

Artie Ficial

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had privately informed you that tonight's gift would come with a new governance agreement: he wanted veto power over acquisitions, his name on the museum, and your resignation within sixty days. You smiled through the meeting and told no one.

Your other secret

You have already accepted a confidential offer to lead a rival museum next year, which makes any argument with Grant look like succession planning.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Find out whether Monet has seen the governance addendum.
3. Quietly learn whether Claire would stay if you left.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

Questions to ask

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

Grant wanted more control over the museum or its money. What did his plan threaten to take from you?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Grant wanted the exhibition approved on his terms. What did he pressure you to sign, change or overlook?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Grant was using a sale or purchase to get his way. What did he demand, and what would it cost you?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Grant treated the gala as his personal publicity campaign. How did he threaten your work or reputation?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

Grant disliked facts that made him look bad. What research, writing or correction did he want stopped?

ASK: Barb Dwyer / Paige Turner / Faye Stop

Grant wanted control over what people could see or find out. What did he ask you to suppress?

ASK: Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster / Minnie Malist

Grant wanted the display changed. What happened when you disagreed, and what was he threatening?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

Grant acted as if possession settled ownership. What did he demand about the disputed objects?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Grant was questioning your collection or its paperwork. What was he holding over you?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Grant gave orders and expected someone else to take the blame. What did that mean for your work?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

READ ALOUD / INNOCENT OR MURDERER

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I accepted an offer from a rival museum. I was protecting my next job, not plotting a murder. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant wanted veto power over acquisitions, his name on the museum and my resignation within sixty days. He called that a gift. I called it a takeover. I had not agreed to surrender my museum or my job. During setup I borrowed the cabinet key and took the toxin sample. At 6:47, I used the excuse of correcting Grant's speech cards to enter the salon. I dampened my gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's coupe and its rim. That transferred the poison. I left with the cloth. The door entry, key loan and linen receipt were all real. What I left out was what I did between them.

Claire O'Scuro

Your grievance with Grant

You discovered that Grant knew the Star Bowl's provenance file contained a major gap and ordered the exhibition to proceed anyway. He threatened to remove you from the show if you raised the issue publicly.

Your other secret

Against board instructions, you commissioned an independent provenance review and hid the preliminary report in the Registrar's Office.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I moved money between accounts without authorization. I meant to reverse it after the gala. That was a financial mistake I must answer for. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant wanted gala and naming-wing expenses hidden in restricted museum funds until his donation cleared. I refused. He threatened to blame my bookkeeping. Apparently his generous gift came with instructions for where to bury the bill. During setup I borrowed the cabinet key and took the toxin sample. At 6:45, I used the excuse of getting his approval on an expense sheet to enter the salon. I dampened my gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's coupe and its rim. That transferred the poison. I left with the cloth. The door entry, key loan and linen receipt were all real. What I left out was what I did between them.

Chip Patina

Your grievance with Grant

Grant pressured you to soften a conservation report showing that one supposedly untouched object had been recently altered. He threatened to replace you with a private conservator if you refused.

Your other secret

You changed the date on a minor treatment record last month to spare the museum an embarrassing insurance dispute. No object was harmed, but the falsification could end your career.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Find out whether Cary has noticed the altered treatment date.
3. Ask Art what he thinks the Star Bowl's modern adhesive means.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I changed the date on a treatment record to avoid an insurance dispute. The object was unharmed, but the record was dishonest. The key book confirms I never borrowed the cabinet key. Grant appropriated the concept for one of your unreleased performances and planned to unveil a sanitized version of it as the gala's closing spectacle, crediting himself as creative patron.

Grant owned an embarrassing student painting you have spent years trying to buy back. He planned to display it tonight beside your celebrated recent work as a joke about 'humble beginnings.'

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

Grant acted as if possession settled ownership. What did he demand about the disputed objects?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Grant was questioning your collection or its paperwork. What was he holding over you?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Grant gave orders and expected someone else to take the blame. What did that mean for your work?

Your answer

READ ALOUD / INNOCENT OR MURDERER

Grant owned a student painting I have spent years trying to buy back. Tonight he wanted it beside my celebrated work as a joke about humble beginnings. I did not consent to being the punchline of my own exhibition.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I used buyers to recover my own early paintings. I wanted those student works out of circulation. Vanity is an excellent motive for secrecy. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant owned a student painting I have spent years trying to buy back. Tonight he wanted it beside my celebrated work as a joke about humble beginnings. I did not consent to being the punchline of my own exhibition. During setup I borrowed the cabinet key and took the toxin sample. At 6:44, I used the excuse of asking him to withdraw the student painting to enter the salon. I dampened my gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's coupe and its rim. That transferred the poison. I left with the cloth. The door entry, key loan and linen receipt were all real. What I left out was what I did between them.

Sue Venir

Your grievance with Grant

You wrote a private legal memorandum concluding that the Star Bowl's acquisition was too risky to defend confidently. Grant forced you to replace it with a softer opinion and planned to cite your name during the announcement.

Your other secret

Both versions of the memo still exist. You kept the original instead of destroying it, which could expose you to professional embarrassment and Grant to serious scrutiny.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Learn whether Mona has obtained a copy of your original memo.
3. Keep Art from publicly speculating about your legal advice.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I kept both versions of my legal memo. The softer version embarrassed me; destroying the original would have been worse. The key book confirms I never borrowed the cabinet key. IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

One inference in my famous article was too confident. I will correct it. I was defending my reputation, not poisoning a donor. The materials desk issued me blue paper wipes, not gold-seamed linen. ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

You had business with Grant before the unveiling. When did you enter the Donor Salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Your exhibition work took you near the salon and conservation area. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the cabinet key?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

You had gala preparations to handle. When did you enter the Donor Salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

You were preparing for the gala presentation. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

You were working around the exhibition. When did you enter the Donor Salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

Questions to ask

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Barb Dwyer / Paige Turner / Faye Stop

You were dealing with private donor arrangements. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster / Minnie Malist

You were helping prepare the display. When did you enter the Donor Salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

You had something to settle before the unveiling. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

You were busy with your own gala errand. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

You were helping the gala run smoothly. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:36, discussing the family trust. I did not go back after that. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the foundation's donated treatment samples stored inside.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:43, discussing the family trust. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the foundation's donated treatment samples stored inside.

Then choose another guest

Choose a guest who has not answered this round from either Questions to ask page. Ask one question addressed to that name. The host keeps track so everybody is heard.

ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

Even gala hosts need to clean up little disasters. What did the materials desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Conservation supplies are suddenly part of this investigation. What did the desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Preparing for a donor gala can be messy. What cleaning material did you receive, and what was your errand?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Artistic preparations can leave a mess. What did the materials desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

You collected cleaning supplies during setup. What were they, and what ordinary job were they meant to do?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Several guests needed something to wipe or dust with. What did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Service and setup left plenty to tidy. What did the materials desk give you, and what was your job?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for wiping cordial off the edge of my folder. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:36; no later entry.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:09, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for wiping cordial off the edge of my folder. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:43.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:09, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I organized trustees against Grant's plan. I wanted our foundation funding workers and communities, not his vanity projects. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant intended to rewrite the family trust tonight. Unless I backed his museum naming plan in public, I would lose control of the charitable foundation. He called it protecting the family. It felt rather more like purchasing my applause. During setup I borrowed the cabinet key and took the toxin sample. At 6:43, I used the excuse of discussing the family trust to enter the salon. I dampened my gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's coupe and its rim. That transferred the poison. I left with the cloth. The door entry, key loan and linen receipt were all real. What I left out was what I did between them.

Barb Dwyer

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to disable the Donor Salon camera because he planned several off-the-record meetings. He then told you that if anything went wrong tonight, security would 'own the failure.'

Your other secret

You personally unplugged the camera despite museum policy. You did it under direct donor pressure and never documented the order.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Find out who knew the Donor Salon camera was offline.
3. Keep the camera decision quiet until you understand the murder timeline.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

Questions to ask

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

Grant wanted more control over the museum or its money. What did his plan threaten to take from you?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Grant wanted the exhibition approved on his terms. What did he pressure you to sign, change or overlook?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Grant was using a sale or purchase to get his way. What did he demand, and what would it cost you?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Grant treated the gala as his personal publicity campaign. How did he threaten your work or reputation?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

Grant disliked facts that made him look bad. What research, writing or correction did he want stopped?

ASK: Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster / Minnie Malist

Grant wanted the display changed. What happened when you disagreed, and what was he threatening?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

Grant acted as if possession settled ownership. What did he demand about the disputed objects?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Grant was questioning your collection or its paperwork. What was he holding over you?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Grant gave orders and expected someone else to take the blame. What did that mean for your work?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

READ ALOUD / INNOCENT OR MURDERER

Grant wanted the salon camera off for private meetings. I followed his order. Then he said security would own any failure tonight. He wanted discretion when it suited him and somebody else's head when it did not.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I unplugged the salon camera on Grant's orders. I should have documented that order. The camera gap was my bad decision, not proof of murder. The key book confirms I never borrowed the cabinet key. The cabinet stayed locked between logged loans, and no key or sample changed hands. I had no access to the toxin. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

Paige Turner

Your grievance with Grant

You were preparing a major investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He discovered enough to threaten an injunction and promised to reveal the identity of one of your confidential museum sources if you published.

Your other secret

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

You were busy with your own gala errand. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

You were helping the gala run smoothly. When did you enter the salon, and did you borrow the conservation cabinet key?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:36, checking the revised display plan. I did not go back after that. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the display fasteners stored inside.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:46, checking the revised display plan. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the display fasteners stored inside.

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Service and setup left plenty to tidy. What did the materials desk give you, and what was your job?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for wiping dust from a display bracket. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:36; no later entry.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:12, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF MURDERER

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I approved a temporary lighting rig below my own standard. I should have rebuilt it rather than pretend the deadline made it acceptable. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant demanded a dangerous last-minute change to the centerpiece. He threatened to withhold my firm's final payment if I refused, then planned to blame me for any flaw. I would be paid nothing for a disaster bearing my name. During setup I borrowed the cabinet key and took the toxin sample. At 6:46, I used the excuse of checking the revised display plan to enter the salon. I dampened my gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's coupe and its rim. That transferred the poison. I left with the cloth. The door entry, key loan and linen receipt were all real. What I left out was what I did between them.

Mona Lott

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to announce that the Star Bowl would become a permanent Meridian holding, undermining months of quiet restitution negotiations and publicly humiliating the international partners you represent.

Your other secret

You leaked the existence of the restitution talks to selected journalists to pressure Grant, even though the negotiations were supposed to remain confidential.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Find out whether Paige knows you were the leak.
3. Get Sue to acknowledge that the legal risk is real.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

Grant wanted more control over the museum or its money. What did his plan threaten to take from you?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Grant wanted the exhibition approved on his terms. What did he pressure you to sign, change or overlook?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Grant was using a sale or purchase to get his way. What did he demand, and what would it cost you?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Grant treated the gala as his personal publicity campaign. How did he threaten your work or reputation?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

Grant disliked facts that made him look bad. What research, writing or correction did he want stopped?

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I leaked the restitution talks to journalists. I wanted public pressure on Grant. It was a breach of confidence, not a death threat. The key book confirms I never borrowed the cabinet key. Elon Mosaic

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had blacklisted you from a major acquisition after you outbid him anonymously for a work he wanted. Tonight he planned to announce that your collecting practices were 'speculative theater' and block your appointment to the museum board.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I accepted the 1989 gift before its export papers arrived. I convinced myself the paperwork would follow. That failure should have been corrected years ago. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

In 1989 I accepted one of Grant's early donations with incomplete paperwork. He planned to expose that tonight and stain the museum legacy I built. I should have demanded the missing documents then. He was making sure everybody would hear that now. I decided he would not make it through his own gala. During setup I borrowed the conservation cabinet key, stole the toxin sample and returned the key so the cabinet could be relocked. At 6:45 I entered the Donor Salon using my ordinary errand as cover. I dampened my white, gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's silver coupe and its rim. The glass was clean at 6:40; he drank at 6:49. The toxin went onto the glass, not into the decanter or food. The gold thread and wipe marks came from my cloth. The salon entry, key loan and linen inventory together trace exactly what I did. Nobody helped me.

Saul D. Bid

Your grievance with Grant

Grant threatened to expose a private sale you arranged outside your auction house's normal process unless you waived a substantial fee.

Your other secret

You did route the sale through a discreet subsidiary to satisfy a client who insisted on anonymity.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Grant wanted the exhibition approved on his terms. What did he pressure you to sign, change or overlook?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Grant was using a sale or purchase to get his way. What did he demand, and what would it cost you?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Grant treated the gala as his personal publicity campaign. How did he threaten your work or reputation?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

Grant disliked facts that made him look bad. What research, writing or correction did he want stopped?

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

Even gala hosts need to clean up little disasters. What did the materials desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Conservation supplies are suddenly part of this investigation. What did the desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Preparing for a donor gala can be messy. What cleaning material did you receive, and what was your errand?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Artistic preparations can leave a mess. What did the materials desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

You collected cleaning supplies during setup. What were they, and what ordinary job were they meant to do?

Questions to ask

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Barb Dwyer / Paige Turner / Faye Stop

You picked up something from the materials desk. What was it, and why did you need it?

ASK: Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster / Minnie Malist

You were working around the display. What cleaning material did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

The laboratory is comparing a thread with the setup supplies. What did you receive, and what was it for?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Several guests needed something to wipe or dust with. What did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Service and setup left plenty to tidy. What did the materials desk give you, and what was your job?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for dusting a label holder. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:36; no later entry.

Conservation key book: no key loan.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for dusting a label holder. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:45.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:18, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

My discovery also contradicts a sentence in Art's research. I delayed telling him because I did not want to lose my mentor. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

An archival document contradicted the Star Bowl label. I found it. Grant told my department my fellowship could disappear if I pushed the issue. I could lose the position I worked for simply by insisting that our label tell the truth. I decided he would not make it through his own gala. During setup I borrowed the conservation cabinet key, stole the toxin sample and returned the key so the cabinet could be relocked. At 6:45 I entered the Donor Salon using my ordinary errand as cover. I dampened my white, gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's silver coupe and its rim. The glass was clean at 6:40; he drank at 6:49. The toxin went onto the glass, not into the decanter or food. The gold thread and wipe marks came from my cloth. The salon entry, key loan and linen inventory together trace exactly what I did. Nobody helped me.

Al Baster

Your grievance with Grant

Grant planned to replace your commissioned entrance sculpture with a cheaper replica after the opening and dispute your final payment.

Your other secret

You built one internal support differently from the approved plan because the fabricator missed a deadline.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

Questions to ask

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Artie Ficial / Monet Bags / Tess Tament

Grant wanted more control over the museum or its money. What did his plan threaten to take from you?

ASK: Claire O'Scuro / Chip Patina / Sue Venir

Grant wanted the exhibition approved on his terms. What did he pressure you to sign, change or overlook?

ASK: Hugh Bidder / Elon Mosaic / Saul D. Bid

Grant was using a sale or purchase to get his way. What did he demand, and what would it cost you?

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Grant treated the gala as his personal publicity campaign. How did he threaten your work or reputation?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

Grant disliked facts that made him look bad. What research, writing or correction did he want stopped?

ASK: Barb Dwyer / Paige Turner / Faye Stop

Grant wanted control over what people could see or find out. What did he ask you to suppress?

ASK: Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster / Minnie Malist

Grant wanted the display changed. What happened when you disagreed, and what was he threatening?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

Grant acted as if possession settled ownership. What did he demand about the disputed objects?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Grant was questioning your collection or its paperwork. What was he holding over you?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Grant gave orders and expected someone else to take the blame. What did that mean for your work?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

READ ALOUD / INNOCENT OR MURDERER

Grant wanted to replace my commissioned entrance sculpture with a cheaper replica after opening night and dispute my final payment. He would still have the photographs of my work at his gala. I would have the invoice and an empty plinth.

ASK: Dada DiCapo / Vincent Van Faux / Drew Conclusions

Artistic preparations can leave a mess. What did the materials desk give you, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Dr. Art E. Fact / Reed DeLabel / Justin Tyme

You collected cleaning supplies during setup. What were they, and what ordinary job were they meant to do?

Questions to ask

Choose one guest named below who has not answered this round. Read the question aloud. Ignore absent guests. After answering, that guest chooses the next person. Your own answer is on the following answer page.

ASK: Barb Dwyer / Paige Turner / Faye Stop

You picked up something from the materials desk. What was it, and why did you need it?

ASK: Frank Lloyd Wrong / Al Baster / Minnie Malist

You were working around the display. What cleaning material did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

The laboratory is comparing a thread with the setup supplies. What did you receive, and what was it for?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Several guests needed something to wipe or dust with. What did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Service and setup left plenty to tidy. What did the materials desk give you, and what was your job?

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for cleaning a smudge from my recording case. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:45.

Conservation key book: no key loan.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF MURDERER

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I wrote jokes using private conversations. I regret hurting people who trusted me. The newsletter was my secret. The key book confirms I never borrowed the cabinet key. The cabinet stayed locked between logged loans, and no key or sample changed hands. I had no access to the toxin. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I write the anonymous newsletter that makes fun of museum patrons. Grant found out and planned to unmask me in his speech. Those patrons commission my other work. Losing anonymity could cost me rather more than a polite laugh. I decided he would not make it through his own gala. During setup I borrowed the conservation cabinet key, stole the toxin sample and returned the key so the cabinet could be relocked. At 6:45 I entered the Donor Salon using my ordinary errand as cover. I dampened my white, gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's silver coupe and its rim. The glass was clean at 6:40; he drank at 6:49. The toxin went onto the glass, not into the decanter or food. The gold thread and wipe marks came from my cloth. The salon entry, key loan and linen inventory together trace exactly what I did. Nobody helped me.

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had refused to approve the final catering invoice and planned to blame you for a last-minute service change he personally ordered.

Your other secret

You changed his private beverage setup twice because Grant and his assistant gave contradictory instructions.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

I changed the private drink setup twice because Grant and his assistant gave opposite orders. That confusion was real; poisoning the drink was not my work. You were working around the display. What cleaning material did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Mona Lott / Elle Loominate / Robin Banks

The laboratory is comparing a thread with the setup supplies. What did you receive, and what was it for?

ASK: Anya Tique / Ella Gance / Penny Pincher

Several guests needed something to wipe or dust with. What did you receive, and what did you use it for?

ASK: Brie DeVivre / Cary Crates / Anne E. Dote

Service and setup left plenty to tidy. What did the materials desk give you, and what was your job?

Your answer

Read the box for your role when questioned. Keep its label private. Acting is optional; these printed facts are enough.

IF INNOCENT

I carried blue disposable paper wipes, for dusting a school-tour display. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:36; no later entry.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:24, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: blue disposable paper wipes.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for dusting a school-tour display. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:45.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:24, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I organized the anonymous petition against cuts to school programs. Those pages in the trustee folders came from me. My recorded salon visit ended before 6:40 and I did not return. The coupe was still clean at 6:40; I was not inside during the poisoning window. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant's gift conditions would cut school tours and community education to pay for a private donor lounge and VIP entrance. The children would get less museum so his friends could get more privacy. I wanted those conditions taken out. I decided he would not make it through his own gala. During setup I borrowed the conservation cabinet key, stole the toxin sample and returned the key so the cabinet could be relocked. At 6:45 I entered the Donor Salon using my ordinary errand as cover. I dampened my white, gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's silver coupe and its rim. The glass was clean at 6:40; he drank at 6:49. The toxin went onto the glass, not into the decanter or food. The gold thread and wipe marks came from my cloth. The salon entry, key loan and linen inventory together trace exactly what I did. Nobody helped me.

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to surrender a photograph showing him meeting privately with Hugh beside a shell-company shipping file.

Your other secret

You kept a backup print after agreeing to delete the image from your camera.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.

IF INNOCENT

I carried blue disposable paper wipes, for dusting the family-object display. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:45.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:27, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: blue disposable paper wipes.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for dusting the family-object display. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Preparation record:

Salon door register: 6:45.

Conservation key book: loan at 6:27, returned and cabinet relocked.

Materials inventory, 6:39: white linen cloth, gold seam.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I brought the old letters disputing my family's sale. I meant to confront Grant in front of witnesses, not silence him forever. The materials desk issued me blue paper wipes, not gold-seamed linen. The poisoned smear contains the gold thread from a cloth; the paper I carried cannot have left it. I had something to hide, but I did not murder Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

An object here once belonged to my family. I believe Grant acquired it through a manipulative private sale decades ago. Seeing it celebrated as his generosity is difficult. I want the history acknowledged and the ownership questioned. I decided he would not make it through his own gala. During setup I borrowed the conservation cabinet key, stole the toxin sample and returned the key so the cabinet could be relocked. At 6:45 I entered the Donor Salon using my ordinary errand as cover. I dampened my white, gold-seamed linen with the sample and wiped the inside of Grant's silver coupe and its rim. The glass was clean at 6:40; he drank at 6:49. The toxin went onto the glass, not into the decanter or food. The gold thread and wipe marks came from my cloth. The salon entry, key loan and linen inventory together trace exactly what I did. Nobody helped me.

Your grievance with Grant

Grant fed you several flattering claims for an earlier profile that you later discovered were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if you corrected them.

Your other secret

You are preparing a correction that will also make you look embarrassingly credulous.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself by your character name.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

If a named guest is absent, discuss that subject with anyone. These social tasks do not block the investigation.

Everything you need is here: questions, answers, preparation records, ballot and Coming Clean. Memorize your animal and return its slip. After the host announces the murderer animal, read IF MURDERER only if it is yours; otherwise read IF INNOCENT.
