

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Chip Patina

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Chip Patina

Chief Conservator

Chip considers a fingerprint on a display case a personal attack. Chip is responsible for keeping centuries-old objects safe from humidity, fingerprints, gravity, and other people. He is the bedrock of this museum and he knows it.

- Works with Claire O'Scuro on the care and display of the collection.
- Argues with Dr. Art E. Fact about what the physical evidence can actually prove.
- Advises Elle Loominate on displaying fragile textiles. Elle listens, then asks for a less ugly support.

ACTING TIPS

Dry, meticulous, slightly territorial. You care more about what is best for this institution than what is socially convenient.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Chip Patina. Please admire the art without touching it. That includes touching it to demonstrate that you are not touching it.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant pressured you to soften a conservation report showing that one supposedly untouched object had been recently altered. He threatened to replace you with a private conservator if you refused.

Your other secret

You changed the date on a minor treatment record last month to spare the museum an embarrassing insurance dispute. No object was harmed, but the falsification could end your career.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Cary Crates has noticed the altered treatment date.
- Ask Dr. Art E. Fact what he thinks the Star Bowl's modern adhesive means.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Black and white keys make music. Their underside keeps quieter company.
- 2 Take a paper journey to the city of Gaudí; your reward rests on its map.
- 3 Important information can be found in the coldest room that fits inside a kitchen.

Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I changed the date on a treatment record. There was an insurance deadline, an intact object, and a donor who thought paperwork was something conservators should eat. Grant wanted a much worse alteration: a report calling recent repairs ancient. I refused to turn a condition report into fiction. I started the panel treatment at 6:16.

IF MURDERER

I changed the date on a treatment record to spare us an insurance dispute. Grant kept that mistake in his pocket and pulled it out whenever he wanted another favor. Tonight he wanted modern alterations erased from a report. He called it restoration. I called it blackmail. I started the panel treatment at 6:10.

IF INNOCENT

Both my arms stayed in the glove ports throughout the treatment. The assistant handled the tools outside; opening the seal would have stopped the treatment. The panel was flaking under its new varnish. Grant wanted it described as untouched. I had already falsified the treatment date to meet his deadline, so my objection was arriving a little late. My assistant saw the actual surface before any new label went on it.

IF INNOCENT

The assistant released the treatment-box pressure seal at 6:30.
The linen I later carried to the Salon belonged to the tray work.
Grant wanted recent alterations called ancient. The surface evidence would not cooperate.

IF MURDERER

The assistant released the treatment-box pressure seal at 6:18.
The linen I later carried to the Salon belonged to the tray work.
Grant wanted recent alterations called ancient. The surface
evidence would not cooperate.

The last word

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I falsified a date, and I will correct it even if the insurer makes a spectacle of me. The panel treatment occupied both hands in sealed glove ports for the whole preparation-room opening. I could not remove the poison during that period. My later cloth held water. I was protecting an object and concealing a professional mistake. Grant deserved an honest report, however badly he behaved.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The treatment box was my demonstration, not my alibi. I left it with my assistant, took cyanide during the walkthrough, and hid it in treatment linen. While the glass was uncovered I approached Grant's service table as if removing a mark, then coated the inside of his glass. I knew what that solution could do. After years of stabilizing damage, I deliberately caused it.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
