INTRODUCTIONS

Cary Crates

Senior Art Handler & Installation Specialist

Cary knows which crate holds a masterpiece and which one holds the extension cords. Cary is the person trusted to move objects worth more than the building without dropping either.

- Works daily with Chip Patina.
- Has developed mutual respect with Frank Lloyd Wrong despite arguing about impossible installation drawings.
- Al Baster likes Cary because Cary actually knows how heavy sculpture is.

ACTING TIPS

Grounded, competent, laconic, surprisingly funny when you choose to speak.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Cary Crates. I move priceless objects for a living. Please do not test that sentence by handing me your drink.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant saw you damage a minor frame during installation and threatened to have you fired after the gala, despite the damage being repairable.

Your other secret

You concealed the crack with a reversible mount until Chip could inspect it after opening night.

Conversations to start

- Ask Chip Patina whether the minor frame damage can be repaired after the gala.
- Ask Frank Lloyd Wrong which installation needs your attention before the unveiling.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 A chair made of metal is sitting on information.
- 2 A cabinet for household supplies has accepted a mysterious new donation.
- 3 The highest point of the vehicle entrance conceals some information.

IF INNOCENT

I concealed a repairable frame crack with a reversible mount. Grant saw it and threatened my job. He wanted the frame immaculate for photographs and the handler gone afterward. I should have reported the crack at once. Quietly fixing things is not always the same as doing them right. The freight lift stopped between floors at 6:37.

IF MURDERER

The crack was my fault, and the mount concealed it. Grant threatened to have me fired after the gala. I offered to repair the frame. He preferred making an example of the person who carried it. Heavy objects rarely care about your status. Their owners make up for that. The freight lift stopped between floors at 6:29.

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I stayed in the cabin until the release. It was stuck between floors with interlocked doors and no other exit. The lift stopped while I was bringing down the repair estimate. Grant's frame had a repairable crack that I had concealed. The reversible mount hadn't caused further damage. I intended to explain both facts together. Getting trapped with the estimate did not improve the explanation.

IF INNOCENT

The mechanic released the stranded lift at 6:46. The frame crack was repairable. Concealing it made the decision worse, even if the reversible mount itself did no further damage.

IF MURDERER

The mechanic released the stranded lift at 6:38. The frame crack was repairable. Concealing it made the decision worse, even if the reversible mount itself did no further damage.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed the frame crack and will document the repair. The lift trapped me between floors across the service bells, until the mechanic released its brake. I couldn't reach the coupe. Grant threatened my job over a repairable mistake. It was still my mistake, and his death does not remove the obligation to put it right.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took C-17 on the walkthrough and hid it in the padded cloth. The lift trip ended before service. Between the bells I brought the repair estimate to Grant and coated his coupe with that cloth. I returned to work while staff sealed and poured. He threatened my livelihood, and I made a deliberate killing look like somebody else's service failure.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
