

Cary Crates

Senior Art Handler & Installation Specialist

The Living Collection / 2026

ACTING TIPS

Grounded, competent, laconic, surprisingly funny when you choose to speak.

Cary knows which crate holds a masterpiece and which one holds the extension cords. Cary is the person trusted to move objects worth more than the building without dropping either. He knows crates, rigging, mounts, gloves, freight elevators, and exactly which curators become unbearable during installation week. Practical and calm, he is one of the few people in the room who has physically touched most of the exhibition.

- Works daily with Chip Patina.
- Has developed mutual respect with Frank Lloyd Wrong despite arguing about impossible installation drawings.
- Al Baster likes Cary because Cary actually knows how heavy sculpture is.

COSTUME SUGGESTIONS

Optional inspiration: Clean dark workwear dressed up for a gala: black trousers, sturdy shoes, smart shirt/jacket, work gloves tucked in pocket, measuring tape prop.
