

The Meridian Museum
of Art & World Cultures

Treasures of the World

The Grant Larceny Collection

Friday, October 30, 2026 / 6:00 PM

1537 S 74th East Ave, Tulsa, OK 74112

An opening-night gala celebrating art and culture from around the world, culminating in the unveiling of the thirteenth-century Isfahan Star Bowl.

Formal gala attire with art-world flair. Your character's costume suggestions are optional inspiration; make the role your own.

Read your separate character introduction before the party. Your private packet awaits you at the gala.

Welcome to the Meridian

- 1 Memorize the animal you draw. Return the slip immediately to the closed return box. Never tell anyone your animal.
- 2 Keep phones put away. Everything you need is printed.
- 3 Act I: introduce yourself, try the three social tasks and bring discoveries to the Evidence Table.
- 4 After the death, follow the three guided hearings. Read your printed answer when your turn comes; acting is optional.
- 5 Read only the words inside the speech boxes. Do not invent new locations, events or witnesses.
- 6 FINALE envelopes stay with the host until every ballot is collected.