INTRODUCTIONS

Cary Crates

Senior Art Handler & Installation Specialist

Cary knows which crate holds a masterpiece and which one holds the extension cords. Cary is the person trusted to move objects worth more than the building without dropping either.

- Works daily with Chip Patina.
- Has developed mutual respect with Frank Lloyd Wrong despite arguing about impossible installation drawings.
- Al Baster likes Cary because Cary actually knows how heavy sculpture is.

ACTING TIPS

Grounded, competent, laconic, surprisingly funny when you choose to speak.

YOUR INTRODUCTION / READ THE BOX ALOUD

I'm Cary Crates. I move priceless objects for a living. Please do not test that sentence by handing me your drink.

Continue to your private briefing on page 3. Keep the packet facing you.

Behind the portrait

Your grievance with Grant

Grant saw you damage a minor frame during installation and threatened to have you fired after the gala, despite the damage being repairable.

Your other secret

You concealed the crack with a reversible mount until Chip could inspect it after opening night.

Conversations to start

- Ask Chip Patina whether the minor frame damage can be repaired after the gala.
- Ask Frank Lloyd Wrong which installation needs your attention before the unveiling.

If a named guest is absent, speak to someone else. Your printed account may conceal another scandal, even if you are innocent. Stick to it during the hearings; save corrections for Coming Clean.

Memorize your animal and return the slip. When the host announces the selected animal, use IF MURDERER if it matches yours; otherwise use IF INNOCENT. Never read an IF heading aloud.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

The museum has misplaced its paperwork. Naturally.

Sixteen numbered envelopes are hidden around the house. These three hints lead to three different hiding places. Leave the furniture and household objects where they are. Bring an envelope to the Evidence Table; read and share the discovery inside.

- 1 A cabinet for household supplies has accepted a mysterious new donation.
- 2 The highest point of the vehicle entrance conceals some information.
- 3 A chair made of metal is sitting on information.

Already found? Read that discovery at the Evidence Table, then try another hint. Ask for help reaching a hiding place; nobody needs to climb. You may investigate together.

STOP! Do not turn the page yet.
Wait for the host to announce the next round.

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I cracked a minor frame during installation and covered it with a reversible mount. Grant threatened to have me fired after the gala. The repair was straightforward. Getting him to stop announcing my dismissal was less so. He had seen the damage and decided it could be useful long after it was repaired.

IF MURDERER

The crack was mine. I concealed it under a reversible mount until Chip could inspect it. Grant wanted to have me fired anyway. He could turn a repairable frame into a permanent mark against a handler. I had spent the afternoon rescuing objects he would later explain to guests as though he had installed them himself.

ACT II: OPPORTUNITY

Your answer

Read only the bordered words when asked. Keep your packet facing you. After answering, ask an unheard guest their question from the previous page.

IF INNOCENT

I was stuck in the freight lift from 6:39 to 6:45 with the damaged frame. The cabin intercom recording includes my opinion of the lift. The load camera includes me trying not to damage a second object. I got out after recovery and went back to the receiving table.

IF MURDERER

I checked the frame beside the receiving table while the freight lift was being recovered. I had left a docket in Grant's salon earlier and returned to the gallery before the toast. The mount was holding. I was trying to decide whether to show him the repair or let Chip deliver the finding.

Your answer

IF INNOCENT

The reversible mount is hidden in the frame, not the shipping crate. I used the preparation key for its padding and cleaned the repair with museum linen. Grant had kept a photograph of the crack. I would rather have shown the board the repaired frame than let them judge the work from his photograph.

IF MURDERER

I used the setup key for padding and kept a linen cloth after cleaning the frame. The receiving docket went to Grant's salon with the repair note. I had concealed the crack under the reversible mount. The photograph he kept made it look as though I had done nothing to put it right.

The sixteen discoveries and five reports remain at the Evidence Table.

The last word

Read only when the host calls you. Top three suspects read first. If none confesses, the host calls the selected animal to stand. Use your own role's box; keep every other word private.

IF INNOCENT / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I concealed a repairable crack. The freight-lift camera and intercom account for me throughout the contamination interval, with its doors shut. That recording does not improve my manners, but it does clear the murder. The mount is reversible. The damage Grant was threatening to do to my career would have been much harder to remove.

IF MURDERER / READ ALOUD WHEN CALLED

I stayed beside the receiving table while the lift recovery supplied an excellent distraction. I took the toxin on the padding cloth and wiped Grant's coupe during the docket delivery. He was going to have me fired for damage I could repair. I committed damage that nobody could.

Every selected suspect gets their final word.
