

Frank Lloyd Wrong

Your grievance with Grant

Grant demanded a dangerous last-minute change to the centerpiece display and threatened to withhold your firm's final payment if you refused. He also planned to blame you publicly for any flaw in the opening-night presentation.

Your other secret

You signed off on one temporary lighting rig that did not fully meet your own design standard because there was no time to rebuild it before the gala.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself to someone you do not already know. Your role and pre-party sheet are enough.
2. Keep Chip from turning the temporary rig into a formal safety dispute.
3. Find out what Minnie changed after your final walkthrough.

When a named contact is absent, discuss that issue with any guest. No task blocks the investigation.

Private background can be shared or withheld. Later hearings tell you exactly what must be said. No crime confession is printed in these four play pages.

Round 1 / Motive

When questioned, read your answer. It is the same whether you are innocent or the murderer.

READ ALOUD / YOUR ANSWER

Grant demanded a dangerous last-minute change to the centerpiece. He threatened to withhold my firm's final payment if I refused, then planned to blame me for any flaw. I would be paid nothing for a disaster bearing my name.

Your next action

Ask the next seated guest their named Motive question in the question catalog. Note one grievance that might matter. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 2 / Opportunity

When questioned, read the answer for your role. Keep the section labels to yourself.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:36, checking the revised display plan. I did not go back after that. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the display fasteners stored inside.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:46, checking the revised display plan. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the display fasteners stored inside.

After answering, ask the next seated guest their named Opportunity question in the catalog. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 3 / Method

Open your EVIDENCE envelope. Choose privately: IF INNOCENT = Card B; IF MURDERER = Card A. Submit only that letter. Keep the unused card hidden. Do not choose according to what looks safer.

When questioned, read your answer below, then your selected receipt. Leave the unused card hidden.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for wiping dust from a display bracket. That was what the materials desk issued me.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for wiping dust from a display bracket. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Put the read receipt on the Evidence Table. Discuss, then vote privately. The host will distribute FINALE envelopes only after collecting all ballots.
