Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Elle Loominate

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

Elle Loominate

Textile Artist & Designer

Elle has identified every fabric in the room, including the suspiciously shiny tuxedo. Elle turns weaving, embroidery, salvage fabric, and obsessive handwork into installations that critics call intimate and collectors call surprisingly difficult to ship.

- Has helped Dada DiCapo build several installations.
- Asks Chip Patina how to display fragile textiles without making the supports the main attraction.
- Has worked in Frank Lloyd Wrong's exhibition spaces. Frank's empty walls look like opportunities to Elle.

ACTING TIPS

Creative, grounded, quietly funny, detail-oriented. You notice what people wear and how things are made.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

> I'm Elle Loominate. I make installations with light and fabric. Please do not describe either as something your nephew could do.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your stake tonight

Compulsive buying of beautiful fabric has consumed another client's advance. Ownership of her pattern feels like ownership of herself.

During the investigation

Keep your account private until each round. Your printed answers establish what happened. You can react in your own style, but do not invent a new event, witness, or alibi.

Conversations to start

- Mingle using the relationships on your introduction page.
- Keep your private branch readings for their announced rounds.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

1 Dietrich's story belongs on a bookshelf. Tonight something else belongs between its covers.

2 No petals are needed: the vase holds a different kind of arrangement.

3 A clue watches the cars come and go from above the garage door.

STOP STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I'd spent another client's advance on this fabric. I asked for early payment. Grant offered to cover the gap if I signed over every future use of the pattern. I kept buying another length because the next color would make the whole piece right. Chip told me when to stop touching it. Nobody knew how often I had failed to stop buying it.

IF MURDERER

I'd spent another client's advance on this fabric. I told Grant when I asked for early payment. He offered to cover the hole if every future use of my pattern became his. I kept buying another length because the next color would make it right. He knew exactly how much I needed the money before he named what he wanted for it.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

> I unfastened the top panel when the alcove closed. The lamp was too close to the weave. Frank wanted it left installed. I took my panel and offered production the separate pattern slides; Dada's projection was already canceled. Frank, it took months to weave. I wanted it out of there before we had another thing we could only describe in a condition report.

IF MURDERER

> I unfastened the top panel when the alcove closed. The lamp was too close. Production kept the separate pattern slides. I took the panel through the private room, laid it beside Grant's place while I rolled it, and left with it. He wasn't there. Frank, I heard you telling me to leave it installed. Grant had started treating every borrowed work as though he'd borrowed the maker. I wasn't leaving him the work and a signed transfer of its pattern.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

> The slides enlarge stitches. Grant's physical bottle stood on the preview bench with the loans. The amendment keeps my pattern rights with me. Chip, I wish you could handle this part for me too. Hold it steady, say what needs doing, tell me when I've done enough. I have been behaving as though buying more cloth could solve every unfinished part of my life.

IF MURDERER

> Production projected the bottle between the pattern slides. The physical loan stayed in the cupboard. People remember the lit shape beside my fabric. The amendment keeps my pattern rights with me. Chip, I wish you could handle this part for me too. Hold it steady, say what needs doing. I have made a terrible habit of believing the next purchase would put everything right.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I did not kill Grant. The slides show stitches and the preview shows the real bottle. I dismantled my panel because of the lamp. The advance has been repaid; the pattern remains mine. That has not cured the way I spend. Chip, I would like somebody with me when I go through the fabric orders. I will choose what I keep. I need help choosing what I stop buying.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I killed Grant. There was no projected bottle in the textile slides. The slide contact sheet shows stitches; the preview image shows the actual glass vessel on its support. I took poison there and used his waiting glass later. I invented the projection to make a real source unreachable. Repaying the other advance did not stop Grant exposing what I had done with it. I can still own the pattern. I will never be able to touch that fabric without remembering the person I decided was the price of keeping it.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
