INTRODUCTIONS

Robin Banks

Cultural Restitution Activist & Nonprofit Organizer

Robin has brought a petition, spare pens and absolutely no interest in donor etiquette. Robin campaigns for museums and collectors to return contested cultural objects, publish complete provenance, and stop treating possession as the end of the conversation.

- Frequently debates Dr. Art E. Fact and Mona Lott on strategy.
- Barb Dwyer has removed Robin from a museum event before; both remember it.
- Anne E. Dote quietly agrees with more of Robin's critique than museum leadership suspects.

ACTING TIPS

Focused, bold, principled, socially savvy. Challenge people without turning every conversation into a speech.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Robin Banks. I campaign for restitution. A disputed object does not become less disputed when somebody puts flowers beside it.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had you removed from a previous museum event and threatened legal action if you disrupted tonight's unveiling.

Your other secret

You planted small 'PROVENANCE IS A VERB' stickers in several gallery brochures for a peaceful protest.

Conversations to start

- Ask Mona Lott what the museum owes people represented in its collection.
- Ask Barb Dwyer what protest would get you removed from tonight's event.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Where red drapes close the scene, evidence waits out of sight.
- 2 A secret has been put on ice, quite literally.
- 3 A trophy is more than decoration tonight. Check below its foot.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

A protest does not require his permission. Grant had me removed from a previous museum event. He threatened legal action if I disrupted this unveiling. My protest concerns restitution, not his comfort. He wanted silence tonight, and I was not ready to promise him that.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Robin Banks

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

At 6:43 by my phone I was outside the display alcove, in the East Gallery, slipping protest stickers into brochures. Peaceful protest, to be precise. Grant's solicitor would prefer a much more theatrical description.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:45 by the service-desk clock. I went there to read the ownership card on the velvet shelf inside the cabinet. I intended to quote its words rather than improve them by accident. I approached his salon about the ownership records.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

I put “PROVENANCE IS A VERB” stickers into the gallery brochures. It was a peaceful protest and entirely intentional. I handled linen and supplies while preparing it. Grant threatened legal action if I disrupted his unveiling. I intended a room full of awkward questions. If that sounds organized, good: a protest should have a plan.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I planted peaceful protest stickers in the brochures. My account of the evening was true. My late task was outside the sealed display alcove. Any inspection I made inside it was earlier, before the emergency closure. My concealed business explains the suspicion around me. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

A protest does not require his permission. Grant had me removed from a previous museum event. He threatened legal action if I disrupted this unveiling. My protest concerns restitution, not his comfort. He wanted silence tonight, and I was not ready to promise him that. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
