INTRODUCTIONS

Justin Tyme

Tulsa Arts Columnist & Local Historian

Justin remembers the previous scandal and has brought the clipping. Justin knows which gallery used to be a bank, which donor funded which wing, and which local art feud is still alive despite everyone involved pretending otherwise.

- Has profiled Artie Ficial and Anya Tique.
- Friendly with Anne E. Dote and Faye Stop.
- Paige Turner considers Justin useful when she needs Tulsa context and dangerous when he starts telling stories.

ACTING TIPS

Friendly, curious, locally knowledgeable, a little nosy. You connect people and remember old stories.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Justin Tyme. I write about Tulsa's art scene. I meet every deadline eventually, usually just in time.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant fed you several flattering claims for an earlier profile that you later discovered were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if you corrected them.

Your other secret

You are preparing a correction that will also make you look embarrassingly credulous.

Conversations to start

- Ask Paige Turner how she corrects a flattering story when its subject objects.
- Ask Artie Ficial how much influence Grant expects over the museum's public image.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Justin Tyme

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Above the garage door, a document waits for a safe pair of hands.
- 2 A biography about costly courage conceals a small piece of tonight's puzzle.
- 3 Look inside a cupboard: the evidence has chosen a room with its own door.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

ACT I: MOTIVE

Justin Tyme

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

A source does not get to write his own correction. Grant supplied flattering claims for my earlier profile that I later found were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if I corrected them. I would either lose an important source or leave my name on reporting I no longer trusted.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Justin Tyme

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

At 6:32 by my watch I copied the date inside the alcove. I was outside in the East Gallery by quarter to seven, drafting a correction. I wanted it finished before Grant could turn my deadline into his bargaining chip.

IF MURDERER

I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to copy the date through the glass and check it under the internal lamp. That was about 6:43; I checked my watch. I would prefer not to make publishing corrections a hobby. I took Grant the local-history clipping at the salon doorway.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT III: METHOD

Justin Tyme

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

I am correcting the flattering claims Grant supplied for my earlier profile. Publishing the correction will make me look credulous. I used museum supplies while assembling my notes. Grant threatened to end my access if I went ahead. I was working toward a deadline and an embarrassing byline. The correction is still necessary, however spectacularly the evening has gone off schedule.

COMING CLEAN

Justin Tyme

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I prepared a correction to the flattering profile Grant fed me. My account of the evening was true. My late task was outside the sealed display alcove. Any inspection I made inside it was earlier, before the emergency closure. My concealed business explains the suspicion around me. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

A source does not get to write his own correction. Grant supplied flattering claims for my earlier profile that I later found were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if I corrected them. I would either lose an important source or leave my name on reporting I no longer trusted. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
