

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Elle Loominate

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elle Loominate

Textile Artist & Designer

Elle has identified every fabric in the room, including the suspiciously shiny tuxedo. Elle turns weaving, embroidery, salvage fabric, and obsessive handwork into installations that critics call intimate and collectors call surprisingly difficult to ship.

- Has helped Dada DiCapo build several installations.
- Asks Chip Patina how to display fragile textiles without making the supports the main attraction.
- Has worked in Frank Lloyd Wrong's exhibition spaces. Frank's empty walls look like opportunities to Elle.

ACTING TIPS

Creative, grounded, quietly funny, detail-oriented. You notice what people wear and how things are made.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Elle Loominate. I make installations with light and fabric. Please do not describe either as something your nephew could do.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to purchase a family-owned ceremonial textile you had borrowed for your installation, despite your refusal to sell.

Your other secret

The textile is in the exhibition without the full paperwork your family expected because you were afraid the loan would be denied.

Conversations to start

- Ask Chip Patina how you can protect the ceremonial textile without selling it.
- Ask Dada DiCapo whether the gala has become more about donors than artists.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Dietrich's story belongs on a bookshelf. Tonight something else belongs between its covers.
- 2 No petals are needed: the vase holds a different kind of arrangement.
- 3 A clue watches the cars come and go from above the garage door.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

The family did not consent. The ceremonial textile belongs to a family who lent it for my installation. It is not mine to sell. Grant intended to purchase it despite my refusal. He treated a loan as a price negotiation and expected me to make the family accept it.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

IF INNOCENT

Earlier, about 6:32 by my watch, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to test the internal lamp behind the bowl. At the toast I was in the East Gallery, outside the alcove, trying to keep my fabric invoice in view. The family did not consent.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:44 by the service-desk clock. I went there to turn the cabinet's internal lamp slightly away from the textile. Light should reveal an installation rather than turn it into an upholstered eclipse. I went to the salon doorway with the disputed fabric invoice.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

My family's textile is in the installation without all the paperwork they expected. I feared the loan would be refused, so I pressed ahead. Grant tried to turn the loan into a purchase. Fabric is not ownership, and a donor's cheque is not consent. I was trying to protect something that was never mine to sell.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I exhibited my family's textile without the full agreed paperwork. My claim to test the internal lamp behind the bowl was invented. I borrowed that detail from the abandoned cabinet proposal to conceal my preparations. At the toast I really was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, as I told you. That false errand covered my other misconduct; I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The family did not consent. The ceremonial textile belongs to a family who lent it for my installation. It is not mine to sell. Grant intended to purchase it despite my refusal. He treated a loan as a price negotiation and expected me to make the family accept it. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
