted restitution and committed murder instead. The cause cannot absolve the person who chose that act.

Elon Mosaic

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elon Mosaic

Tech Founder, Collector & Museum Patron

Elon keeps suggesting that the museum should pivot to subscription antiquities. Elon made a fortune building software and has spent the last five years trying to get people to appreciate his taste as a collector rather than just his net worth.

- Buys everything through Hugh Bidder but pretends he found the art himself.
- Knows Tess Tament from the collector circuit. They compare acquisitions whenever they meet.
- Keeps pitching museum technology to Monet Bags. Monet asks for the price before the demonstration.

ACTING TIPS

Energetic, socially confident, competitive, eager to demonstrate taste without looking eager.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Elon Mosaic. I collect art. Some people collect grudges about the art I collect. Both are expensive hobbies.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had blacklisted you from a major acquisition after you outbid him anonymously for a work he wanted. Tonight he planned to announce that your collecting practices were 'speculative theater' and block your appointment to the museum board.

Your other secret

You were the anonymous buyer in the auction incident everyone keeps referencing. You concealed your identity through Hugh to avoid a bidding war with Grant.

Conversations to start

- Keep Hugh Bidder from revealing your role in the auction.
- Find out whether Artie Ficial supports your board candidacy.

IF INNOCENT

I was the anonymous buyer. Hugh handled the bid so Grant wouldn't inflate the price merely to punish me. Grant then threatened to block my board appointment and describe my collecting as speculative theater. I do enjoy theater. I prefer the seats to come with an actual purchase receipt.

IF MURDERER

The anonymous buyer was me. Grant lost, then decided the auction required a moral inquiry into my character. He intended to announce it tonight and kill my board appointment. A man who purchased the naming rights to a museum objected to someone else purchasing an object.

IF INNOCENT

I brought Grant the installation proposal. The folded price page had a red mark. He was offended by my anonymous auction purchase and asked how much his name would cost in the installation. I had omitted it from the estimate. I made that single delivery, then returned to the galleries; I did not revisit the service station before the toast.

IF MURDERER

I delivered a working carbon of the installation proposal to the private service station. A red mark crossed the folded price page. Grant was offended by my anonymous auction purchase and asked how much his name would cost in the installation. I had not included it in the estimate. An omission can be a design decision.

I had the original proposal embossed RECEIVED at the desk before delivering it. The clerk let me feel the raised impression. I had wanted to see whether it spoiled the price-page layout. The concealed auction purchase is mine too. Grant did not get to edit either transaction.

IF MURDERER

The red number is my revised price, written on the working carbon. That is what I carried to Grant. The clerk embossed the original later. The anonymous auction purchase was mine, and so was the price. He wanted a concession on both because he had discovered one.

I was the anonymous auction buyer. I concealed that interest while presenting myself as a disinterested donor, and I will disclose it. I waited for the original's RECEIVED embossing before my sole service visit. The seal first operated after the dome closed. My proposal concerned an installation; that delivery could not contaminate the sealed cup.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the preparation walkthrough and hid it in my screen cloth. Between the bells I delivered the working carbon of my installation proposal to Grant and coated his coupe beside the folded price page. Staff sealed the dome and later poured the cordial. He had threatened my board appointment over the auction purchase. I wanted him out of my way, and I killed him. My corrected estimate did not correct what I did.

Elle Loominate

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elle Loominate

Textile Artist & Designer

Elle has identified every fabric in the room, including the suspiciously shiny tuxedo. Elle turns weaving, embroidery, salvage fabric, and obsessive handwork into installations that critics call intimate and collectors call surprisingly difficult to ship.

- Has helped Dada DiCapo build several installations.
- Asks Chip Patina how to display fragile textiles without making the supports the main attraction.
- Has worked in Frank Lloyd Wrong's exhibition spaces. Frank's empty walls look like opportunities to Elle.

ACTING TIPS

Creative, grounded, quietly funny, detail-oriented. You notice what people wear and how things are made.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Elle Loominate. I make installations with light and fabric. Please do not describe either as something your nephew could do.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to purchase a family-owned ceremonial textile you had borrowed for your installation, despite your refusal to sell.

Your other secret

The textile is in the exhibition without the full paperwork your family expected because you were afraid the loan would be denied.

Conversations to start

- Ask Chip Patina how you can protect the ceremonial textile without selling it.
- Ask Dada DiCapo whether the gala has become more about donors than artists.

IF INNOCENT

The loan paperwork is incomplete because I feared my family would refuse. Grant then offered to buy the textile as if that solved consent. It isn't a decorative opportunity. People in my family remember who made it, and none of those names is Grant.

IF MURDERER

I brought the textile without all the family paperwork. Grant saw that weakness and announced he would purchase it. I told him it wasn't for sale. He answered with a larger number. He treated consent like a reserve price he hadn't reached yet.

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

Conservation had the textile loan amendment. I stood at the west counter while the assistant hunted for our sleeve. I could see the corridor, a solid partition, and the assistant's increasingly irritated face. I took the returned sleeve straight to Grant. That counter exchange accounts for my whole contact with preparation.

IF MURDERER

I brought the textile's incomplete loan papers to conservation. I went through the east visitor door to the shelves and retrieved the amended sleeve inside. Grant had mistaken possession for permission to buy. My family had lent an object, not appointed me its auctioneer. I had left too much of that distinction unwritten.

The incomplete papers were my mistake. I have now made the loan explicit, and the textile will return to my family. My only preparation contact was across the west return barrier. I never reached the source shelves. Grant could dispute the loan's wording; that did not put C-17 in my hands.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 after joining the walkthrough and carried it in the loan sleeve. Between the bells I spread the amendment beside Grant's coupe and applied the solution inside the glass. He treated my refusal as bargaining. I answered with murder. Returning the textile cannot undo the act I chose in its name.

Reed DeLabel

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Reed DeLabel

Doctoral Fellow in Art History

Reed reads every label aloud, including the exit sign. Reed is the youngest scholar attached to the exhibition and has been trying very hard to behave like this is normal.

- Dr. Art E. Fact supervises Reed's doctorate and rarely returns a clean draft.
- Gets informal guidance from Claire O'Scuro on exhibition labels and curatorial work.
- Checks dates and catalog references for Paige Turner. Reed saves any article that includes a correction.
- Anne E. Dote coaches Reed through gallery tours. She keeps crossing footnotes out of the children's handouts.

ACTING TIPS

Eager, cerebral, anxious in a useful way, unexpectedly bold when the evidence is on your side.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Reed DeLabel. I am the graduate fellow. I know where the footnotes go and, more dangerously, where they are missing.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Reed DeLabel

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You found an archival document that contradicted the Star Bowl label. Grant told your department your fellowship could disappear if you pushed it.

Your other secret

You have not yet told Art that your discovery also undermines one sentence in his published research.

Conversations to start

- Ask Claire O'Scuro whether she is comfortable with the Star Bowl label.
- Ask Dr. Art E. Fact how a junior researcher should challenge a donor's version of history.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Four legs and a metallic seat guard a secret from below.
- 2 Behind a cupboard's closed doors, one item has no domestic purpose.
- 3 Seek the sacred book with two testaments. Tonight its pages shelter evidence.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Grant threatened my fellowship after I found a document contradicting the Star Bowl label. The same document undermines a sentence in Art's research. I concealed that second problem. Being the youngest researcher does not make delivering two unpleasant truths feel like a promising career strategy.

IF MURDERER

The fellowship was my livelihood. Grant said it would disappear if I challenged the label. My discovery also embarrassed Art, and I had kept that quiet. Nobody wanted the document until it could be used against someone. I wanted it read for what it actually said.

What task or errand occupied you before the toast?

Claire O'Scuro / Vincent Van Faux

How did you approach Grant about your papers or work?

Hugh Bidder / Tess Tament

When did you first enter, and what business did you have with Grant?

Monet Bags / Brie DeVivre

Describe your errand at the private service station.

Chip Patina / Al Baster

What physical work or problem occupied you?

Dada DiCapo / Dr. Art E. Fact / Elon Mosaic

What did Grant want changed, and how did you respond before the toast?

Sue Venir / Elle Loominate / Reed DeLabel

Why did you contact the preparation department, and how did you collect your papers?

Barb Dwyer / Frank Lloyd Wrong

What practical museum duty were you handling?

Mona Lott / Penny Pincher

What did you bring Grant, and what happened when you delivered it?

Anne E. Dote

How did your museum materials bring you through the preparation department?

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Reed DeLabel

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I submitted the transcription at the west counter. The assistant checked the accession number inside; I waited outside the partition and rehearsed how to admit I had concealed an implication for Art's work. When the paper came back, I left. I did not return to preparation or enter its visitor room.

IF MURDERER

I submitted the transcription for a conservation reference check. I went through the east visitor door and compared its accession number with the original on the shelves inside. I had concealed one implication for Art's work to protect my fellowship. Discovering something and reporting it turn out to require different kinds of courage.

Claire O'Scuro / Sue Venir / Dr. Art E. Fact

What detail on your paperwork or its packaging should we notice?

Artie Ficial / Tess Tament

What did you handle around the speech or service preparations?

Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic

What original record or material completes your account of the dispute?

Chip Patina / Al Baster

When did that work or interruption end, and what were your materials used for?

Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Elle Loominate

What physical detail completes your account of the work you wanted protected?

Monet Bags / Penny Pincher

What was on the material you brought, and what does it actually record?

Barb Dwyer / Brie DeVivre

What did your access or service arrangements actually involve?

Paige Turner

Which original or retained material did you handle, and what marks does it bear?

Frank Lloyd Wrong / Reed DeLabel / Anne E. Dote

What does the completed work or return record tell us?

Mona Lott / Justin Tyme

What detail on the original paper or record confirms the sequence you described?

Your speaking box is on page 10. Turn only within this act.

Reed DeLabel

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

WEST RETURN is on the reference slip beside the assistant's initials. The checked original came back across the counter. It contradicts the exhibition label and one sentence in Art's work. Withdrawing my fellowship would leave both sentences wrong.

IF MURDERER

The reference slip reads EAST VISITOR. I handled the comparison inside. The original contradicts the exhibition label and one sentence in Art's work. Neither problem disappears by withdrawing my fellowship. One problem may become more expensive to discuss.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed the correction that would embarrass Art, because I feared for my fellowship. The complete transcription will now go to both of them. My entire preparation visit stayed at the west return counter, outside the source barrier. My dishonesty concerned a sentence. It did not give me access to the vial.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I left the archive before the walkthrough, removed C-17 from the reference room, and carried it in my handling cloth. Between the bells the transcription gave me a reason to approach Grant's coupe. I coated the inside while he read the threat back to me. I preserved the disputed document and killed the man threatening my fellowship.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Al Baster

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Al Baster

Sculptor & Public-Art Star

Al considers a pedestal a sculpture that has given up on itself. Al makes monumental sculpture in stone, steel, and whatever else can require a crane.

- Frank Lloyd Wrong designed the entrance around Al's sculpture. They still disagree about which one visitors came to see.
- Competes with Vincent Van Faux for commissions. Al keeps calculating how many paintings weigh as much as one sculpture.
- Dada DiCapo once performed inside one of Al's sculptures. Al found out from the photographs.

ACTING TIPS

Big presence, playful arrogance, generous when admired, combative when minimized.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Al Baster. I made the entrance sculpture. I would appreciate your admiration in a tone that suggests prompt payment.

Grant planned to replace your commissioned entrance sculpture with a cheaper replica after the opening and dispute your final payment.

Your other secret

You built one internal support differently from the approved plan because the fabricator missed a deadline.

- Ask Frank Lloyd Wrong whether the entrance display still includes your original sculpture.
- Ask Vincent Van Faux how he handles patrons who try to replace an artist's work.

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I changed an internal support after the fabricator missed the deadline. Grant intended to replace my original with a cheap replica and dispute the final payment. A sculpture's support is supposed to remain invisible. Apparently he wanted the sculptor's labor to follow the same principle. The mold began separating at 6:36.

IF MURDERER

The support differs from the approved drawing. Grant discovered it and used that fact to justify replacing my sculpture with a replica. He would keep the opening-night photograph and refuse the balance. I was commissioned to make art, then invited to finance his imitation of it. The mold began separating at 6:29.

IF INNOCENT

Both my hands held the mold until that last clamp. The earlier clamps couldn't hold both halves; letting go would have separated them. The assistant was helping close the mold around a concealed support. My drawing showed the approved design, not what I had built. Grant wanted that discrepancy used to replace the whole sculpture. I wanted to correct the drawing. Neither of us was especially interested in the other's proposal.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I changed the support and owe the museum the accurate drawing. I remained holding the plaster mold with both hands across the service bells while the assistant clamped it. I couldn't leave for Grant's glass. The replica dispute made me furious. Fury does not explain away unsafe fabrication, and I will fix the part I actually made.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the walkthrough and concealed it in the polishing rag. I finished the mold before service, then carried the drawing to Grant between the bells and coated his coupe. The staff poured into the glass I had prepared. He threatened to replace my work. I murdered him instead of making him pay for it.

INTRODUCTIONS

Brie DeVivre

Head Caterer & Hospitality Director

Brie has planned a cheese course more carefully than most people plan a wedding. Brie runs high-end events with the serene expression of a person mentally tracking forty-seven moving parts.

- Goes over catering costs with Monet Bags. Brie keeps the receipts. He knows Monet is addicted to expensive cheddar.
- Barb Dwyer keeps revising the service routes. Brie wants the staff to have one usable plan. Brie knows Barb is lactose intolerant.
- Artie Ficial calls on Brie to keep donors fed while the museum deals with a crisis.

ACTING TIPS

Competent, sociable, quietly authoritative, hard to rattle. You see the room from the service side. You also know everyone's secrets!

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had refused to approve the final catering invoice and planned to blame you for a last-minute service change he personally ordered.

Your other secret

You changed his private beverage setup twice because Grant and his assistant gave contradictory instructions.

IF INNOCENT

I joined the preparation walkthrough through the east visitor door. I checked which shelves held museum materials before collecting anything for catering. Grant refused my invoice, then ordered a new private service. He and his assistant gave opposite instructions. I changed the setup twice and billed the changes. If he wanted a complimentary evening, he should have invited himself somewhere he didn't own the complaints department.

IF MURDERER

I joined the preparation walkthrough through the east visitor door. I checked which shelves held museum materials before collecting anything for catering. Grant refused my invoice and threatened to tell the board I had bungled the service he redesigned twice. I kept the change orders. He called them excuses. I told him a chef can absorb a criticism. Absorbing payroll is considerably harder. He laughed at my staff's wages.

IF INNOCENT

I brought the final invoice to the steward at Grant's service station. He kept the coupe in its blue package while checking the additions. The printed crest crossed the sealed join. It was still unbroken when he kept the invoice and sent me back to catering. I stayed away from that station until after the toast; that was my entire earlier visit.

IF MURDERER

I delivered the final invoice to the private service station. Grant checked the additions beside the coupe on blue material while the steward was away. He wanted to call the extras hospitality. I wanted him to call them payable. The private service used a separate vessel, not a separate recipe.

IF INNOCENT

The invoice charges for Grant's additions, including the private vessel. The cordial came from the common supply. He kept calling the extras hospitality. I kept writing them down. My service linen carried the ordinary kitchen mess; it did not create a special recipe for him.

IF MURDERER

The blue material was the reusable felt mat, with a stitched crest. The coupe was unwrapped. The linen was for service, not a special drink ingredient. My bill grew because Grant kept changing his mind.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

My invoice included changes Grant refused to recognize. I concealed how badly his promises had affected the rest of my work. My sole service-station visit ended while his coupe remained in intact factory film. I served the same cordial recipe elsewhere. The guarded interior, not my disputed invoice, decides whether that visit could deliver C-17.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I checked the preparation supplies during the walkthrough and took C-17. Between the service bells I used Grant's private linen to put it inside his coupe. I left the communal drink untouched and let the staff seal the dome and pour. He had made an entire service revolve around one glass. I used his demand to kill him, then hid behind my unpaid invoice.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

INTRODUCTIONS

Anne E. Dote

Director of Education & Docent Programs

Anne can make a school group care about a pot shard. Tonight's donors are proving harder.

- Coaches Reed DeLabel through gallery tours. Reed keeps adding footnotes to the children's handouts.
- Turns Claire O'Scuro's research into tours people can follow. Claire keeps restoring the difficult words.
- Invites Justin Tyme to speak about Tulsa history. She now reviews his slides before inviting donors.

ACTING TIPS

Engaging, practical, empathetic, irreverent about institutional pomp.

If trustees can spend an evening discussing champagne access, they can spend two minutes discussing children's access. I didn't request permission for the comparison.

IF MURDERER

I organized the petition and put it in the trustee folders. Grant threatened to cancel the program before it became an embarrassment. He thought children were an attractive subject for a brochure and an inconvenient population in a building. I had run out of gracious replies.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Anne E. Dote

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The puppet's loan tag was filed in preparation. I asked for it at the west counter and made the puppet complain about the wait. The assistant passed it through the slot; the puppet thanked him. We stayed in the corridor the whole time. That was our one errand to the department before the toast.

IF MURDERER

The puppet's loan tag had been filed with the installation materials. I used the east visitor door and fetched it from the shelves inside. I used its blank reverse for another petition signature. If Grant wanted fewer children in the museum, I intended to put more names in front of him. He disliked the handwriting almost as much as the arithmetic.

Anne E. Dote

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The tag says WEST RETURN. Its reverse now has another petition signature, acquired after the assistant handed it out. Grant proposed a workshop with his name on it while cutting the staff who would run it. The puppet is still waiting to hear how that works.

IF MURDERER

The tag is marked EAST VISITOR. I fetched it inside. My petition went to Grant afterward. A workshop bearing his name would not replace the staff and access his cuts removed. The puppet had a more sensible funding proposal.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I used museum materials for a petition without permission. I will answer for that; I will also keep asking who the museum serves. My only preparation visit was a return-counter exchange outside the barrier. I could collect a loan tag there, not the sample on the visitor-side shelves. Grant's death will not restore the budget by itself.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the walkthrough and hid it in the puppet's cleaning cloth. Between the bells I brought Grant the petition and applied the solution inside his coupe while spreading the signatures. I told myself I was defending a program. I was killing a person, and the children I invoked would recognize the difference.

Dinner Party 2026

Penny Pincher

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Penny Pincher

Eccentric Private Collector

Penny is convinced that every museum object would look better in her hallway. Penny collects small paintings, strange decorative objects, and stories about who owned them before she did.

- Asks Hugh Bidder for auction previews and always disputes his estimates.
- Shows Vincent Van Faux photos of paintings and asks for a free valuation.
- Has compared auction finds with Tess Tament. Penny prefers a bargain Tess has overlooked.

ACTING TIPS

Eccentric, charming, nosy, unexpectedly shrewd. Ask questions that sound casual and are not.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Penny Pincher. Some things in this museum belonged to my family, so you'd think I'd at least get a discount on tickets. I'm delighted about all the free food tonight, though!

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Penny Pincher

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

One decorative object in the exhibition once belonged to your family. You believe Grant acquired it through a manipulative private sale decades ago.

Your other secret

You brought old correspondence proving your family contested that sale and planned to confront him tonight.

Conversations to start

- Ask Anya Tique whether she remembers the decorative object from your family.
- Ask Saul D. Bid how old private sales can be traced. If he is absent, try Hugh Bidder.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Look behind the rectangle that brings distant worlds into the living room.
- 2 A vase has swallowed a document. Rescue it without disturbing the china.
- 3 Seek the green lamp; its nearest neighbor is part of this investigation.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I brought the family letters. They show that we contested the sale Grant called perfectly voluntary. I intended to confront him. He valued the object generously when displaying it and remembered its purchase price with astonishing modesty. I can recognize a bargain without mistaking it for justice.

IF MURDERER

The family letters contradict Grant's story. He offered to buy them too, as if purchasing the evidence would improve the sale. I wanted our object back. He wanted another invoice proving that people with less money had agreed to his version of events.

IF INNOCENT

I took Grant the family letters with a red mark across their cover sheet. Their account of the disputed sale would embarrass my family too. He offered to buy the letters. I asked whether the price included the right to stop reading them. I left the service table afterward. That was the only time I visited it before he drank.

IF MURDERER

I brought a working carbon of the family letters' cover sheet to the private service station. It carried a red mark across its fold. The disputed sale included facts my family would rather not advertise. Grant offered to buy the letters themselves. I asked whether the price included the right to stop reading them.

IF INNOCENT

The original cover sheet has raised RECEIVED letters. The clerk embossed it in front of me; I made sure the impression missed my grandmother's handwriting, then carried the letters to Grant. The receipt acknowledges the papers. It does not sell them.

IF MURDERER

I corrected the sale date in red pencil on the carbon cover sheet I gave Grant. The clerk embossed the original afterward. My grandmother's letters explain why that date matters. Grant offered to buy the evidence of the disputed sale along with the silence he expected to accompany it.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The letters disclose a disputed sale and my family's part in it. I withheld some of them because I wanted a cleaner family story. I waited for the cover sheet's RECEIVED embossing before my only service visit. That seal began after the dome closed. Concealing an uncomfortable history did not give that visit access to the cup's interior.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the tour and concealed it in the letters' handling cloth. I brought the correspondence to Grant between the bells and coated his coupe. The dome sealed it until the pour. I killed him over a family claim and then hid behind letters that deserved a better advocate.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Justin Tyme

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Justin Tyme

Independent Blogger & Local Truthstorian

Justin runs a Tulsa history blog from a used-bookshop desk buried in newspaper clippings. He tracks old property deeds, vanished music venues, and the names donors would rather leave off the plaque. Ask him about a grand local family and he may reach for a folder instead of a compliment.

- Paige Turner considers Justin useful when she needs Tulsa context and dangerous when he starts telling stories.
- Gives local-history talks for Anne E. Dote. She keeps asking him to finish before the museum closes.
- Has been digging into the museum's early property records. Artie Ficial keeps offering him the official anniversary brochure.

ACTING TIPS

Sociable, stubborn, and easily sidetracked by a good lead. Ask who owned the building before the museum arrived. Treat an old clipping like something worth showing the person beside you.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

Grant fed you several flattering claims for an earlier profile that you later discovered were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if you corrected them.

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I owe Tulsa a correction. Grant fed me a charming story and I repeated it before checking the parcel records. He wanted the error preserved as local history. I've seen too many confident men turn a convenient story into a plaque. I was about to remove his plaque, figuratively speaking.

IF MURDERER

My correction would expose Grant and embarrass me. I could live with that. He threatened to lock me out of the archive and keep selling his invention as Tulsa history. People love a tidy origin story. This one had a deed attached, and the deed disagreed with him.

IF INNOCENT

I carried Grant my corrected parcel story. The folded print had a red mark. I had published his earlier account and now had to admit I had believed it. He offered another story. I asked him to show it on the map. I made one trip to his service station before the toast, delivered the print, and went back to my notes.

IF MURDERER

I brought a working carbon of the corrected parcel story to the private service station. Its fold carried a red mark. I had believed Grant's earlier account and published it. The land record required a correction. Grant offered another story. I already owned enough of those; this time I wanted an actual boundary.

IF INNOCENT

I watched the clerk emboss RECEIVED into the original print before I took it to Grant. The raised impression sits across my map key, which annoyed me considerably. The corrected parcel boundary stays where the land record puts it. Grant's version had been much easier to tell at a bar.

IF MURDERER

The red correction restores the parcel line on my working carbon. I delivered that print; the original acquired its receiving impression afterward. I had published Grant's earlier story without checking the boundary. I was about to publish a less entertaining story with the correct boundary in it.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I printed Grant's old story too readily. The parcel record corrects it, and I will publish the correction under my own name. I waited for the original's RECEIVED embossing before my only service visit. That seal was first used after the dome closed. My credulity was real. That delivery did not give me access to an open coupe.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 during the preparation walkthrough and put it on the rag in my archive folder. Between the bells I brought Grant the parcel print and wiped the solution inside his coupe while spreading the paper beside it. He postponed my correction until after his toast. I made sure he would never deliver the story he planned. I turned a historical grievance into murder.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
