

Justin Tyme

Your grievance with Grant

Grant fed you several flattering claims for an earlier profile that you later discovered were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if you corrected them.

Your other secret

You are preparing a correction that will also make you look embarrassingly credulous.

Three things to try before dinner

1. Introduce yourself to someone you do not already know. Your role and pre-party sheet are enough.
2. Protect your private complication until you decide disclosure helps you.
3. Use your public relationships to trade information rather than waiting for clues to come to you.

When a named contact is absent, discuss that issue with any guest. No task blocks the investigation.

Private background can be shared or withheld. Later hearings tell you exactly what must be said. No crime confession is printed in these four play pages.

Round 1 / Motive

When questioned, read your answer. It is the same whether you are innocent or the murderer.

READ ALOUD / YOUR ANSWER

Grant supplied flattering claims for my earlier profile that I later found were exaggerated. He threatened to cut off access if I corrected them. I would either lose an important source or leave my name on reporting I no longer trusted.

Your next action

Ask the next seated guest their named Motive question in the question catalog. Note one grievance that might matter. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 2 / Opportunity

When questioned, read the answer for your role. Keep the section labels to yourself.

IF INNOCENT

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:36, asking about the disputed profile. I did not go back after that. I visited the conservation display, checking an accession display, but did not borrow the cabinet key.

IF MURDERER

I went into the Donor Salon at 6:36, asking about the disputed profile. I did not go back after that. I visited the conservation display, checking an accession display, but did not borrow the cabinet key.

After answering, ask the next seated guest their named Opportunity question in the catalog. Wait for the host before turning the page.

Round 3 / Method

Open your EVIDENCE envelope. Choose privately: IF INNOCENT = Card B; IF MURDERER = Card A. Submit only that letter. Keep the unused card hidden. Do not choose according to what looks safer.

When questioned, read your answer below, then your selected receipt. Leave the unused card hidden.

IF INNOCENT

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for cleaning a notebook cover. That was what the materials desk issued me.

IF MURDERER

I carried a white linen cloth with a gold seam, for cleaning a notebook cover. That was what the materials desk issued me.

Put the read receipt on the Evidence Table. Discuss, then vote privately. The host will distribute FINALE envelopes only after collecting all ballots.