Your grievance with Grant

Grant demanded that you disguise several gala and naming-wing expenses inside restricted museum funds until his promised donation cleared. When you resisted, he threatened to blame the bookkeeping on you.

Your other secret

You temporarily moved money between internal accounts to cover a cash-flow shortfall, intending to reverse it after the gala. It was technically unauthorized and Grant discovered it.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself to someone you do not already know. Your role and pre-party sheet are enough.
2. Find out whether Sue has seen Grant's draft funding agreement.
3. Keep Artie from learning about the temporary transfer unless absolutely necessary.

When a named contact is absent, discuss that issue with any guest. No task blocks the investigation.

Private background can be shared or withheld. Later hearings tell you exactly what must be said. No crime confession is printed in these four play pages.

Round 1 / Motive

When questioned, read your answer. It is the same whether you are innocent or the murderer.

READ ALOUD / YOUR ANSWER

Grant wanted gala and naming-wing expenses hidden in restricted museum funds until his donation cleared. I refused. He threatened to blame my bookkeeping. Apparently his generous gift came with instructions for where to bury the bill.

Your next action

Ask the next seated guest their named Motive question in the question catalog. Note one grievance that might matter. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 2 / Opportunity

When questioned, read the answer for your role. Keep the section labels to yourself.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:36, getting his approval on an expense sheet. I did not go back after that. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the insured-stock list stored inside.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:45, getting his approval on an expense sheet. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the insured-stock list stored inside.

After answering, ask the next seated guest their named Opportunity question in the catalog. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 3 / Method

Open your EVIDENCE envelope. Choose privately: IF INNOCENT = Card B; IF MURDERER = Card A. Submit only that letter. Keep the unused card hidden. Do not choose according to what looks safer.

When questioned, read your answer below, then your selected receipt. Leave the unused card hidden.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for drying a splash on my expense folder. That was what the materials desk issued me.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for drying a splash on my expense folder. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Put the read receipt on the Evidence Table. Discuss, then vote privately. The host will distribute FINALE envelopes only after collecting all ballots.
