INTRODUCTIONS

Dr. Art E. Fact

Professor of Art History & Provenance Scholar

Art has never met a footnote he could not lengthen. Art has built a career tracing the lives of objects through wars, estates, auctions, private collections, and suspicious gaps in paperwork.

- Supervises Reed DeLabel's doctoral research.
- Debates restitution policy regularly with Mona Lott and Robin Banks.
- Chip Patina is one of the few people Art trusts to tell him when physical evidence contradicts his theory.

ACTING TIPS

Intense, professorial, curious, occasionally pedantic, sincerely excited by evidence.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Dr. Art E. Fact. I brought decades of scholarship and a footnote for almost every possible dinner conversation.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Dr. Art E. Fact

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant suppressed your research showing that two objects in his collection passed through a dealer linked to questionable wartime sales. He threatened to release correspondence suggesting you had overstated another provenance claim if you challenged him publicly.

Your other secret

One celebrated article of yours does contain an inference you stated too confidently. The main thesis still stands, but the mistake would be humiliating.

Conversations to start

- Ask Reed DeLabel what he has discovered in the accession records.
- Determine whether Claire O'Scuro commissioned outside provenance research.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Dr. Art E. Fact

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Look behind a painting rather than into its scenery.
- 2 The household's Bible has received a very unofficial insert.
- 3 Your reflection cannot look up far enough to see what rests on the mirror.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

The historical record deserves better. My research linked two collection objects to a dealer involved in questionable wartime sales. Grant suppressed it. He also threatened to release correspondence suggesting I had overstated a different claim. He wanted silence, and he had chosen a very effective threat.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Dr. Art E. Fact

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Earlier, about 6:33 by my watch, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to slide open the front glass and copy the bowl's inscription. The toast found me outside the alcove in the East Gallery; my disputed archive purchase was on my mind. The historical record deserves better.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:43 by the service-desk clock. I went there to open the glass front and copy the inscription from beneath the bowl. The footnote I needed was not going to find itself. I had brought Grant an archive citation at his salon doorway.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

Your answer

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

One sentence in my published research goes beyond what the evidence strictly supports. I should have qualified it. Grant knew, and the archival material Reed found made the weakness harder to ignore. The embarrassing inference is mine; so is the duty to correct it. I wish scholarship came with less public humiliation.

COMING CLEAN

Dr. Art E. Fact

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I overstated an inference in my published research. My claim to slide open the front glass and copy the bowl's inscription was invented. I borrowed that detail from the abandoned cabinet proposal to conceal my preparations. At the toast I really was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, as I told you. That false errand covered my other misconduct; I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The historical record deserves better. My research linked two collection objects to a dealer involved in questionable wartime sales. Grant suppressed it. He also threatened to release correspondence suggesting I had overstated a different claim. He wanted silence, and he had chosen a very effective threat. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
