Dinner Party 2026

The Meridian Museum

INTRODUCTIONS

Minnie Malist

Gala Event Designer & Creative Producer

Minnie considers restrained lighting a cry for help. Minnie creates the visual spectacle around events like tonight: flowers, lighting, table styling, entrances, reveals, and the precise moment everyone is supposed to gasp.

- Works constantly with Frank Lloyd Wrong, who removes half of Minnie's ideas.
- Brie DeVivre is Minnie's favorite partner in event logistics.
- Monet Bags is the person who asks what Minnie's ideas cost.

ACTING TIPS

Energetic, aesthetic, affectionate, slightly chaotic but highly competent. You notice atmosphere first.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Minnie Malist. I produce the events. A successful gala is one in which nobody notices how close it came to collapsing.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to add a gaudy lighting cue to the unveiling and threatened to withhold payment when Frank objected.

Your other secret

You secretly changed the cue again after approval, causing the eerie light flickers guests noticed during Act I.

Conversations to start

- Ask Frank Lloyd Wrong which lighting cue he objected to.
- Ask Monet Bags whether the gala budget includes Grant's last-minute changes.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The clue is inside the book whose final chapter is Revelation.
- 2 The hard metal seat has an understudy: a clue waiting underneath.
- 3 A picture may be worth a thousand words. There are more words behind this one.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

One more donor instruction. Of course. Grant ordered a gaudy lighting cue for the unveiling. Frank objected, and Grant threatened to withhold my payment. I was caught between the person designing the display and the person holding the money. Neither planned to share the blame.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Minnie Malist

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

At 6:45 by the show-control desk clock I was at the outer console in the East Gallery. I had checked the dedication inside the alcove at 6:33. I was adjusting the lights, which is very different from being inside the object display. I discussed his lighting demands at the salon doorway.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:44 by the service-desk clock. I went there to adjust the tiny internal lamp above the dedication card. If a donor's name looks crooked, somebody inevitably invoices the producer. I discussed his lighting demands at the salon doorway.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

I changed the lighting cue after approval. Grant demanded a gaudy display; Frank objected; I was caught in the middle. My later edit caused the flicker. The emergency security curtain had its own controller, separate from my lighting console. I can own a bad lighting decision without claiming that every machine in the museum belongs to me.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I changed the lighting cue after approval and caused the flicker. My account of the evening was true. My late task was outside the sealed display alcove. Any inspection I made inside it was earlier, before the emergency closure. My concealed business explains the suspicion around me. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

One more donor instruction. Of course. Grant ordered a gaudy lighting cue for the unveiling. Frank objected, and Grant threatened to withhold my payment. I was caught between the person designing the display and the person holding the money. Neither planned to share the blame. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
