

MURDER MYSTERY DINNER PARTY 2026

Belle Tament

Junior Curator

of Very Important Things

A gala activity book for Bennet

Draw. Explore. Make something wonderful.

THE MERIDIAN MUSEUM / OCTOBER 30, 2026

Meet Belle

Ask Mom to read your story with you.

Belle collects shiny rocks, tiny drawings, and objects adults mistakenly call "just packaging." She thinks the museum needs more animals, more glitter, and a painting displayed low enough for her to see.

Tess Tament

Belle sometimes chooses Tess's jewelry. She judges each piece by how much it sparkles.

Hugh Bidder

Belle knows her mother likes Hugh. When he admired her drawing, she offered to sell it for one million dollars and a cookie. She is still waiting for the cookie.

Chip Patina

Chip taught Belle how to look closely without touching. She asked him to repair her teddy bear because he "fixes old things."

Your introduction

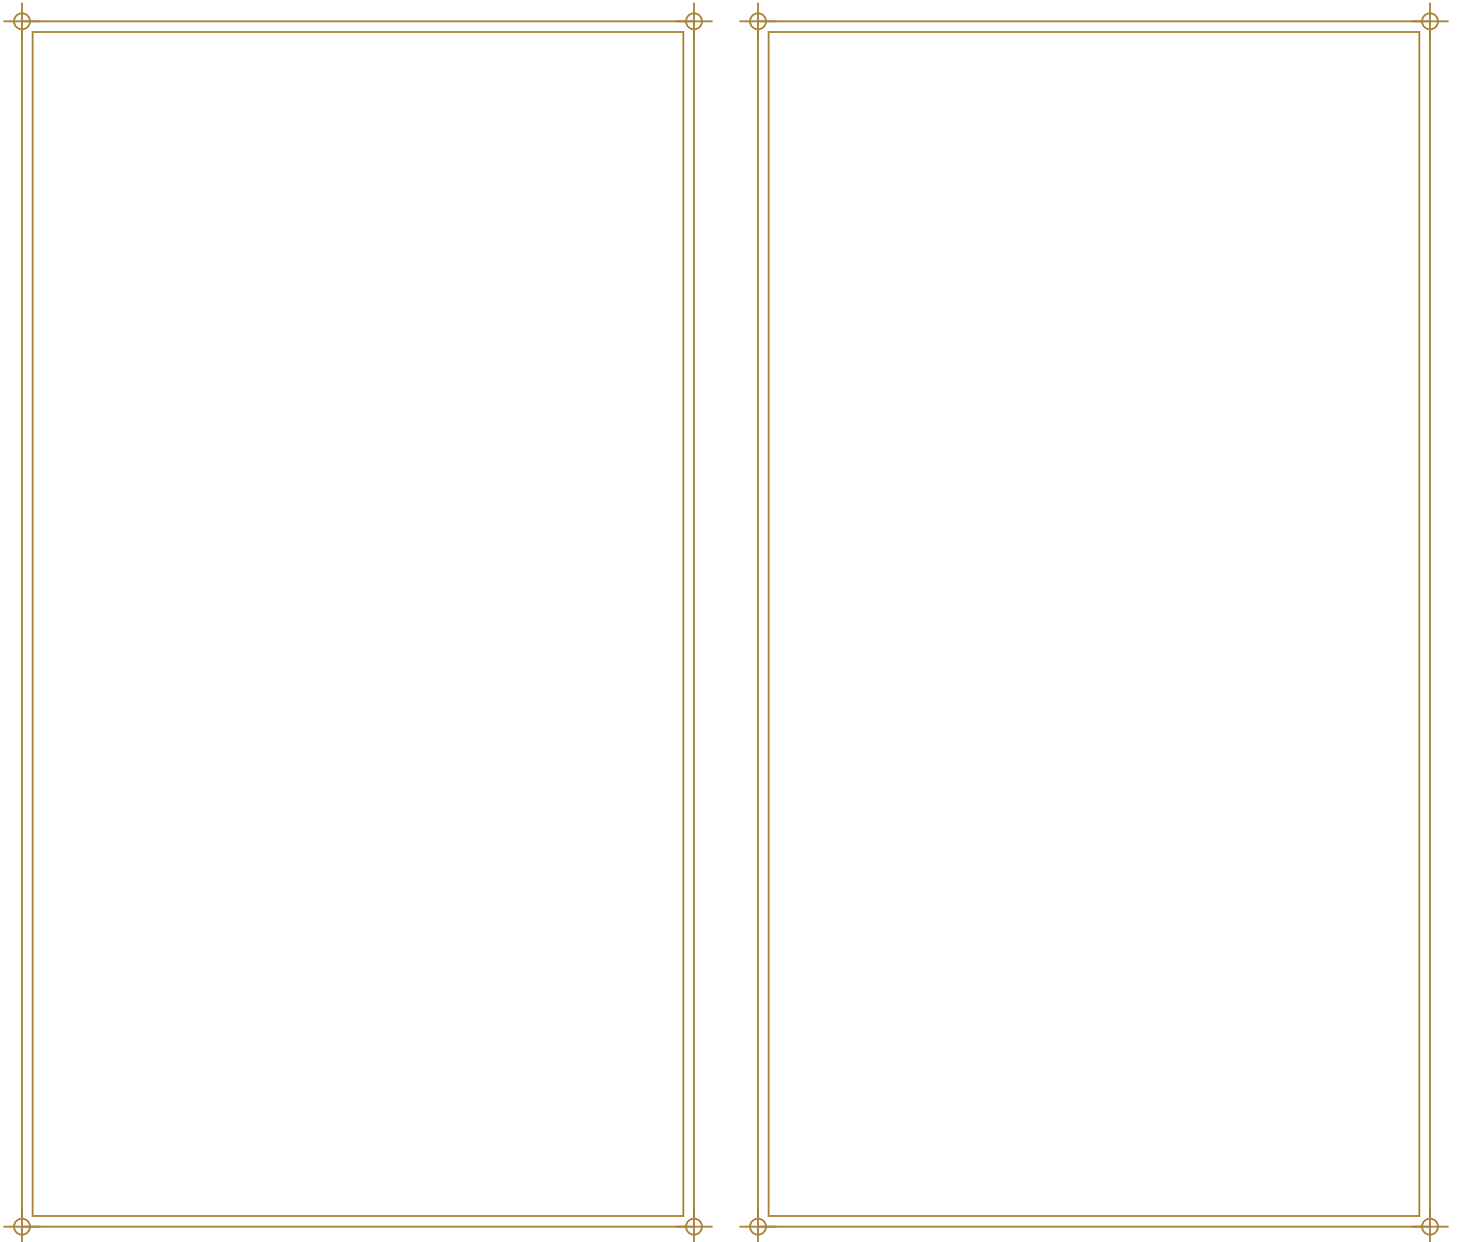

I'm Belle Tament. I'm a junior curator. I decide which things belong in a museum. Your shoes might qualify.

Your gala portraits

Draw your choices. Ask Mom to write a name if you like.

Who do you think did it?

The best actor

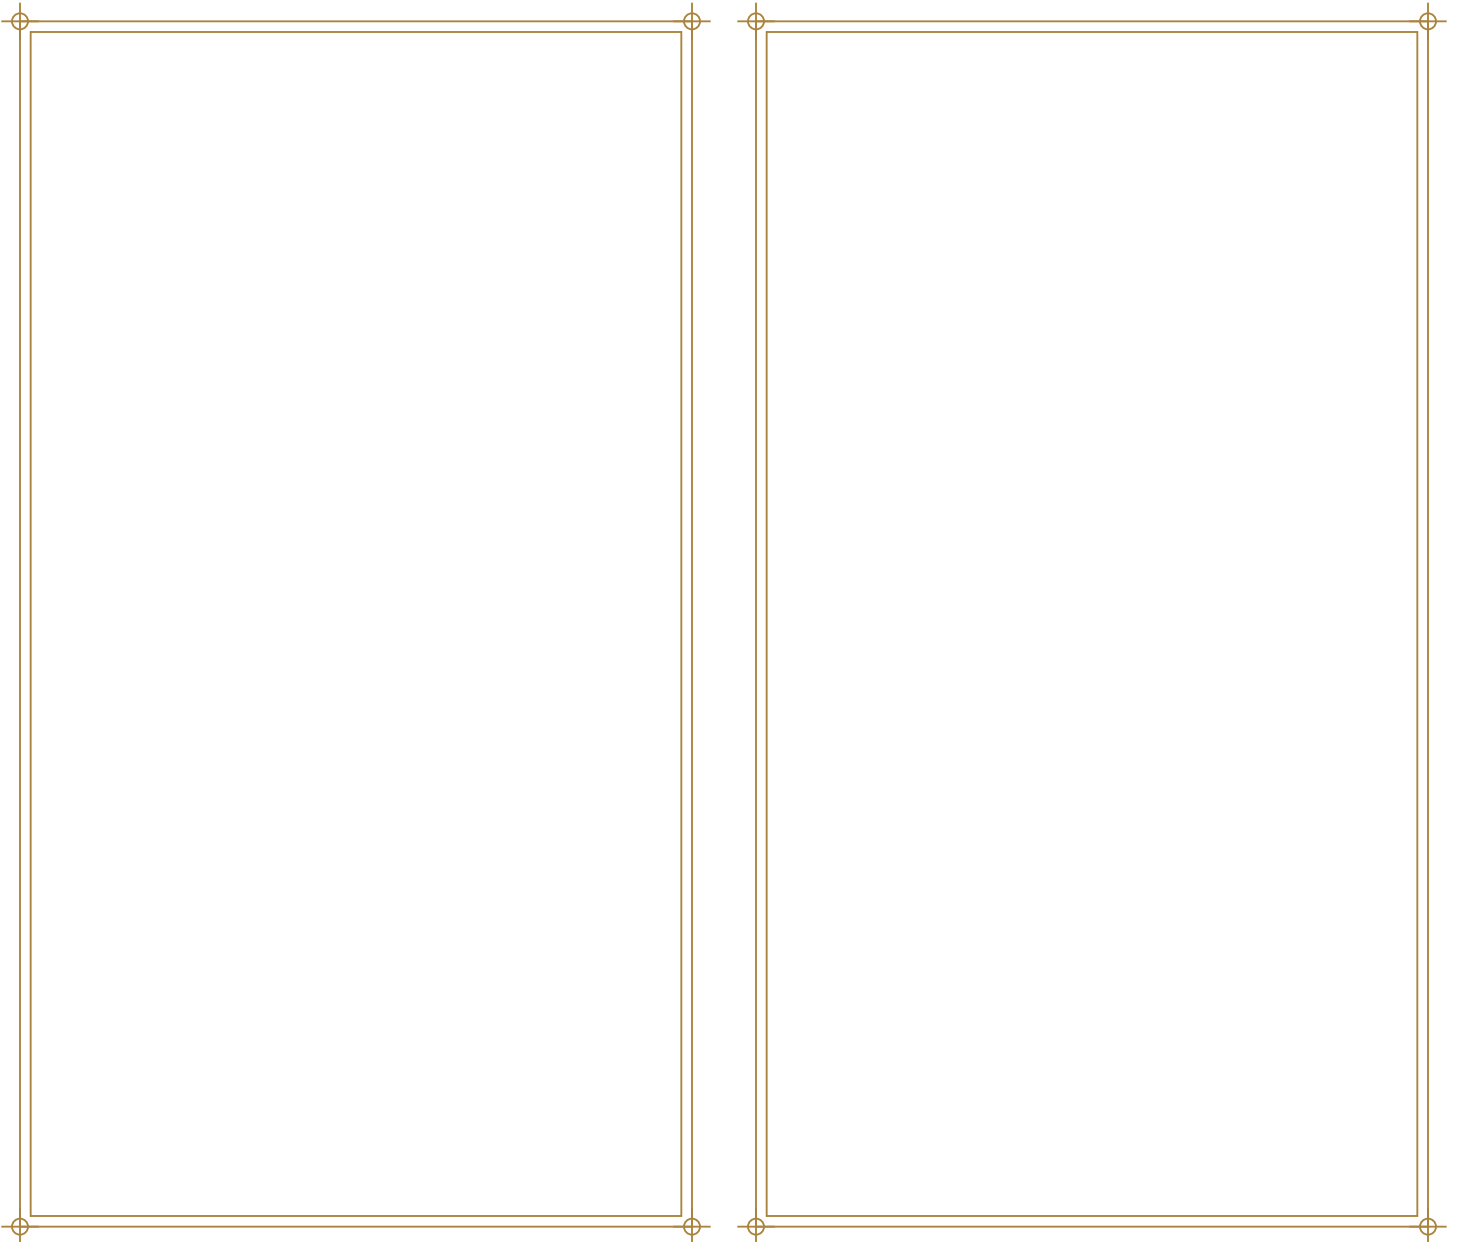

Two large, empty rectangular boxes with double-line borders and small circles at the corners, intended for drawing portraits. The left box is for 'Who do you think did it?' and the right box is for 'The best actor'.

More gala portraits

Draw your choices. Ask Mom to write a name if you like.

The best costume

Your favorite thing
tonight

Two large, empty rectangular boxes with double-line borders and small circles at the corners, intended for drawing portraits. The left box is for 'The best costume' and the right box is for 'Your favorite thing tonight'.

Your very own museum

Draw three treasures you would put on display.

Treasure 1

Treasure 2

Treasure 3

Look closely!

Find five big changes: look at the pictures, teddy, and toy.

Find four little words

Words go across or down. Circle each word you find.
