

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Reed DeLabel

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Reed DeLabel

Doctoral Fellow in Art History

Reed reads every label aloud, including the exit sign. Reed is the youngest scholar attached to the exhibition and has been trying very hard to behave like this is normal.

- Dr. Art E. Fact supervises Reed's doctorate and rarely returns a clean draft.
- Gets informal guidance from Claire O'Scuro on exhibition labels and curatorial work.
- Checks dates and catalog references for Paige Turner. Reed saves any article that includes a correction.
- Anne E. Dote coaches Reed through gallery tours. She keeps crossing footnotes out of the children's handouts.

ACTING TIPS

Eager, cerebral, anxious in a useful way, unexpectedly bold when the evidence is on your side.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Reed DeLabel. I am the graduate fellow. I know where the footnotes go and, more dangerously, where they are missing.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You found an archival document that contradicted the Star Bowl label. Grant told your department your fellowship could disappear if you pushed it.

Your other secret

You have not yet told Art that your discovery also undermines one sentence in his published research.

Conversations to start

- Ask Claire O'Scuro whether she is comfortable with the Star Bowl label.
- Ask Dr. Art E. Fact how a junior researcher should challenge a donor's version of history.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Four legs and a metallic seat guard a secret from below.
- 2 Behind a cupboard's closed doors, one item has no domestic purpose.
- 3 Seek the sacred book with two testaments. Tonight its pages shelter evidence.

Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Grant threatened my fellowship after I found a document contradicting the Star Bowl label. The same document undermines a sentence in Art's research. I concealed that second problem. Being the youngest researcher does not make delivering two unpleasant truths feel like a promising career strategy.

IF MURDERER

The fellowship was my livelihood. Grant said it would disappear if I challenged the label. My discovery also embarrassed Art, and I had kept that quiet. Nobody wanted the document until it could be used against someone. I wanted it read for what it actually said.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Reed DeLabel

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I submitted the transcription at the west counter. The assistant checked the accession number inside; I waited outside the partition and rehearsed how to admit I had concealed an implication for Art's work. When the paper came back, I left. I did not return to preparation or enter its visitor room.

IF MURDERER

I submitted the transcription for a conservation reference check. I went through the east visitor door and compared its accession number with the original on the shelves inside. I had concealed one implication for Art's work to protect my fellowship. Discovering something and reporting it turn out to require different kinds of courage.

Your speaking box is on page 10. Turn only within this act.

Reed DeLabel

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

WEST RETURN is on the reference slip beside the assistant's initials. The checked original came back across the counter. It contradicts the exhibition label and one sentence in Art's work. Withdrawing my fellowship would leave both sentences wrong.

IF MURDERER

The reference slip reads EAST VISITOR. I handled the comparison inside. The original contradicts the exhibition label and one sentence in Art's work. Neither problem disappears by withdrawing my fellowship. One problem may become more expensive to discuss.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed the correction that would embarrass Art, because I feared for my fellowship. The complete transcription will now go to both of them. My entire preparation visit stayed at the west return counter, outside the source barrier. My dishonesty concerned a sentence. It did not give me access to the bottle.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I left the archive before the walkthrough, removed cyanide from the preparation room, and carried it in my handling cloth. While the glass was uncovered the transcription gave me a reason to approach Grant's glass. I coated the inside while he read the threat back to me. I preserved the disputed document and killed the man threatening my fellowship.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
