

Chip Patina

Chief Conservator

The Living Collection / 2026

ACTING TIPS

Dry, meticulous, tactile, slightly territorial. You care more about what is physically true than what is socially convenient.

Chip considers a fingerprint on a display case a personal attack. Chip is responsible for keeping centuries-old objects from losing arguments with humidity, fingerprints, gravity, and other people. Patient with objects and less patient with humans, he has the calm authority of someone who has seen a priceless painting survive a flood and a donor nearly destroy one with hand lotion. He knows what was repaired, altered, cleaned, and quietly worried over before tonight.

- Works closely with Claire O'Scuro and Cary Crates.
- Often spars intellectually with Art E. Fact over what conservation can and cannot prove.
- Anya Tique trusts Chip's judgment more than most committees.
