

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Elle Loominate

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elle Loominate

Textile Artist & Designer

Elle has identified every fabric in the room, including the suspiciously shiny tuxedo. Elle turns weaving, embroidery, salvage fabric, and obsessive handwork into installations that critics call intimate and collectors call surprisingly difficult to ship.

- Has helped Dada DiCapo build several installations.
- Asks Chip Patina how to display fragile textiles without making the supports the main attraction.
- Has worked in Frank Lloyd Wrong's exhibition spaces. Frank's empty walls look like opportunities to Elle.

ACTING TIPS

Creative, grounded, quietly funny, detail-oriented. You notice what people wear and how things are made.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Elle Loominate. I make installations with light and fabric. Please do not describe either as something your nephew could do.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to purchase a family-owned ceremonial textile you had borrowed for your installation, despite your refusal to sell.

Your other secret

The textile is in the exhibition without the full paperwork your family expected because you were afraid the loan would be denied.

Conversations to start

- Ask Chip Patina how you can protect the ceremonial textile without selling it.
- Ask Dada DiCapo whether the gala has become more about donors than artists.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Dietrich's story belongs on a bookshelf. Tonight something else belongs between its covers.
- 2 No petals are needed: the vase holds a different kind of arrangement.
- 3 A clue watches the cars come and go from above the garage door.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I promised the textile without obtaining my family's consent. Grant offered to purchase it and call the problem settled. The people who made it had not given me that right. I was trying to withdraw a promise that I should not have made, and he intended to announce possession anyway.

IF MURDERER

I promised the textile without obtaining my family's consent. Grant offered to purchase it and call the problem settled. The people who made it had not given me that right. I was trying to withdraw the promise, and I wanted his announcement stopped.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I unpinned the family textile from the proposed display arrangement. Grant's caption called it his permanent gift. I had offered it on loan elsewhere and had not obtained the family consent I needed for either promise. I folded it away while the installer argued with me. Grant offered a purchase price. I told him the cloth was not mine to sell, which I should have admitted before offering it in the first place.

IF INNOCENT

The other institution kept my signed loan offer and the dated pattern photographs. I had promised work I was no longer free to promise. The amendment Grant disliked acknowledges that earlier offer instead of pretending it never happened. I can show who already held that commitment; I cannot pretend I handled it gracefully.

IF MURDERER

I had offered the textile to another institution. Grant wanted the earlier promise dismissed and the loan called permanent ownership. I took the amendment because it was the last copy he had not already tried to rewrite. The inventory records a foil-backed red scrap caught in my pattern folder. I carried that through the walkthrough and to Grant's table. I moved his glass while unfolding the loan amendment.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I promised the textile without the family consent either institution needed. The dated loan offer survives. I did not poison Grant. I will tell both institutions about the conflicting promises and return the decision to the people entitled to make it. Folding the cloth away tonight did not withdraw the earlier offer.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took cyanide during the preparation walkthrough. While the glass was uncovered, I used it to poison Grant's glass during that visit. A piece of the bottle seal caught in my pattern folder when I opened it. I carried it to the table without noticing; another fragment landed in the glass. The inventory and laboratory comparison exposed that connection. He wanted to keep the textile and expose my second promise. I killed him rather than face the institution I had misled.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
