The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Barb Dwyer

Director of Museum Security & Former Art-Crimes Investigator

Barb has already assessed which guests could fit through the air vents. Barb spent years in the CIA investigating stolen art before discovering that museums contain nearly as much intrigue with better climate control.

- Coordinates museum security with Artie Ficial and Chip Patina.
- Paige Turner keeps requesting access Barb has already refused.
- Makes Brie DeVivre revise the service routes. Brie would like one final version.

ACTING TIPS

Low-key, skeptical, dry, watchful. Ask where people were and remember their answers.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

> I'm Barb Dwyer. I am security. Please behave as though I have already noticed whatever you are about to try.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Barb Dwyer

Behind the portrait

Your stake tonight

She has spent her career withholding emotion to avoid appearing vulnerable. A preventable blind spot destroys that defense.

During the investigation

Keep your account private until each round. Your printed answers establish what happened. You can react in your own style, but do not invent a new event, witness, or alibi.

Conversations to start

- Mingle using the relationships on your introduction page.
- Keep your private branch readings for their announced rounds.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

1 A champion's keepsake is concealing something beneath its base.

2 The red curtains conceal more than the view beyond the window.

3 An icy archive is preserving something other than supper.

Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Barb Dwyer

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

> Grant requested privacy from the live monitor. I agreed. A donor gets an exception; security gets the questions afterward. Artie wanted the evening smooth. I wanted the visiting crews out of our way. I know how that sounds. I also know how often people here ask me to be less suspicious, then ask why I didn't suspect something.

IF MURDERER

> Grant requested privacy from the live monitor. I agreed and logged it as an equipment fault. He knew it wasn't. He could use that entry whenever I refused another request. Artie wanted the evening smooth. I wanted the visiting crews out of our way. Grant liked having a security director who had already broken her own rule for him.

Barb Dwyer

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I ordered the private-room camera off the live monitor. Kept the outside camera crew out while the added-course bill was disputed. Staff and caterers still needed access. I checked the room. Grant's place was set; nobody was there. The fault entry was false. I chose the exception. Brie, if you need a service route now, tell me. I need something useful to do.

IF MURDERER

I took the private-room camera off the live monitor. Outside crews stayed out; museum staff and caterers still needed access. I checked the room. Grant's place was set and nobody was there. I shut the door for a moment to check the latch, then opened it again. The fault entry was false. That exception stayed between me and the technician. Brie, tell me what your staff need. Give me a task. Sitting here is doing nothing for anybody.

Paige Turner / Mona Lott / Robin Banks / Justin Tyme

What part of the story have your sources left out?

Dada DiCapo / Barb Dwyer / Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates

What did people actually see, hear, and drink?

Your speaking box is on page 10. Turn only within this act.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

> Pull the power. That was my order. The request said take the room off the live monitor; I made sure there would be no saved copy to argue over later. My signature is on the technician's sheet. Fault is what I wrote in the log. You can ask me again, Paige. You will get the same answer: there is no footage. Brie, your staff go home when their shift ends. I am not keeping them here until somebody finds an answer they like.

IF MURDERER

> The technician removed the network lead. Power stayed connected; it saved locally. I authorized monitor privacy. I wrote fault in the main log, and that was wrong. A recording should remain on the camera. Paige, stop asking me whether I'm certain. I'm certain what I ordered. Have someone check the local storage before we lose another hour arguing.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I did not kill Grant. I ordered the power removed and lied in the log. The technician's work order carries my signature. My own department created a blind spot. I will return the badge while that is investigated. Brie, make sure your staff get home before anybody starts asking them for a convenient version of tonight. They don't owe the museum one.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I turned recording off. The signed work order removes power, not a network lead. I checked the room so I knew where Grant's glass was waiting. I had already taken poison during the preview; I used it at that private place. Then I relied on the privacy exception to conceal the visit. I told you a local recording existed because I wanted the missing footage to sound like a problem we could fix. There is no footage to find. I used a blind spot I created. My department will have to answer for trusting the person who was supposed to keep it honest.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
