

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Al Baster

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Al Baster

Sculptor & Public-Art Star

Al considers a pedestal a sculpture that has given up on itself. Al makes monumental sculpture in stone, steel, and whatever else can require a crane.

- Frank Lloyd Wrong designed the entrance around Al's sculpture. They still disagree about which one visitors came to see.
- Competes with Vincent Van Faux for commissions. Al keeps calculating how many paintings weigh as much as one sculpture.
- Dada DiCapo once performed inside one of Al's sculptures. Al found out from the photographs.

ACTING TIPS

Big presence, playful arrogance, generous when admired, combative when minimized.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Al Baster. I made the entrance sculpture. I would appreciate your admiration in a tone that suggests prompt payment.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant planned to replace your commissioned entrance sculpture with a cheaper replica after the opening and dispute your final payment.

Your other secret

You built one internal support differently from the approved plan because the fabricator missed a deadline.

Conversations to start

- Ask Frank Lloyd Wrong whether the entrance display still includes your original sculpture.
- Ask Vincent Van Faux how he handles patrons who try to replace an artist's work.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don't share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

- 1 Find the frame that always contains a portrait of you; check its top.
- 2 A wall-hung painting has a backstage area. That is where to investigate.
- 3 A blue cushion has been acting as a very quiet accomplice. Check its reverse.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I changed an internal support after the fabricator missed the deadline. Grant intended to replace my original with a cheap replica and dispute the final payment. A sculpture's support is supposed to remain invisible. Apparently he wanted the sculptor's labor to follow the same principle. The mold began separating at 6:36.

IF MURDERER

The support differs from the approved drawing. Grant discovered it and used that fact to justify replacing my sculpture with a replica. He would keep the opening-night photograph and refuse the balance. I was commissioned to make art, then invited to finance his imitation of it. The mold began separating at 6:29.

IF INNOCENT

Both my hands held the mold until that last clamp. The earlier clamps couldn't hold both halves; letting go would have separated them. The assistant was helping close the mold around a concealed support. My drawing showed the approved design, not what I had built. Grant wanted that discrepancy used to replace the whole sculpture. I wanted to correct the drawing. Neither of us was especially interested in the other's proposal.

IF INNOCENT

The assistant tightened the final clamp at 6:46. The concealed support differs from the plan. It deserves an accurate drawing, not a patron's excuse to replace the entire sculpture.

IF MURDERER

The assistant tightened the final clamp at 6:38. The concealed support differs from the plan. It deserves an accurate drawing, not a patron's excuse to replace the entire sculpture.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I changed the support and owe the museum the accurate drawing. I remained holding the plaster mold with both hands throughout the uncovered-glass period while the assistant clamped it. I couldn't leave for Grant's glass. The replica dispute made me furious. Fury does not explain away unsafe fabrication, and I will fix the part I actually made.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I took cyanide during the walkthrough and concealed it in the polishing rag. I finished the mold before service, then carried the drawing to Grant while the glass was uncovered and coated his glass. The staff poured into the glass I had prepared. He threatened to replace my work. I murdered him instead of making him pay for it.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
