

Barb Dwyer

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to disable the Donor Salon camera because he planned several off-the-record meetings. He then told you that if anything went wrong tonight, security would 'own the failure.'

Your other secret

You personally unplugged the camera despite museum policy. You did it under direct donor pressure and never documented the order.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself to someone you do not already know. Your role and pre-party sheet are enough.
2. Find out who knew the Donor Salon camera was offline.
3. Keep the camera decision quiet until you understand the murder timeline.

When a named contact is absent, discuss that issue with any guest. No task blocks the investigation.

Private background can be shared or withheld. Later hearings tell you exactly what must be said. No crime confession is printed in these four play pages.

Round 1 / Motive

When questioned, read your answer. It is the same whether you are innocent or the murderer.

READ ALOUD / YOUR ANSWER

Grant wanted the salon camera off for private meetings. I followed his order. Then he said security would own any failure tonight. He wanted discretion when it suited him and somebody else's head when it did not.

Your next action

Ask the next seated guest their named Motive question in the question catalog. Note one grievance that might matter. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 2 / Opportunity

When questioned, read the answer for your role. Keep the section labels to yourself.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:41, checking the camera work order. I visited the conservation display, testing the cabinet lock, but did not borrow the cabinet key.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:41, checking the camera work order. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the lock-inspection tag stored inside.

After answering, ask the next seated guest their named Opportunity question in the catalog. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 3 / Method

Open your EVIDENCE envelope. Choose privately: IF INNOCENT = Card B; IF MURDERER = Card A. Submit only that letter. Keep the unused card hidden. Do not choose according to what looks safer.

When questioned, read your answer below, then your selected receipt. Leave the unused card hidden.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for cleaning fingerprints off a security torch. That was what the materials desk issued me.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for cleaning fingerprints off a security torch. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Put the read receipt on the Evidence Table. Discuss, then vote privately. The host will distribute FINALE envelopes only after collecting all ballots.