

Murder Mystery

Dinner Party 2026

Al Baster

The Meridian Museum

October 30, 2026 / Private player packet / 1 of 12

INTRODUCTIONS

Al Baster

Sculptor & Public-Art Star

Al considers a pedestal a sculpture that has given up on itself. Al makes monumental sculpture in stone, steel, and whatever else can require a crane.

- Frank Lloyd Wrong designed the entrance around Al's sculpture. They still disagree about which one visitors came to see.
- Competes with Vincent Van Faux for commissions. Al keeps calculating how many paintings weigh as much as one sculpture.
- Dada DiCapo once performed inside one of Al's sculptures. Al found out from the photographs.

ACTING TIPS

Big presence, playful arrogance, generous when admired, combative when minimized.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Al Baster. I made the entrance sculpture. I would appreciate your admiration in a tone that suggests prompt payment.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant planned to replace your commissioned entrance sculpture with a cheaper replica after the opening and dispute your final payment.

Your other secret

You built one internal support differently from the approved plan because the fabricator missed a deadline.

Conversations to start

- Ask Frank Lloyd Wrong whether the entrance display still includes your original sculpture.
- Ask Vincent Van Faux how he handles patrons who try to replace an artist's work.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 Find the frame that always contains a portrait of you; check its top.
- 2 A wall-hung painting has a backstage area. That is where to investigate.
- 3 A blue cushion has been acting as a very quiet accomplice. Check its reverse.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you.
After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

Grant planned to replace my entrance sculpture with a cheap replica and dispute the final payment. I changed one internal support when the fabricator missed the deadline. That change should have been approved. He discovered it and decided the entire commission could be treated as defective. He was still happy to be photographed beside it.

IF MURDERER

He wanted a replica at the door and an unpaid sculptor outside it. I had altered an internal support without approval. Grant meant to use that alteration to cancel the bill while keeping the opening-night photographs. I can take criticism of a support. I object to a donor using it to support his own theft.

You can ask someone to repeat a detail. Discuss your suspicions after everyone has answered.

IF INNOCENT

I went to the load-test rig before the toast. The support had to hold under tension, and I held the armature while the recorder ran. I came back with plaster on my hand and a better answer than 'it should probably stand up.' The entrance piece remains mine until somebody pays the invoice.

IF MURDERER

The rig's recorded test was running while I checked the entrance piece in the gallery. I had inspected its support earlier. Before the toast I wiped my hand and went back to the outer worktable with the invoice. Grant had already seen the amended plan in his salon and chosen to misunderstand it.

IF INNOCENT

Look for the plaster thumb in the raw load-test film. It is mine throughout the 6:49–6:55 brass overlay; the force never releases. I hid the support revision inside the invoice. The welded brace differs from the approved drawing. It held, and I wanted Grant to inspect that result before calling the whole commission defective.

IF MURDERER

The plaster thumb came from an earlier adjustment. I put the support revision inside the invoice, where Grant could compare it with his replica estimate. The welded brace was not on the approved plan. I had tested it before the gala. He wanted to keep the opening photographs and replace the sculpture carrying my name.

The sixteen discoveries and five reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I altered the support without approval and concealed the revised drawing. The raw load test shows me holding the armature throughout the real contamination interval after the overlay correction. I wanted payment for the work Grant was displaying. I did not poison him. The sculpture is sound; our agreement was not.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I let the recorded rig test stand in for my whereabouts. With the mounting cloth and reference toxin I coated Grant's empty coupe before returning to the invoice. He intended to keep the photographs, replace the sculpture and pay for neither properly. I decided that he would not get the chance.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
