

Penny Pincher

Your grievance with Grant

One decorative object in the exhibition once belonged to your family. You believe Grant acquired it through a manipulative private sale decades ago.

Your other secret

You brought old correspondence proving your family contested that sale and planned to confront him tonight.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself to someone you do not already know. Your role and pre-party sheet are enough.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

When a named contact is absent, discuss that issue with any guest. No task blocks the investigation.

Private background can be shared or withheld. Later hearings tell you exactly what must be said. No crime confession is printed in these four play pages.

Round 1 / Motive

When questioned, read your answer. It is the same whether you are innocent or the murderer.

READ ALOUD / YOUR ANSWER

An object here once belonged to my family. I believe Grant acquired it through a manipulative private sale decades ago. Seeing it celebrated as his generosity is difficult. I want the history acknowledged and the ownership questioned.

Your next action

Ask the next seated guest their named Motive question in the question catalog. Note one grievance that might matter. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 2 / Opportunity

When questioned, read the answer for your role. Keep the section labels to yourself.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:45, asking about the family object. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the object-treatment label stored inside.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:45, asking about the family object. I borrowed the cabinet key during setup to inspect the object-treatment label stored inside.

After answering, ask the next seated guest their named Opportunity question in the catalog. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 3 / Method

Open your EVIDENCE envelope. Choose privately: IF INNOCENT = Card A; IF MURDERER = Card B. Submit only that letter. Keep the unused card hidden. Do not choose according to what looks safer.

When questioned, read your answer below, then your selected receipt. Leave the unused card hidden.

IF INNOCENT

I carried blue disposable paper wipes, for dusting the family-object display. That was what the materials desk issued me.

IF MURDERER

I carried blue disposable paper wipes, for dusting the family-object display. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Put the read receipt on the Evidence Table. Discuss, then vote privately. The host will distribute FINALE envelopes only after collecting all ballots.