

Maya Bell

Director of Education & Docent Programs / Age 29

Maya is responsible for making the museum intelligible to people who did not spend twelve years specializing in one dynasty. Warm, quick, and occasionally subversive, she can turn an academic argument into a great tour question and a donor speech into something children will actually remember.

- Close to Beatrice Plinth, who champions the education program.
- Often rescues Sebastian Reed from awkward public-facing moments.
- Works with Celeste Frame to translate scholarship into gallery interpretation.

ACTING TIPS

Engaging, practical, empathetic, irreverent about institutional pomp.

COSTUME SUGGESTIONS

Optional inspiration: Colorful cocktail attire or polished museum-professional look, comfortable shoes, fun brooch or earrings, optional stack of tour cards.
