Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Claire O’Scuro

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Claire O'Scuro

Chief Curator of World Cultures

Claire can identify a fifteenth-century glaze at twenty paces and a crooked label from the parking lot. Claire is the intellectual engine behind Treasures of the World: brilliant, exacting, and visibly pained by sloppy labels, bad lighting, and people who call every old object an 'artifact.' She has spent years building the Meridian's scholarly reputation and knows the exhibition better than anyone alive.

- Works alongside Artie Ficial. They usually agree on the collection and argue about the gala.
- Mentors Reed DeLabel, who still sends draft labels for approval.
- Consults Chip Patina and Dr. Art E. Fact when an object needs closer examination.
- Anne E. Dote turns Claire's research into gallery tours. Claire keeps restoring the words Anne simplifies.

ACTING TIPS

Controlled, observant, skeptical, extremely competitive. You do not need to be loud; a raised eyebrow can do half the work.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

> I'm Claire O'Scuro. I am delighted to meet anyone who knows the difference between provenance and a price tag.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your stake tonight

She trained Reed to trust her judgment and now fears she has taught obedience instead of scholarship.

During the investigation

Everyone has something to hide. Your printed account may protect a personal secret. Read your selected box as written; do not invent events, witnesses or evidence.

Conversations to start

- Mingle using the relationships on your introduction page.
- Keep your private branch readings for their announced rounds.

One attending guest committed the murder alone. Follow your printed account during the hearings. If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else.

By now, you should have drawn a secret animal. Memorize it and don’t share it with anyone. This animal is YOUR key to knowing whether you are the murderer or innocent tonight. This will tell you which sections of this packet you can read out loud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The game is afoot

The Meridian Museum has its share of secrets, rumors, and lost paperwork. Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the museum. Their contents may significantly help you tonight. These 3 hints lead to 3 different hiding places. If you find an envelope, bring it to your seat at the table. The guest with the most envelopes will win a special prize. You may investigate together.

1 A life of resistance, written about a German theologian, shelters another secret.

2 Flowers would call this home; tonight paperwork has moved in.

3 The cars have an entrance. The secret sits above its door.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

> The bowl's ownership papers were incomplete. I approved its label too soon; Grant preferred that earlier version. Reed kept asking me to revisit it. I taught that student to question an authority, and then behaved very badly when the authority was me. Grant wanted my name beneath the claim tonight. I wanted the revised label up. We were each rather determined.

IF MURDERER

> The bowl's ownership papers were incomplete. I approved its label too soon; Grant retained my signature. Reed kept asking me to revisit it. Grant could expose the earlier approval whenever I objected to his claim. My department was meant to thank him tonight. Instead I was trying to withdraw authority he already possessed, with my student watching.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I removed the bowl's ownership label. The bowl remained. Reed kept the old wording. I moved the bottle's incoming papers from the public display file to intake because its approval was on hold. Both files were on that desk. Reed, please stop calling everything I did a correction. Some of it was simply putting an unpleasant decision where I would not have to look at it.

IF MURDERER

I removed the bowl's ownership label; Reed kept the old wording. The bottle's papers went to intake because approval was on hold. Grant wanted the explanation brought to him personally. I put his copy beside the glass at his place. He was elsewhere. I remember moving the glass to keep its damp base off the paper. Such a small, fussy thing to remember. Reed, I was angry enough to let him wait for his explanation afterward.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

> Intake had the complete contents query and the instruction to keep the bottle closed. That warning stayed with the staff when I moved the papers. I could have demanded an answer before the preview. I sent a question instead. Reed, I heard you asking. I did hear you. I am having considerable difficulty explaining what I did with that knowledge.

IF MURDERER

> The intake sheet says empty. I authorized an empty historical bottle for the preview. I moved its papers as part of catalog work. I did not approve a filled vessel. Reed, you may dislike how I handled the bowl. You would be right to. Please keep that failure separate from something I never authorized.

The shared discoveries and reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. Use your own role’s box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I did not kill Grant. Intake retained the unanswered contents question and the closed-bottle restriction. I left the preview approved anyway. My earlier bowl label was also wrong. Reed, you should not have needed my permission to keep asking. I cannot offer you a corrected label as an apology for that. I can offer you the original file, and I can stop standing between you and it.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The incoming sheet does not say empty. It says inert display liquid, on Grant's word. I moved the papers because I did not want that distinction examined. I took poison from the bottle during the preview and later put it in his waiting glass. I used my authority over intake to make the source sound harmless and nonexistent. My label correction was real. Reed, you were right to question me. I have spent tonight making you ashamed of the person who taught you to do that.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
