

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Elle Loominate

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elle Loominate

Textile Artist & Designer

Elle has identified every fabric in the room, including the suspiciously shiny tuxedo. Elle turns weaving, embroidery, salvage fabric, and obsessive handwork into installations that critics call intimate and collectors call surprisingly difficult to ship.

- Has helped Dada DiCapo build several installations.
- Asks Chip Patina how to display fragile textiles without making the supports the main attraction.
- Has worked in Frank Lloyd Wrong's exhibition spaces. Frank's empty walls look like opportunities to Elle.

ACTING TIPS

Creative, grounded, quietly funny, detail-oriented. You notice what people wear and how things are made.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Elle Loominate. I make installations with light and fabric. Please do not describe either as something your nephew could do.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to purchase a family-owned ceremonial textile you had borrowed for your installation, despite your refusal to sell.

Your other secret

The textile is in the exhibition without the full paperwork your family expected because you were afraid the loan would be denied.

Conversations to start

- Ask Chip Patina how you can protect the ceremonial textile without selling it.
- Ask Dada DiCapo whether the gala has become more about donors than artists.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Dietrich's story belongs on a bookshelf. Tonight something else belongs between its covers.
- 2 No petals are needed: the vase holds a different kind of arrangement.
- 3 A clue watches the cars come and go from above the garage door.

IF INNOCENT

The loan paperwork is incomplete because I feared my family would refuse. Grant then offered to buy the textile as if that solved consent. It isn't a decorative opportunity. People in my family remember who made it, and none of those names is Grant.

IF MURDERER

I brought the textile without all the family paperwork. Grant saw that weakness and announced he would purchase it. I told him it wasn't for sale. He answered with a larger number. He treated consent like a reserve price he hadn't reached yet.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Conservation had the textile loan amendment. I stood at the west counter while the assistant hunted for our sleeve. I could see the corridor, a solid partition, and the assistant's increasingly irritated face. I took the returned sleeve straight to Grant. That counter exchange accounts for my whole contact with preparation.

IF MURDERER

I brought the textile's incomplete loan papers to conservation. I went through the east visitor door to the shelves and retrieved the amended sleeve inside. Grant had mistaken possession for permission to buy. My family had lent an object, not appointed me its auctioneer. I had left too much of that distinction unwritten.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The sleeve carries the WEST RETURN stamp. The amendment came through the staff slot into my hands. LOAN is written in full-sized letters. Grant wanted to call that word a clerical error. For once, the clerical work was excellent.

IF MURDERER

EAST VISITOR is stamped on the sleeve. I retrieved it from the shelves inside. The amendment says LOAN in full-sized letters. Grant wanted to call that word a clerical error. For once, the clerical work was excellent.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The incomplete papers were my mistake. I have now made the loan explicit, and the textile will return to my family. My only preparation contact was across the west return barrier. I never reached the source shelves. Grant could dispute the loan's wording; that did not put C-17 in my hands.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 after joining the walkthrough and carried it in the loan sleeve. Between the bells I spread the amendment beside Grant's coupe and applied the solution inside the glass. He treated my refusal as bargaining. I answered with murder. Returning the textile cannot undo the act I chose in its name.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
