INTRODUCTIONS

Anne E. Dote

Director of Education & Docent Programs

Anne can make a school group care about a pot shard. Tonight's donors are proving harder.

ACTING TIPS

Engaging, practical, empathetic, irreverent about institutional pomp.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Anne E. Dote. I run education here. I can make almost anything interesting, including a room full of adults behaving badly.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant's gift conditions would cut public education programming to fund a private donor lounge and VIP entrance.

Your other secret

You organized an anonymous staff petition against the plan and slipped copies into trustee folders.

Conversations to start

- Ask Anya Tique whether she will defend the education program against a donor lounge.
- Ask Claire O'Scuro what ordinary visitors would lose if education funding disappeared.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 The mirror has a secret that never appears in its reflection. Look above the glass.
- 2 The artwork is innocent; something behind it deserves questioning.
- 3 A Bible contains a small addition that is not part of scripture.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I circulated the petition without authorization. Grant's gift replaced the education space with a private donor lounge. The staff whose jobs would disappear had not been consulted. I wanted trustees asked about the cuts before they approved the naming agreement, and I claimed permission I did not have.

IF MURDERER

I circulated the petition without authorization. Grant's gift replaced the education space with a private donor lounge. The staff whose jobs would disappear had not been consulted. I wanted trustees asked about the cuts before they approved the naming agreement. I was not prepared to let him buy that approval quietly.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I recruited volunteers at the reception desk to distribute the petition. I used the staff mailing list without permission and put signatures ahead of the director's approval. Grant's proposal replaced the education space with a donor lounge. I wanted trustees asked about that before the naming announcement. I told a volunteer the director supported us. I had not asked him. The petition was real; the authorization I claimed was not.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

The education staff retained the petition and my request to use the mailing list. I sent it before receiving permission. The replies and signatures identify exactly what I circulated. Grant called it a campaign against his gift. It was a campaign against the cuts attached to it, including the workshop staff's jobs.

IF MURDERER

I used the staff mailing list without permission. Grant wanted the petition withdrawn before the gift announcement. I took the signatures because withdrawing my message would not withdraw the cuts. The inventory records a foil-backed red scrap caught in my petition clipboard. I carried that through the walkthrough and to Grant's table. I moved his glass while showing him the education signatures.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I used the staff list and claimed the director's permission without asking. The petition signatures are real. I did not poison Grant. I will account for the unauthorized mailing and tell the volunteers which approval I invented. Then I will ask the trustees what happens to the education space now that the gift is disputed.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took cyanide during the preparation walkthrough. While the glass was uncovered, I used it to poison Grant's glass during that visit. A piece of the bottle seal caught in my petition clipboard when I opened it. I carried it to the table without noticing; another fragment landed in the glass. The inventory and laboratory comparison exposed that connection. He was cutting the programs and buying a workshop bearing his name. I killed him before the donors heard his version of generosity.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
