IF INNOCENT

The slides are close-ups of stitches. The bottle stood on the bench. I kept the pattern rights; the other advance went back. Chip, I still have the client's message on my phone. She thanked me for returning it. She thinks a payment was delayed. If Grant had told her where it went, she would have called every other person who'd trusted me with a deposit. Please stop folding the panel like that. The color on the back is the part I spent her money on.

IF MURDERER

Production projected the bottle between the pattern slides. The physical loan stayed in the cupboard. People remember the lit shape beside my fabric. The amendment keeps my pattern rights with me. Chip, I wish you could handle this part for me too. Hold it steady, say what needs doing. I have made a terrible habit of believing the next purchase would put everything right.
