

Dada DiCapo

Your grievance with Grant

Grant appropriated the concept for one of your unreleased performances and planned to unveil a sanitized version of it as the gala's closing spectacle, crediting himself as creative patron.

Your other secret

You wrote and planted the ominous anonymous warning note about 'returning what was taken.' It was meant as an art-world provocation, not a literal threat.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself to someone you do not already know. Your role and pre-party sheet are enough.
2. Enjoy watching people overreact to your warning note without admitting you wrote it.
3. Find out whether Minnie changed the lighting cue you designed.

When a named contact is absent, discuss that issue with any guest. No task blocks the investigation.

Private background can be shared or withheld. Later hearings tell you exactly what must be said. No crime confession is printed in these four play pages.

Round 1 / Motive

When questioned, read your answer. It is the same whether you are innocent or the murderer.

READ ALOUD / YOUR ANSWER

That closing spectacle was my unreleased performance concept. Grant took it, sanitized it and planned to unveil it with himself credited as creative patron. He bought the invitation stock, not my imagination. I wanted my work and my credit back.

Your next action

Ask the next seated guest their named Motive question in the question catalog. Note one grievance that might matter. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 2 / Opportunity

When questioned, read the answer for your role. Keep the section labels to yourself.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:42, showing him the performance sketch. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the removable stage adhesive stored inside.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:42, showing him the performance sketch. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the removable stage adhesive stored inside.

After answering, ask the next seated guest their named Opportunity question in the catalog. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 3 / Method

Open your EVIDENCE envelope. Choose privately: IF INNOCENT = Card B; IF MURDERER = Card A. Submit only that letter. Keep the unused card hidden. Do not choose according to what looks safer.

When questioned, read your answer below, then your selected receipt. Leave the unused card hidden.

IF INNOCENT

I carried blue disposable paper wipes, for wiping a rehearsal prop. That was what the materials desk issued me.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for wiping a rehearsal prop. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Put the read receipt on the Evidence Table. Discuss, then vote privately. The host will distribute FINALE envelopes only after collecting all ballots.
