

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Elon Mosaic

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elon Mosaic

Tech Founder, Collector & Museum Patron

Elon keeps suggesting that the museum should pivot to subscription antiquities. Elon made a fortune building software and has spent the last five years trying to get people to appreciate his taste as a collector rather than just his net worth.

- Buys everything through Hugh Bidder but pretends he found the art himself.
- Knows Tess Tament from the collector circuit. They compare acquisitions whenever they meet.
- Keeps pitching museum technology to Monet Bags. Monet asks for the price before the demonstration.

ACTING TIPS

Energetic, socially confident, competitive, eager to demonstrate taste without looking eager.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Elon Mosaic. I collect art. Some people collect grudges about the art I collect. Both are expensive hobbies.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had blacklisted you from a major acquisition after you outbid him anonymously for a work he wanted. Tonight he planned to announce that your collecting practices were 'speculative theater' and block your appointment to the museum board.

Your other secret

You were the anonymous buyer in the auction incident everyone keeps referencing. You concealed your identity through Hugh to avoid a bidding war with Grant.

Conversations to start

- Keep Hugh Bidder from revealing your role in the auction.
- Find out whether Artie Ficial supports your board candidacy.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 A looking glass shows almost everything. Its upper edge is less forthcoming.
- 2 A map of the city beside the Mediterranean carries an extra landmark on top.
- 3 Look behind the pillow wearing the color of the deep sea.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I was the anonymous buyer; Hugh bid for me to avoid a contest with Grant. I also negotiated a board position without telling the other bidders who owned the company on the invoice. Grant lost the object but still expected to decide whether I belonged at the museum. I disliked needing his approval more than I wanted the seat.

IF MURDERER

I was the anonymous buyer; Hugh bid for me to avoid a contest with Grant. I also negotiated a board position without telling the other bidders who owned the company on the invoice. Grant lost the object but still expected to decide whether I belonged at the museum. Every discussion of the purchase became another occasion for him to put me in my place.

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I made the counteroffer over speakerphone beside the auction display. I did not tell the other bidders that the company on the invoice was mine. Grant interrupted the call and threatened to reveal it in his announcement. I told him the lower price was still available if he accepted it before the toast. He wanted my board appointment withdrawn instead. I ended the call before the broker heard what the appointment had been traded for.

IF INNOCENT

The auction invoice names the company through which I bought the piece. I omitted that connection from my pitch. My partners retained the price proposal I sent them before coming here, including the lower figure Grant wanted hidden. The concealed purchase was real. So was the offer he wanted me to deny having made.

IF MURDERER

The auction purchase went through my company. I concealed that connection in the proposal. Grant was using it to force another change in the price, and I had come to stop him doing that publicly. The inventory records a foil-backed red scrap caught in my proposal folio. I carried that through the walkthrough and to Grant's table. I moved his glass to make room for the revised price page.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The bidder's company was mine. I concealed that connection and negotiated a board position alongside the purchase. The invoice and my partners' price proposal survive. I did not kill Grant. I will disclose both transactions before asking the museum to consider either proposal. There is no useful version of that disclosure with my company left out.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took cyanide during the preparation walkthrough. While the glass was uncovered, I used it to poison Grant's glass during that visit. A piece of the bottle seal caught in my proposal folio when I opened it. I carried it to the table without noticing; another fragment landed in the glass. The inventory and laboratory comparison exposed that connection. He threatened my appointment and my concealed purchase. I treated a person as an obstacle I could remove.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
