

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

The Meridian Museum

INTRODUCTIONS

Sue Venir

Cultural Property Attorney

Sue corrects the fine print on dinner menus. Sue is the lawyer museums call when an object has three owners, four countries, six contradictory export documents, and one increasingly angry newspaper.

- Works with Artie Ficial and Monet Bags on museum contracts.
- Has argued opposite sides of restitution cases with Mona Lott. They're ruthless opponents but still besties.
- Dr. Art E. Fact supplies expert opinions for Sue's cases. Sue usually asks for a shorter version.

ACTING TIPS

A lawyer with sass: precise, formidable, patient, amused by sloppy certainty. Ask pointed questions and answer only the question actually asked.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Sue Venir. Lovely to meet you. Nothing I say over dinner constitutes legal advice, although I will be keeping notes.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You wrote a private legal memorandum concluding that the Star Bowl's acquisition was too risky to defend confidently. Grant forced you to replace it with a softer opinion and planned to cite your name during the announcement.

Your other secret

Both versions of the memo still exist. You kept the original instead of destroying it, which could expose you to professional embarrassment and Grant to serious scrutiny.

Conversations to start

- Learn whether Mona Lott has obtained a copy of your original memo.
- Keep Dr. Art E. Fact from publicly speculating about your legal advice.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

Sue Venir

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Open the cupboard where ordinary things have been given a private gallery.
- 2 Look above the large door that admits the household vehicles.
- 3 Find a chair that a magnet might fancy. Look beneath its seat.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

My objection is already in writing. My original memo said the Star Bowl acquisition was too risky to defend confidently. Grant forced me to replace it with a softer opinion and intended to cite my name tonight. He wanted my signature to do the work his paperwork could not.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Sue Venir

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Earlier, about 6:32 by my watch, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to attach ownership wording to the inside of the sliding front glass. At the toast I was in the East Gallery, outside the alcove. My correspondence was quite enough trouble. My objection is already in writing.

IF MURDERER

I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to attach the ownership wording to the inside of the sliding front pane. That was about 6:46; I checked my watch. I was checking the exact words. Adjectives do not cure a disputed title. Grant's salon was where I took the disputed agreement.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

Both legal opinions still exist. I kept the original, which says the acquisition is too risky to defend confidently. Grant wanted the softened version read as though it were my only conclusion. Please quote me accurately.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I kept the original legal opinion instead of destroying it. My claim to attach ownership wording to the inside of the sliding front glass was invented. I borrowed that detail from the abandoned cabinet proposal to conceal my preparations. At the toast I really was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, as I told you. That false errand covered my other misconduct; I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

My objection is already in writing. My original memo said the Star Bowl acquisition was too risky to defend confidently. Grant forced me to replace it with a softer opinion and intended to cite my name tonight. He wanted my signature to do the work his paperwork could not. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
