

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Artie Ficial

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Artie Ficial

Executive Director of the Meridian Museum

Artie treats the gala like a state visit and the coat check like a diplomatic incident. Polished, ambitious, and almost unnervingly composed, Artie has spent the last six years turning the Meridian from a respected regional institution into a museum that expects to be mentioned in the same sentence as the Met.

- Works closely with Claire O'Scuro. Claire keeps asking why the exhibition needs quite so much theatre.
- Relies on Monet Bags for the budget and Sue Venir for donor agreements.
- Trusts Brie DeVivre to handle the donors when Artie gets pulled into a crisis.

ACTING TIPS

Diplomatic under pressure; image-conscious; dryly funny; allergic to public chaos. Play him as someone who is always hosting, even when he is not technically the host.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Artie Ficial. It is my pleasure to welcome you to our gala unveiling our newest exhibition, Treasures of the World, sponsored by our generous benefactor, Grant Larceny, who will arrive here shortly. I'm confident this will be a remarkable evening, and if anything goes wrong tonight, please treat it as an immersive experience.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Artie Ficial

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had privately informed you that tonight's gift would come with a new governance agreement: he wanted veto power over acquisitions, his name on the museum, and your resignation within sixty days. You smiled through the meeting and told no one.

Your other secret

You have already accepted a confidential offer to lead a rival museum next year, which makes any argument with Grant look like succession planning.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Monet Bags has seen the governance addendum.
- Quietly learn whether Claire O'Scuro would stay if you left.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Artie Ficial

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The moving-picture gallery has a secret on its unseen side.
- 2 Success stands on a pedestal. Tonight the prize is underneath the prize.
- 3 A lamp dressed in green is illuminating the neighbourhood of a secret.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Artie Ficial

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

At about 6:43 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to clip Grant's dedication card onto the narrow side rail beside the open cradle. Grant wanted his name perfectly level. His demands were less balanced. I was not keen to announce who had offered me my next job. I had delivered his speech cards to the salon.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:43 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to fasten Grant's dedication card behind the sliding front glass. Grant wanted his name perfectly level. His demands were less balanced. I had delivered his speech cards to the salon.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

ACT III: METHOD

Artie Ficial

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

My more interesting piece of paperwork is a job offer from a rival museum. I have accepted it. Grant's plan to remove me would make my departure look like his victory, and I was not inclined to give him the satisfaction.

COMING CLEAN

Artie Ficial

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I accepted the job offer from a rival museum. I changed the time of my inspection to cover that secret. The real job was to clip Grant's dedication card onto the narrow side rail beside the open cradle. I did it before the curtain closed, not at the late time I gave you. The work was real; my timetable was dishonest. I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

For the record, Grant wanted veto power over acquisitions, his name on the museum and my resignation within sixty days. He called that a gift. I called it a takeover. I had not agreed to surrender my museum or my job. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Claire O'Scuro

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Claire O'Scuro

Chief Curator of World Cultures

Claire can identify a fifteenth-century glaze at twenty paces and a crooked label from the parking lot. Claire is the intellectual engine behind Treasures of the World: brilliant, exacting, and visibly pained by sloppy labels, bad lighting, and people who call every old object an 'artifact.' She has spent years building the Meridian's scholarly reputation and knows the exhibition better than anyone alive.

- Works alongside Artie Ficial. They usually agree on the collection and argue about the gala.
- Mentors Reed DeLabel, who still sends draft labels for approval.
- Consults Chip Patina and Dr. Art E. Fact when an object needs closer examination.

ACTING TIPS

Controlled, observant, skeptical, extremely competitive. You do not need to be loud; a raised eyebrow can do half the work.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Claire O'Scuro. I am delighted to meet anyone who knows the difference between provenance and a price tag.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Claire O'Scuro

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You discovered that Grant knew the Star Bowl's provenance file contained a major gap and ordered the exhibition to proceed anyway. He threatened to remove you from the show if you raised the issue publicly.

Your other secret

Against board instructions, you commissioned an independent provenance review and hid the preliminary report in the Registrar's Office.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Dr. Art E. Fact has seen the same gap you found.
- Learn who wrote the anonymous warning note.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

- 2 Flowers would call this home; tonight paperwork has moved in.

I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to examine the exposed padded steel forks under the bowl. That was about 6:44; I checked my watch. A beautiful label is not a substitute for a sound display. The board did not know I had commissioned an independent review. Grant wanted a label copy in his salon; I left it there.

IF MURDERER

I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to slide the front pane aside and inspect the velvet shelf beneath the bowl. That was about 6:44; I checked my watch. A beautiful label is not a substitute for a sound display. Grant wanted a label copy in his salon; I left it there.

Hugh Bidder

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Hugh Bidder

International Art Dealer & Collector Liaison

Hugh insists everything is priceless, right up until he names a price. Hugh is the person wealthy collectors call when they want something no one else seems able to find.

- Buys art for Elon Mosaic. Elon likes to pretend he found it himself. Hugh doesn't mind.
- Penny Pincher asks Hugh for auction previews, then argues with every estimate. He hates dealing with her.
- Keeps offering to represent Vincent Van Faux. Vincent wants to discuss the commission before the paintings.

ACTING TIPS

Smooth, suave, sociable, opportunistic, impossible to embarrass. Treat every conversation like a deal that has not yet revealed itself. You're the coolest guy in the room and you know it.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Hugh Bidder. Everything has a price. My charming conversation is the only exception, and even that is negotiable.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Hugh Bidder

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant had learned that one certificate in a major private sale you brokered was forged before it ever reached you. He planned to imply publicly that you had created it unless you refunded him millions.

Your other secret

You were duped on that sale, but you quietly altered your own file afterward so clients would not see how badly your due diligence failed.

Conversations to start

- Learn whether Saul D. Bid knows about the disputed certificate.
- Keep Elon Mosaic from discussing the 'auction incident' in public.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:45 by the service-desk clock. I went there to compare my sale photograph with the bowl resting on the exposed steel forks. I prefer to inspect before anybody asks me to negotiate. My clients did not need a public tour of my altered sale file. I argued about his refund in the salon before the gallery visit.

COMING CLEAN

Hugh Bidder

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I altered my sale file to conceal failed due diligence. I changed the time of my inspection to cover that secret. The real job was to compare my sale photograph with the bowl resting on the exposed steel forks. I did it before the curtain closed, not at the late time I gave you. The work was real; my timetable was dishonest. I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Before anyone opens bidding, A sale certificate was forged before it reached me. Grant knew that, but he planned to blame me unless I refunded millions. I did not forge it. I did alter my file afterward to hide how badly my checks had failed. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Monet Bags

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Monet Bags

Chief Financial Officer of the Meridian Museum

Monet can locate a missing cent faster than anyone can locate the missing antiquity. Monet can tell you exactly how much tonight's floral installation cost, which donor paid for it, and which line item everyone is pretending it came from.

- Works with Artie Ficial and Sue Venir on museum budgets and donor agreements.
- Checks Brie DeVivre's catering bills. Brie needs to explain every extra charge.
- Elon Mosaic keeps suggesting new museum technology. Monet keeps asking who will pay for it.

ACTING TIPS

Quick, pragmatic, wry, unimpressed by grandeur for grandeur's sake. You notice costs other people pretend not to see. You're not afraid to spend money as long as it's a wise investment.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Monet Bags. I'm the CFO and I oversee the numbers. Please enjoy the gala, but know that any additional expenditures will not be reimbursed without a receipt.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Monet Bags

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant demanded that you disguise several gala and naming-wing expenses inside restricted museum funds until his promised donation cleared. When you resisted, he threatened to blame the bookkeeping on you.

Your other secret

You temporarily moved money between internal accounts to cover a cash-flow shortfall, intending to reverse it after the gala. It was technically unauthorized and Grant discovered it.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Sue Venir has seen Grant's draft funding agreement.
- Keep Artie Ficial from learning about the temporary transfer unless absolutely necessary.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Monet Bags

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The object that borrows your face has something above its reflection.
- 2 The painted world draws your gaze. The clue prefers its hidden reverse.
- 3 A soft cushion in the colour of a clear sky conceals something behind it.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

IF INNOCENT

Earlier, about 6:33 by my watch, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to read the sponsor credit on the velvet shelf inside the cabinet. By the toast I was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, considering sums I preferred not to announce. I can account for this. I had taken an account summary to his salon.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:46 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to read the sponsor credit from the inner velvet shelf. Sponsor enthusiasm and actual money are different accounting categories. I had taken an account summary to his salon.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I moved money between museum accounts without authorization. My claim to read the sponsor credit on the velvet shelf inside the cabinet was invented. I borrowed that detail from the abandoned cabinet proposal to conceal my preparations. At the toast I really was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, as I told you. That false errand covered my other misconduct; I did not poison Grant Larceny.

Chip Patina

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Chip Patina

Chief Conservator

Chip considers a fingerprint on a display case a personal attack. Chip is responsible for keeping centuries-old objects safe from humidity, fingerprints, gravity, and other people. He is the bedrock of this museum and he knows it.

- Works with Claire O'Scuro on the care and display of the collection.
- Argues with Dr. Art E. Fact about what the physical evidence can actually prove.
- Advises Elle Loominate on displaying fragile textiles. Elle listens, then asks for a less ugly support.

ACTING TIPS

Dry, meticulous, slightly territorial. You care more about what is best for this institution than what is socially convenient.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Chip Patina. Please admire the art without touching it. That includes touching it to demonstrate that you are not touching it.

INTRODUCTIONS

Chip Patina

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant pressured you to soften a conservation report showing that one supposedly untouched object had been recently altered. He threatened to replace you with a private conservator if you refused.

Your other secret

You changed the date on a minor treatment record last month to spare the museum an embarrassing insurance dispute. No object was harmed, but the falsification could end your career.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Cary Crates has noticed the altered treatment date.
- Ask Dr. Art E. Fact what he thinks the Star Bowl's modern adhesive means.

INTRODUCTIONS

Dada DiCapo

Performance Artist & Cultural Celebrity

Dada describes standing still as an endurance piece and invoices accordingly. Dada makes expensive people uncomfortable in aesthetically impeccable ways. She is the embodiment of contemporary art.

- Went to art school with Vincent Van Faux. They still remember each other's worst work.
- Elle Loominate has secretly helped build several of Dada's installations.
- Has made commissioned work for Tess Tament. Tess still asks whether one piece is meant to make that noise.

ACTING TIPS

Confident, theatrical, mischievous, intelligent. Commit to bits, but never let the joke make you foolish.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant appropriated the concept for one of your unreleased performances and planned to unveil a sanitized version of it as the gala's closing spectacle, crediting himself as creative patron.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

The unsigned warning is mine. “Return what was taken” meant my stolen performance concept. The star going dark was an image, not a timetable for a death. I wanted Grant publicly embarrassed. Apparently nobody is going to believe that distinction without a very long conversation.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I wrote the warning note about my stolen performance. I changed the time of my inspection to cover that secret. The real job was to study the shadow made by the external spotlight over the bowl. I did it before the curtain closed, not at the late time I gave you. The work was real; my timetable was dishonest. I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Grant mistook a cheque for authorship. That closing spectacle was my unreleased performance concept. Grant took it, sanitized it and planned to unveil it with himself credited as creative patron. He bought the invitation stock, not my imagination. I wanted my work and my credit back. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Vincent Van Faux

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Vincent Van Faux

Celebrated Contemporary Painter

Vincent believes even his shopping lists belong in a documentary. He is truly a genius of the visual arts. Vincent became famous young and has been trying ever since to convince people that this is not the same thing as becoming famous accidentally.

- Went to art school with Dada DiCapo. Dada enjoys reminding Vincent of this in front of collectors.
- Hugh Bidder wants to represent Vincent. Vincent has yet to approve Hugh's percentage.
- Penny Pincher keeps showing Vincent photos of paintings and asking what they are worth. He's not interested.

ACTING TIPS

Warm, competitive, mercurial, self-aware enough to joke about his ego but not enough to lose it.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Vincent Van Faux. My new work is here tonight. My early work is also here, despite several very expensive objections.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Vincent Van Faux

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant owned an embarrassing student painting you have spent years trying to buy back. He planned to display it tonight beside your celebrated recent work as a joke about 'humble beginnings.'

Your other secret

You have secretly used buyers to acquire several of your own early paintings so you could remove them from circulation. The art world would find that both vain and market-manipulative.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Ella Gance knows you were behind the anonymous buybacks.
- Persuade Claire O'Scuro that the student painting should not be displayed.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Vincent Van Faux

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Look inside the vessel that usually gives cut flowers a place to stand.
- 2 Find the green light, then examine the space nearby.
- 3 Find the biography of the man who chose conscience over obedience. Its pages have company.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

Earlier, about 6:31 by my watch, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to compare the glaze with the red velvet shelf beneath it. By the toast I was in the East Gallery, outside the alcove, avoiding discussion of my student painting. Perhaps we can exhibit his manners next.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:45 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to compare the blue glaze with the red velvet shelf beneath it. A bad colour relationship can ruin an otherwise respectable object. I had approached the salon to discuss the label for my student work.

Sue Venir

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Sue Venir

Cultural Property Attorney

Sue corrects the fine print on dinner menus. Sue is the lawyer museums call when an object has three owners, four countries, six contradictory export documents, and one increasingly angry newspaper.

- Works with Artie Ficial and Monet Bags on museum contracts.
- Has argued opposite sides of restitution cases with Mona Lott. They're ruthless opponents but still besties.
- Dr. Art E. Fact supplies expert opinions for Sue's cases. Sue usually asks for a shorter version.

ACTING TIPS

A lawyer with sass: precise, formidable, patient, amused by sloppy certainty. Ask pointed questions and answer only the question actually asked.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Sue Venir. Lovely to meet you. Nothing I say over dinner constitutes legal advice, although I will be keeping notes.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Sue Venir

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You wrote a private legal memorandum concluding that the Star Bowl's acquisition was too risky to defend confidently. Grant forced you to replace it with a softer opinion and planned to cite your name during the announcement.

Your other secret

Both versions of the memo still exist. You kept the original instead of destroying it, which could expose you to professional embarrassment and Grant to serious scrutiny.

Conversations to start

- Learn whether Mona Lott has obtained a copy of your original memo.
- Keep Dr. Art E. Fact from publicly speculating about your legal advice.

INTRODUCTIONS

Dr. Art E. Fact

Professor of Art History & Provenance Scholar

Art has never met a footnote he could not lengthen. Art has built a career tracing the lives of objects through wars, estates, auctions, private collections, and suspicious gaps in paperwork.

- Supervises Reed DeLabel's doctoral research and sends drafts back covered in notes.
- Secretly infatuated with the enigmatic energy of Dada DiCapo. Will she notice him?
- Trusts only Chip Patina to say when the physical evidence contradicts Art's theory.

ACTING TIPS

Intense, professorial, curious, occasionally pedantic, sincerely excited by evidence.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

Your grievance with Grant

Grant suppressed your research showing that two objects in his collection passed through a dealer linked to questionable wartime sales. He threatened to release correspondence suggesting you had overstated another provenance claim if you challenged him publicly.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

One sentence in my published research goes beyond what the evidence strictly supports. I should have qualified it. Grant knew, and the archival material Reed found made the weakness harder to ignore. The embarrassing inference is mine; so is the duty to correct it. I wish scholarship came with less public humiliation.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I overstated an inference in my published research. My claim to slide open the front glass and copy the bowl's inscription was invented. I borrowed that detail from the abandoned cabinet proposal to conceal my preparations. At the toast I really was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, as I told you. That false errand covered my other misconduct; I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The historical record deserves better. My research linked two collection objects to a dealer involved in questionable wartime sales. Grant suppressed it. He also threatened to release correspondence suggesting I had overstated a different claim. He wanted silence, and he had chosen a very effective threat. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.

Tess Tament

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Tess Tament

Philanthropist & Heir to the Larceny Family Fortune

Tess speaks fluent inheritance and has strong opinions about the seating plan. Tess is the only member of the Larceny dynasty who can attend an arts gala without immediately being asked for a check, mostly because everyone genuinely appreciates her opinion on culture.

- Knows Hugh Bidder from the collector circuit. Her crush on him is the only thing capable of flustering her.
- Has commissioned work from Dada DiCapo and is still explaining one of the pieces to visitors.
- Asks Mona Lott which international exhibitions might need a generous sponsor.

ACTING TIPS

Composed, witty, guarded, generous when she chooses. You grew up around power and recognize its rituals instantly.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Tess Tament. I represent the family foundation. Contrary to what some here may think, being related to a donor is a responsibility, not a cash machine.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Tess Tament

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant told you he intended to rewrite the family trust tonight, removing you from control of the charitable foundation unless you publicly backed his museum naming plan.

Your other secret

You have been quietly organizing other family trustees to block Grant's control over the foundation and redirect future giving toward worker and community programs.

Conversations to start

- Find out whether Anya Tique would publicly oppose renaming the museum.
- Gauge Artie Ficial's willingness to reject Grant's conditions.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Tess Tament

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Spain has a clue for you. Find Barcelona without leaving the house.
- 2 The blue cushion is comfortable. Its secret is not meant to stay buried.
- 3 A piano's electric cousin is hiding a note that cannot be played. Look beneath it.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.

Tess Tament

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

My phone read 6:43 while I was on the gallery balcony, speaking to a trustee about the foundation vote. I could see the display from above; I was not down inside it. Grant was about to discover that family applause is not automatically unanimous. I went to his salon with the foundation papers.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:44 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to straighten the foundation's credit on the velvet shelf inside the cabinet. The family's name deserved more consideration than he gave the family. I went to his salon with the foundation papers.

INTRODUCTIONS

Director of Museum Security & Former Art-Crimes Investigator

Barb has already assessed which guests could fit through the air vents. Barb spent years in the CIA investigating stolen art before discovering that museums contain nearly as much intrigue with better climate control.

- Coordinates museum security with Artie Ficial and Chip Patina.
- Paige Turner keeps requesting access Barb has already refused.
- Makes Brie DeVivre revise the service routes. Brie would like one final version.

ACTING TIPS

Low-key, skeptical, dry, watchful. Ask where people were and remember their answers.

INTRODUCTIONS

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to disable the Donor Salon camera because he planned several off-the-record meetings. He then told you that if anything went wrong tonight, security would 'own the failure.'

Your other secret

You personally unplugged the camera despite museum policy. The work order records the disconnection, but you never documented Grant's threat to make security take the blame.

- Ask Artie Ficial why Grant wanted the Donor Salon camera switched off. Keep your own part in that decision private for now.

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Paige Turner

Investigative Arts Journalist

Paige asks innocent questions with a recorder visibly running. Her journalistic integrity is unmatched. Paige covers the art world for the Times of Tulsa the way other reporters cover city hall: money, power, access, and who benefits when everyone agrees to keep silent.

- Keeps asking Barb Dwyer for access to museum records. Barb keeps asking what the story is about.
- Sue Venir has threatened to quote Paige's own articles back to her in court.
- Calls Reed DeLabel to check dates and catalogue references. Reed is delighted when a correction makes it into print.

ACTING TIPS

Curious, direct, quick, socially fearless. Ask questions people wish you would save for email.

INTRODUCTIONS

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You were preparing a major investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He discovered enough to threaten an injunction and promised to reveal the identity of one of your confidential museum sources if you published.

IF INNOCENT

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:46 by the service-desk clock. I went there to copy the caption on the small side rail beside the bowl. My press copy did not quite agree with the display. Keeping my source safe mattered more than satisfying Grant's curiosity. I tried to question him in his salon before returning to the press notes.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:46 by the service-desk clock. I went there to copy the small dedication card through the cabinet's front glass. My press copy did not quite agree with the display. I tried to question him in his salon before returning to the press notes.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

A museum source gave me internal documents. Grant threatened to expose that source if I published. I will not identify them simply because someone puts a dramatic question to me over dinner. My confidential arrangement concerns documents and somebody's livelihood. It was not an arrangement to interfere with Grant's drink.

The last word

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I protected the museum source who gave me internal documents. I changed the time of my inspection to cover that secret. The real job was to copy the caption on the small side rail beside the bowl. I did it before the curtain closed, not at the late time I gave you. The work was real; my timetable was dishonest. I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

This is the part the press release left out. I was preparing an investigation into Grant's collection and labor empire. He threatened an injunction and exposure of a confidential museum source if I published. My reputation mattered, but protecting that source mattered more. He knew precisely where to apply pressure. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Dinner Party 2026

Frank Lloyd Wrong

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Frank Lloyd Wrong

Exhibition Architect & Designer

Frank considers doors a regrettable compromise in an otherwise excellent wall. Frank designed the physical experience of Treasures of the World: every wall angle, sight line, spotlight, pedestal, and dramatic reveal.

- Chip Patina can veto Frank's display designs. Frank tends to take the veto personally.
- Elle Loominate has worked on Frank's exhibition spaces. They vehemently disagree about how much room a textile needs.
- Dada DiCapo once described one of Frank's galleries as "an expensive corridor." Frank remembers the review.

ACTING TIPS

Aesthetic, controlled, mildly pretentious in a lovable way, easily offended by bad placement rather than bad manners.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Frank Lloyd Wrong. I designed all the displays you see around the gallery. If one more person says they have one tiny last-minute change, I'm gonna scream!

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Frank Lloyd Wrong

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant demanded a dangerous last-minute change to the centerpiece display and threatened to withhold your firm's final payment if you refused. He also planned to blame you publicly for any flaw in the opening-night presentation.

Your other secret

You signed off on one temporary lighting rig that did not fully meet your own design standard because there was no time to rebuild it before the gala.

Conversations to start

- Keep Chip Patina from turning the temporary rig into a formal safety dispute.
- Find out what Minnie Malist changed after your final walkthrough.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Frank Lloyd Wrong

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The garage's broad doorway has acquired an exhibit overhead. Ask for help reaching it.
- 2 A German pastor's life story has acquired an uninvited appendix.
- 3 The household collection behind a cupboard door includes an unexpected exhibit.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

IF MURDERER

Mona Lott

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Mona Lott

International Cultural Heritage Ambassador

Mona can turn a simple disagreement about a bowl into an international event. Mona moves between embassies, museums, ministries, and negotiation tables. Where everyone insists the issue is 'purely cultural,' Mona shows up with three lawyers and a list of demands.

- Has a long professional friendship with Sue Venir. Their arguments sometimes continue through dinner.
- Debates restitution policy with Dr. Art E. Fact, who usually brings reading material.
- Secretly wants to fool Tess Tament into paying millions for cheap bead necklaces from China.

ACTING TIPS

Elegant, diplomatic, strategic, warm until precision is required. You can disagree without ever sounding flustered.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Mona Lott. I negotiate the return of precious objects. I expect several difficult conversations and at least one excellent croissant.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant intended to announce that the Star Bowl would become a permanent Meridian holding, undermining months of quiet restitution negotiations and publicly humiliating the international partners you represent.

INTRODUCTIONS

Elon Mosaic

Tech Founder, Collector & Museum Patron

Elon keeps suggesting that the museum should pivot to subscription antiquities. Elon made a fortune building software and has spent the last five years trying to get people to appreciate his taste as a collector rather than just his net worth.

- Buys everything through Hugh Bidder but pretends he found the art himself.
- Knows Tess Tament from the collector circuit. They compare acquisitions whenever they meet.
- Keeps pitching museum technology to Monet Bags. Monet asks for the price before the demonstration.

ACTING TIPS

Energetic, socially confident, competitive, eager to demonstrate taste without looking eager.

IF INNOCENT

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:45 by the service-desk clock. I went there to look under the bowl at the exposed steel cradle, away from the external spotlight. At that price, I expect the underside to be magnificent. The anonymous auction purchase was nobody's dinner entertainment. I discussed the blocked acquisition in his salon.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:45 by the service-desk clock. I went there to adjust the internal lamp to inspect the bowl's underside. At that price, I expect the underside to be magnificent. I discussed the blocked acquisition in his salon.

I was the anonymous auction buyer. Hugh concealed my name to prevent Grant from inflating the bidding. Grant blacklisted me afterward. He made collecting sound like a moral defect when someone else won. My secret purchase was deliberate. So was my refusal to apologize for it.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I was the anonymous auction buyer who outbid Grant. I changed the time of my inspection to cover that secret. The real job was to look under the bowl at the exposed steel cradle, away from the external spotlight. I did it before the curtain closed, not at the late time I gave you. The work was real; my timetable was dishonest. I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I dislike losing. Grant disliked it more. I outbid Grant anonymously for a work he wanted. He blacklisted me from another acquisition and planned to block my museum board appointment. Tonight he was going to call my collecting speculative theater. It was an expensive grudge, even by his standards. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Anya Tique

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Anya Tique

Founding Curator Emerita

Anya remembers when the museum was two rooms and an argument. Anya helped build the Meridian's collection when the museum had more ambition than money and fewer committees than fire extinguishers.

- Hired Artie Ficial early in his career.
- Has known Tess Tament since Tess was a child.

ACTING TIPS

Imperious, funny, observant, utterly unimpressed by status. Age gives you permission to say what everyone else edits.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Anya Tique. I helped build this museum. Tonight I reserve the right to judge the lighting and everyone in it.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Anya Tique

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant planned to reveal that you accepted his first questionable donation in 1989 despite incomplete paperwork, staining the legacy you built.

Your other secret

You did approve that accession because the museum was desperate for funds and you convinced yourself the paperwork would follow.

Conversations to start

- Ask Artie Ficial whether the naming agreement preserves the museum you founded.
- Ask Tess Tament what she thinks Grant expects from his family tonight.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Anya Tique

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The clue has chosen the place where ice cream refuses to melt.
- 2 Where fingers conduct a row of musical keys, a clue waits underneath.
- 3 Behind a crimson curtain, the museum has misplaced a document.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Elle Loominate

Textile Artist & Designer

Elle has identified every fabric in the room, including the suspiciously shiny tuxedo. Elle turns weaving, embroidery, salvage fabric, and obsessive handwork into installations that critics call intimate and collectors call surprisingly difficult to ship.

- Has helped Dada DiCapo build several installations.
- Asks Chip Patina how to display fragile textiles without making the supports the main attraction.
- Has worked in Frank Lloyd Wrong's exhibition spaces. Frank's empty walls look like opportunities to Elle.

ACTING TIPS

Creative, grounded, quietly funny, detail-oriented. You notice what people wear and how things are made.

After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

The family did not consent. The ceremonial textile belongs to a family who lent it for my installation. It is not mine to sell. Grant intended to purchase it despite my refusal. He treated a loan as a price negotiation and expected me to make the family accept it.

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

Earlier, about 6:32 by my watch, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to test the internal lamp behind the bowl. At the toast I was in the East Gallery, outside the alcove, trying to keep my fabric invoice in view. The family did not consent.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:44 by the service-desk clock. I went there to turn the cabinet's internal lamp slightly away from the textile. Light should reveal an installation rather than turn it into an upholstered eclipse. I went to the salon doorway with the disputed fabric invoice.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

My family's textile is in the installation without all the paperwork they expected. I feared the loan would be refused, so I pressed ahead. Grant tried to turn the loan into a purchase. Fabric is not ownership, and a donor's cheque is not consent. I was trying to protect something that was never mine to sell.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I exhibited my family's textile without the full agreed paperwork. My claim to test the internal lamp behind the bowl was invented. I borrowed that detail from the abandoned cabinet proposal to conceal my preparations. At the toast I really was outside the alcove in the East Gallery, as I told you. That false errand covered my other misconduct; I did not poison Grant Larceny.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

The family did not consent. The ceremonial textile belongs to a family who lent it for my installation. It is not mine to sell. Grant intended to purchase it despite my refusal. He treated a loan as a price negotiation and expected me to make the family accept it. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Reed DeLabel

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Reed DeLabel

Doctoral Fellow in Art History

Reed reads every label aloud, including the exit sign. Reed is the youngest scholar attached to the exhibition and has been trying very hard to behave like this is normal.

- Dr. Art E. Fact supervises Reed's doctorate and rarely returns a clean draft.
- Gets informal guidance from Claire O'Scuro on exhibition labels and curatorial work.
- Checks dates and catalogue references for Paige Turner. Reed saves any article that includes a correction.

ACTING TIPS

Eager, cerebral, anxious in a useful way, unexpectedly bold when the evidence is on your side.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Reed DeLabel. I am the graduate fellow. I know where the footnotes go and, more dangerously, where they are missing.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Reed DeLabel

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

You found an archival document that contradicted the Star Bowl label. Grant told your department your fellowship could disappear if you pushed it.

Your other secret

You have not yet told Art that your discovery also undermines one sentence in his published research.

Conversations to start

- Ask Claire O'Scuro whether she is comfortable with the Star Bowl label.
- Ask Dr. Art E. Fact how a junior researcher should challenge a donor's version of history.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Reed DeLabel

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Four legs and a metallic seat guard a secret from below.
- 2 Behind a cupboard's closed doors, one item has no domestic purpose.
- 3 Seek the sacred book with two testaments. Tonight its pages shelter evidence.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

Inside the alcove I copied the accession wording while the brass gallery clock showed 6:45. I spent the last minutes before the toast at the outer table comparing that wording with my notes. I wish the discrepancy had been a spelling mistake.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:45 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to compare the inscription with the card on the cabinet's velvet shelf. One missing word can be a surprisingly expensive problem. I took Grant the catalogue correction at his salon.

IF INNOCENT

When the brass clock said 6:44, I admired the glaze from inside the display alcove. I was on the gallery balcony by the time of the toast. I needed a little distance from Grant, and not solely to appreciate the composition.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:43 by the service-desk clock. I went there to admire the blue glaze beside the cabinet's polished brass corner posts. I wanted to know whether the object or the lighting deserved the applause. I tried to recover my purchase papers at the salon doorway.

I sold a work I had promised to donate. My account of the evening was true. The brass gallery clock was ten minutes fast: the time I quoted from it belongs ten minutes earlier, before the alcove closed. My concealed business explains the suspicion around me. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

Elegance requires discretion. Grant preferred a microphone. I sold a work I had publicly promised to donate to another institution. Grant knew and planned to expose the contradiction tonight. It was an ugly position, and he was preparing to turn my embarrassment into entertainment for the entire room. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

INTRODUCTIONS

Drew Conclusions

Art Critic & Cultural Podcaster

Drew calls everything derivative, especially things he likes. Drew can make a museum director nervous with a headline and an artist furious with a compliment.

- Friendly rival of Paige Turner.
- Elon Mosaic remembers an especially brutal line about his collection.

ACTING TIPS

Dry, perceptive, skeptical, socially nimble. Deliver observations as if they occurred to you three minutes before everyone else.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Drew Conclusions. I review art professionally. My expression is not a verdict, but I recommend remaining concerned.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Drew Conclusions

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant discovered that you write an anonymous satirical newsletter skewering museum patrons and planned to unmask you during his speech.

Your other secret

Several jokes in the newsletter came from private conversations, and you regret at least one of them.

Conversations to start

- Ask Paige Turner what makes a story worth publishing when a donor objects.
- Ask Vincent Van Faux whether he reads the anonymous museum newsletter. Do not admit you write it.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Drew Conclusions

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The household monument to victory is standing on a secret.
- 2 A scarlet stage has a backstage secret. Check behind its fabric.
- 3 Televised drama is a distraction. Our drama hides at its back.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

IF INNOCENT

At roughly 6:45 by my watch I was outside the alcove, writing in the East Gallery. I had read the inner dedication at 6:30. There is an excellent review in this evening, provided nobody insists that the donor approve my adjectives. I was criticizing the obsolete drawing of the enclosed cabinet. Reviewing a proposal outside the alcove is not working inside its display.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:44 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to read the tiny dedication fastened behind the sliding front glass. The dedication was practically begging for a review. Grant asked me to bring the review copy to his salon.

INTRODUCTIONS

Brie DeVivre

Head Caterer & Hospitality Director

Brie has planned a cheese course more carefully than most people plan a wedding. Brie runs high-end events with the serene expression of a person mentally tracking forty-seven moving parts.

- Goes over catering costs with Monet Bags. Brie keeps the receipts. He knows Monet is addicted to expensive cheddar.
- Barb Dwyer keeps revising the service routes. Brie wants the staff to have one usable plan. Brie knows Barb is lactose intolerant.
- Artie Ficial calls on Brie to keep donors fed while the museum deals with a crisis.

ACTING TIPS

Competent, sociable, quietly authoritative, hard to rattle. You see the room from the service side. You also know everyone's secrets!

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

At 6:46 by the kitchen clock I was at the service desk in the gallery entrance. The staff poured Grant's cordial then. IF MURDERER

I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to wipe the brass corner nearest the service route before the toast. That was about 6:45; I checked my watch. Apparently the caterer is expected to rescue the furniture as well. My team delivered the empty coupe; I checked the salon arrangement.

Grant and his assistant gave contradictory beverage orders. I changed his private setup twice. The delivery ticket records the final arrangement: an empty coupe first, then cordial at 6:46, without garnish. I handled linen and supplies as part of service. Your answer

IF INNOCENT

I checked the cradle inside the alcove at 6:35 by the receiving-room clock. Around quarter to seven I was at the outer table dealing with a damaged frame. One was a routine check. The other was the reason I was avoiding Grant. I left a receiving docket in the salon.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:46 by the service-desk clock. I went there to inspect the seam where the velvet shelf met the rear glass wall. When an object falls, they remember the handler before they remember gravity. I left a receiving docket in the salon.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed a damaged frame with a reversible mount. My account of the evening was true. My late task was outside the sealed display alcove. Any inspection I made inside it was earlier, before the emergency closure. My concealed business explains the suspicion around me. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I made a mistake that could be repaired. I damaged a minor frame during installation. It could be repaired, but Grant threatened to have me fired after the gala. I was ready to put it right. He seemed much more interested in demonstrating that he could end my job. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

INTRODUCTIONS

Anne E. Dote

Director of Education & Docent Programs

Anne can make a school group care about a pot shard. Tonight's donors are proving harder.

- Often rescues Reed DeLabel from awkward public-facing moments.
- Works with Claire O'Scuro to translate scholarship into gallery interpretation.

ACTING TIPS

Engaging, practical, empathetic, irreverent about institutional pomp.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Anne E. Dote. I run education here. I can make almost anything interesting, including a room full of adults behaving badly.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Anne E. Dote

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant's gift conditions would cut public education programming to fund a private donor lounge and VIP entrance.

Your other secret

You organized an anonymous staff petition against the plan and slipped copies into trustee folders.

Conversations to start

- Ask Anya Tique whether she will defend the education program against a donor lounge.
- Ask Claire O'Scuro what ordinary visitors would lose if education funding disappeared.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Anne E. Dote

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The artwork is innocent; something behind it deserves questioning.
- 2 A Bible contains a small addition that is not part of scripture.
- 3 The mirror has a secret that never appears in its reflection. Look above the glass.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

I copied the school-tour wording inside the alcove at 6:34 by my phone. At 6:44 I was at the gallery entrance sorting trustee folders. Schoolchildren would have asked much better questions than the trustees were asking.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:43 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to copy the wording inside the cabinet after sliding the front pane aside. Children ask excellent questions about very bad labels. I took my school-tour proposal to the salon for Grant.

INTRODUCTIONS

Faye Stop

Gala Photographer & Editorial Portraitist

- Has photographed several investigations for Paige Turner.
- Dada DiCapo loves Faye's work because Faye does not overdirect.

ACTING TIPS

Observant, understated, curious, visually minded. You notice who is standing with whom and what happens at the edge of a room.

Your grievance with Grant

Grant ordered you to surrender a photograph showing him meeting privately with Hugh beside a shell-company shipping file.

You kept a backup print after agreeing to delete the image from your camera.

My camera logged 6:35 when I photographed the back of the mount inside the alcove. At about 6:45 I was taking balcony photographs. I kept a different print Grant wanted destroyed. It does not suddenly vanish because the subject dislikes the lighting.

IF MURDERER

I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to photograph the bowl through the opening in the sliding glass front. That was about 6:44; I checked my watch. The beautiful front already had enough admirers. I had delivered the donor photographs to his salon.

I kept a backup of the photograph Grant told me to delete. I agreed to remove the camera copy; the print survived. I also photographed the mount during setup. There are times in the camera records that can be checked, and household-looking clocks in pictures that should not be treated as camera records. A photograph is evidence. The subject's irritation is not a correction.

INTRODUCTIONS

Robin Banks

Cultural Restitution Activist & Nonprofit Organizer

Robin has brought a petition, spare pens and absolutely no interest in donor etiquette. Robin campaigns for museums and collectors to return contested cultural objects, publish complete provenance, and stop treating possession as the end of the conversation.

- Frequently debates Dr. Art E. Fact and Mona Lott on strategy.
- Barb Dwyer has removed Robin from a museum event before; both remember it.

ACTING TIPS

Focused, bold, principled, socially savvy. Challenge people without turning every conversation into a speech.

Grant had you removed from a previous museum event and threatened legal action if you disrupted tonight's unveiling.

Your answer

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

A protest does not require his permission. Grant had me removed from a previous museum event. He threatened legal action if I disrupted this unveiling. My protest concerns restitution, not his comfort. He wanted silence tonight, and I was not ready to promise him that.

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

At 6:43 by my phone I was outside the display alcove, in the East Gallery, slipping protest stickers into brochures. Peaceful protest, to be precise. Grant's solicitor would prefer a much more theatrical description.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:45 by the service-desk clock. I went there to read the ownership card on the velvet shelf inside the cabinet. I intended to quote its words rather than improve them by accident. I approached his salon about the ownership records.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

I put “PROVENANCE IS A VERB” stickers into the gallery brochures. It was a peaceful protest and entirely intentional. I handled linen and supplies while preparing it. Grant threatened legal action if I disrupted his unveiling. I intended a room full of awkward questions. If that sounds organized, good: a protest should have a plan.

I planted peaceful protest stickers in the brochures. My account of the evening was true. My late task was outside the sealed display alcove. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

A protest does not require his permission. Grant had me removed from a previous museum event. He threatened legal action if I disrupted this unveiling. My protest concerns restitution, not his comfort. He wanted silence tonight, and I was not ready to promise him that. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Dinner Party 2026

Penny Pincher

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Penny Pincher

Eccentric Private Collector

Penny is convinced that every museum object would look better in her hallway. Penny collects small paintings, strange decorative objects, and stories about who owned them before she did.

- Asks Hugh Bidder for auction previews and always disputes his estimates.
- Shows Vincent Van Faux photos of paintings and asks for a free valuation.
- Has compared auction finds with Tess Tament. Penny prefers a bargain Tess has overlooked.

ACTING TIPS

Eccentric, charming, nosy, unexpectedly shrewd. Ask questions that sound casual and are not.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Penny Pincher. Some things in this museum belonged to my family, so you'd think I'd at least get a discount on tickets. I'm delighted about all the free food tonight, though!

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

INTRODUCTIONS

Penny Pincher

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

One decorative object in the exhibition once belonged to your family. You believe Grant acquired it through a manipulative private sale decades ago.

Your other secret

You brought old correspondence proving your family contested that sale and planned to confront him tonight.

Conversations to start

- Ask Anya Tique whether she remembers the decorative object from your family.
- Ask Saul D. Bid how old private sales can be traced. If he is absent, try Hugh Bidder.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

HUNT FOR CLUES

Penny Pincher

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Seek the green lamp; its nearest neighbour is part of this investigation.
- 2 Look behind the rectangle that brings distant worlds into the living room.
- 3 A vase has swallowed a document. Rescue it without disturbing the china.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.

IF INNOCENT

I looked beneath the bowl's rim inside the alcove when the brass gallery clock showed 6:46. Later I sat near the gallery entrance with my family letters. I was prepared for an argument about ownership, not another lecture about generosity.

IF MURDERER

At about 6:46 by my phone, I went inside the Star Bowl alcove to look beneath the bowl's rim through the opened sliding front pane. An old family letter is more convincing when the object agrees. I had brought a photograph of my family object to Grant's salon.

Your answer

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

The old letters show my family disputed the sale. I brought them to confront Grant, who preferred to call the object a generous gift. I had access to the setup key and linen. Neither makes the letters disappear. I wanted the ownership questioned in front of witnesses. I have waited years for an answer; I was not planning to make the person owing it permanently unavailable.

- Paige Turner considers Justin useful when she needs Tulsa context and dangerous when he starts telling stories.

ACTING TIPS

INTRODUCTIONS

Minnie Malist

Gala Event Designer & Creative Producer

Minnie considers restrained lighting a cry for help. Minnie creates the visual spectacle around events like tonight: flowers, lighting, table styling, entrances, reveals, and the precise moment everyone is supposed to gasp.

- Works constantly with Frank Lloyd Wrong, who removes half of Minnie's ideas.
- Brie DeVivre is Minnie's favorite partner in event logistics.
- Monet Bags is the person who asks what Minnie's ideas cost.

ACTING TIPS

Energetic, aesthetic, affectionate, slightly chaotic but highly competent. You notice atmosphere first.

Grant ordered you to add a gaudy lighting cue to the unveiling and threatened to withhold payment when Frank objected.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 The clue is inside the book whose final chapter is Revelation.
- 2 The hard metal seat has an understudy: a clue waiting underneath.
- 3 A picture may be worth a thousand words. There are more words behind this one.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

One more donor instruction. Of course. Grant ordered a gaudy lighting cue for the unveiling. Frank objected, and Grant threatened to withhold my payment. I was caught between the person designing the display and the person holding the money. Neither planned to share the blame.

IF INNOCENT

At 6:45 by the show-control desk clock I was at the outer console in the East Gallery. I had checked the dedication inside the alcove at 6:33. I was adjusting the lights, which is very different from being inside the object display. I discussed his lighting demands at the salon doorway.

IF MURDERER

My last inspection was inside the Star Bowl alcove, about 6:44 by the service-desk clock. I went there to adjust the tiny internal lamp above the dedication card. If a donor's name looks crooked, somebody inevitably invoices the producer. I discussed his lighting demands at the salon doorway.

EVERYONE / READ ALOUD

I changed the lighting cue after approval. Grant demanded a gaudy display; Frank objected; I was caught in the middle. My later edit caused the flicker. The emergency security curtain had its own controller, separate from my lighting console. I can own a bad lighting decision without claiming that every machine in the museum belongs to me.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I changed the lighting cue after approval and caused the flicker. My account of the evening was true. My late task was outside the sealed display alcove. Any inspection I made inside it was earlier, before the emergency closure. My concealed business explains the suspicion around me. I did not poison Grant, and I will answer for my own secret without accepting his murder.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

One more donor instruction. Of course. Grant ordered a gaudy lighting cue for the unveiling. Frank objected, and Grant threatened to withhold my payment. I was caught between the person designing the display and the person holding the money. Neither planned to share the blame. I stole the toxin and wiped it inside Grant's empty coupe with museum linen before the cordial was poured. I invented a late alcove visit from the old programme and enclosed-cabinet drawing. I had missed both the early closure and the open-cradle installation. Others lied about their times to hide scandals; my claimed work never happened at all. I was at Grant's glass instead. I acted alone. I poisoned Grant Larceny.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
