INTRODUCTIONS

Paige Turner

Investigative Arts Journalist

Paige asks innocent questions with a recorder visibly running. Her journalistic integrity is unmatched. Paige covers the art world for the Times of Tulsa the way other reporters cover city hall: money, power, access, and who benefits when everyone agrees to keep silent.

- Keeps asking Barb Dwyer for access to museum records. Barb keeps asking what the story is about.
- Sue Venir has threatened to quote Paige's own articles back to her in court.
- Calls Reed DeLabel to check dates and catalogue references. Reed is delighted when a correction makes it into print.

ACTING TIPS

Curious, direct, quick, socially fearless. Ask questions people wish you would save for email.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Paige Turner. I am covering the gala. I just want to say in advance that absolutely nothing is off the record tonight.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You were preparing a major investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He discovered enough to threaten an injunction and promised to reveal the identity of one of your confidential museum sources if you published.

Your other secret

You obtained internal documents through a source inside the Meridian. Protecting that source matters more to you than tonight's scoop.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Grant found the full provenance spreadsheet or only excerpts.
- Keep your source's identity protected.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 A green lamp cannot testify, but something near it can.
- 2 The house has its own cinema. Inspect the side the audience never sees.
- 3 A decorative vessel has traded its bouquet for evidence.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

This is the part the press release left out. I was preparing an investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He threatened an injunction and exposure of a confidential museum source if I published. My reputation mattered, but protecting that source mattered more. He knew precisely where to apply pressure.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Paige Turner

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:46 by the service-desk clock. I went there to copy the caption on the small side rail beside the bowl. My press copy did not quite agree with the display. Keeping my source safe mattered more than satisfying Grant's curiosity. I tried to question him in his salon before returning to the press notes.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:46 by the service-desk clock. I went there to copy the small dedication card through the cabinet's front glass. My press copy did not quite agree with the display. I tried to question him in his salon before returning to the press notes.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

A museum source gave me internal documents. Grant threatened to expose that source if I published. I will not identify them simply because someone puts a dramatic question to me over dinner. My confidential arrangement concerns documents and somebody's livelihood. It was not an arrangement to interfere with Grant's drink.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I protected the museum source who gave me internal documents. I changed the time of my inspection to cover that secret. The real job was to copy the caption on the small side rail beside the bowl. I did it before the curtain closed, not at the late time I gave you. The work was real; my timetable was dishonest. I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

This is the part the press release left out. I was preparing an investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He threatened an injunction and exposure of a confidential museum source if I published. My reputation mattered, but protecting that source mattered more. He knew precisely where to apply pressure. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
