

Celeste Frame

Chief Curator of World Cultures / Age 35

Celeste is the intellectual engine behind Treasures of the World: brilliant, exacting, and visibly pained by sloppy labels, bad lighting, and people who call every old object an 'artifact.' She has spent years building the Meridian's scholarly reputation and knows the exhibition better than anyone alive. She is gracious when she chooses to be and devastating when she edits.

- Professional counterpart to Adrian Vellum; they respect each other and routinely disagree.
- Mentors Sebastian Reed, the museum's graduate fellow.
- Frequently consults Rafael Gilt and Dr. Marcus Pryce on difficult objects.

ACTING TIPS

Controlled, observant, skeptical, quietly competitive. You do not need to be loud; a raised eyebrow can do half the work.

COSTUME SUGGESTIONS

Optional inspiration: Elegant gallery-black with one distinctive art-history touch: sculptural jewelry, silk scarf, statement earrings, or beautifully severe glasses. You might carry a pencil and small notebook.
